HAMILTON CAN'T SHARE THE FRUITS OF OTHERS

Any Reduction in Price of Power Must Be Obtained By Own Exertion.

HAMILTON, Oct. 20. (Special.)—A. F. Lobb, solicitor of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, made the members of the special civic power committee sit up this afternoon by his statement that the Electrical Development Company had offered to supply power to Toronto through the commission, at a lower price than the commission, at a lower price than the commission, at a lower price than the commission.

Had Papa's Auto. The police were notified this morning that the automobile of R. S. Wilson, Toronto, had been stolen. The police captured the car and were very much surprised to find that one of the young men in it was a son of the owner. With him was Paul Bigelow, 15 Southview. The youths were held until Mr. Wilson came up from Toronto and took charge of them.

William Skimerton, the Toronto union molder, arrested yesterday on the charge of assaulting James Preedy, a non-union molder, was remanded this morning until Saturday. Magistrate J. J. McIntyre, who presided, charged the molder with assaulting Preedy in a house on West Pictou-street, was assessed $5 to pay for the damage.

John Maule, charged with non-support, was ordered to pay $4 a week. A man with a flash lamp was surprised last night while inspecting the door of Dr. Baxter's office. He claimed to be a fire escape and the police.

On account of the fact that T. C. Robinson is engaged in the trial case in Toronto, it is likely the trial for Thursday of the alleged black-and-white man, whom he will defend, will have to be postponed.

Mrs. Mary Carroll, Carlisle, has started a suit to set aside two deeds from Edward Carroll, her deceased husband, to her sons, J. A. and Michael, on the ground that they are fraudulent, and were made for the purpose of defrauding the payment of a debt owing to her from the estate of her deceased husband.

John McIlroy, Toronto, is suing Alex. Taylor, Toronto, for violation of the northern boundary of his property on Yonge-street, near Agnes-street.
