

PRESBYTERIAN
LADIES' COLLEGE, TORONTO.
LOCATION ON BLOOR ST., OPPOSITE THE QUEEN'S PARK.

This Institution, participating in the Educational facilities afforded by the City of Toronto, provides a thorough, practical and liberal education in

LITERATURE, * ART, * MUSIC * AND * ELOCUTION.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT

UNDER THE CHARGE OF SPECIALISTS.

SCIENCE,

Embracing an extensive and thorough course in Hygiene, under the charge of Miss SUSANNA BOYLE, M.D., C.M., Professor in the Ontario Medical College for Women, Toronto.

ART.

Students have special advantages in Art under the able and efficient teaching of T. MOWER-MARTIN, R.C.A., Director.

ELOCUTION DEPARTMENT

Thoroughly equipped under charge of Miss EDITH MURRAY.

THE HOME AND SOCIAL LIFE

RECEIVES CAREFUL SUPERVISION.

NEW TERM
BEGINS SEPT. 7TH,
1897.
STUDENTS
MAY ENTER AT ANY TIME.

CLASSES
FOR MATRICULATION
AND
FIRST YEAR
UNIVERSITY WORK.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

IS IN CONNECTION WITH THE

TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

MR. EDWARD FISHER, Musical Director.

Young ladies who come to the city especially for music are here provided with the comforts and safeguards of home, have all the privileges of the Conservatory, and may take up some literary subjects at a very nominal expense. The advantages arising from these associations are of immense importance.

EARLY APPLICATION NECESSARY.
NUMBERS LIMITED. NEW CALENDAR.

REV. J. A. MACDONALD,
PRINCIPAL.