League, the latter winning by 6 to 5. This was a very raggedly played game, but was intensely interesting on account of the closeness of the score thruout the nine innings. Diamonds started off strong in the first by plling up four runs, and kept the lead until the fifth, when Hillcrest tied them, making the score 5-5. In the lucky seventh Hillcrest took the lead and kept it thruout the rest of the game. Altho Diamonds strove hard to gain another run they could not overcome Murphy's pitching and the game ended with Hillcrest leading by 6 to 5. Diamonds—
