Note and Comment

The Toronto Ball Club piayers failed to make good on the start of this long series at home. The excuse is that the 13 hours journey from Providence unfitted the men for bassball. Still Killian pleased the expert fans by his initial effort, showing that he was not affected by the journey. It was Baltimore on the opposing line, and the wonder is how we won those four straight at Oystertown.

we won those four straight at Cystertown.

Jack Dunn is still a crab. He started out by bluffing the umpire first time upthen drawing a base on balls, litting safely three times and finnally working Wilson for four bad ones.

According to a report from Baltimore the supremacy of the umpire in the basebail field was rudely assailed there early this week when the chief of police told Umpire Brown that if his decisions were such as to cause a disturbance he would put him off the grounds and never let him officiate again. Dunn must be educating the chief along his own lines.

No wonder the press and city council displayed medicore form in the second game of the afternoon that went four innings into darkness, being viewed by many spectators, including the chief rooter. The main feature was the versalility displayed by Mayor Geary, who had good control and all the twists, and on going to second base his worship started the only dobule play of the day, correlling a high fly when the runner on first forgot the signals. Besides playing in a spirit of fairness the aidermen appear not a bad lot who could hardly be connected with some proceedings at city hall as depicted in the evening papear. They did not rag the umpire, Messrs. Jas. Hughes and Joe Thompson, engage-im loud coaching or attempt to spike the infielders as could be expected from men who talk as they do according to the authorities referred to above. Aid.

Complete Records of the Toronto Cricketers in Their Seventeen Games of the Tour in England and Ireland.

According to the figures furnished by the secretary of the Toronto Zingarl, wins of the tour totaled nine. The Cheshire match was a victory, instead of a draw. There were seventeen games originally arranged for the Zingarl, of which fifteen were played. The match against the Green Jackets at Winchester was canceled, and the Blackheath game was abandoned on account of rain. The correct record of games played and results are:

Scores of the sames received by mail, including the M.C.C. have been given

Scores of the games received by mail, including the M.C.C., have been given in The World. The two concluding games of the tour in Ireland were both drawn In the first match against Leinster C.C., the Canadians, after facing an innings defeat, managed to pull the game around, and at the close of time it was very probable that with another ten minutes' play they would have scored their tenth victory. In the final game against Phoenix C.C. the draw was in the Zingari's favor. Interruptions during the second day, on account of rain prevented any chance of a definite result, and the game was drawn before a o'clock, owing to the bad light.

Zingari's batting which was the most depended on was not as big a factor as expected in their victories. The bowling, backed up by good fielding, was very successful.
