THE ST. JOHN EVENING TIMES

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1904.

WEATHER... Northwesterly winds and very cold. raw.

ONE CENT.

THE MARKET IS EXCITED.

Opened Weak and Generally Lower This Morning.

CURB STOCKS WEAK.

Heavy Selling Throughout the List Today... Activity in Copper and Steel and Many Others

New York, Dec. 13.—To-day's stock market opened weak and excited with prices generally lower. The opening transactions showed some confusion, there being wide variations on sales made apparently at the same time.

It is no exaggeration to say that Wall street began the day with more anxiety than it has shown since the May panic of 1901. Reasons for this feeling were plenty, chief among them being the absolute collapse of the market at yesterday's close, revealing weak spots in unlooked for places.

Donaldson Liner Indrani Put into Halifax With Broken Steam Pipe.

Halifax, Dec. 13.—(Special)—Donaldson liner Indrani, Captain Williams 19 days out from Glasgow, bound for St. John put into this port this morning with her main steam pipe broken.

WINNIPEG FIRE.

Winnipeg, Dec. 13.—(Special)—Fire this morning destroyed the three-story building occupied by MacDonald & Fleming, hardware merchants, and also did slight damage to the building occupied by the Heintzman Piano Agency.

INGALS AND HOAR.

Ingals was one of those who had been so often rapped by Senator Hoar that he took keen delight in saying sharp things at his expense. When the Conkling-Garfield episode came up Hoar was so disgusted with the management of the affair that he threatened to resign his seat.

FIVE PER CENT. MONEY.

Action of Call Loans Advanced During Thursday's Break in Stocks, and What it Indicates.

Rise in call money to 5 per cent. during the excited decline in the stock market last Thursday established the highest level touched since January 4. The rate was, however, far from abnormal or excessive. Money had been kept easy, up to the very eve of the May convulsion of 1901; it ran up to 75 per cent. that day.

DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

Hungarian Deputies Raise Riot at Opening of Parliament—Tore Up Codes of Law, Smashed the Furniture and Beat the Guards.

Buda Pest, Hungary, Dec. 13.—Violent as have been the scenes at past sessions of the Hungarian parliament they have been entirely overshadowed by the wreckage effected by members of the opposition party this morning in their successful efforts to prevent the opening of parliament.

MOON IS CRACKED.

Astronomer Discovers That Luna's Face Has Been Damaged.

Berkeley, Calif., Dec. 13.—The discovery of a great crack or rift on the face of the moon which extends lengthwise through the valley of the Alps for eighty miles is one of the facts announced in the latest bulletin issued from the Lick observatory.

LAME DUCK.

Halifax, Dec. 13.—(Special)—The death of M. A. Finn continues to be a topic of regretful conversation among the citizens, to whom he was so well known.

TODAY'S WAR NEWS.

Lisbon, Dec. 13.—Twenty-one vessels of the Russian second Pacific squadron have arrived at Mosambique, Portuguese West Africa, bound eastward.

THE LATE M. A. FINN.

The death of M. A. Finn continues to be a topic of regretful conversation among the citizens, to whom he was so well known. Dr. E. Berryman conducted a post-mortem examination yesterday and found that the cause of death was a fractured skull.

STEAMER WRECKED.

Glasgow, Scotland, Dec. 13.—A gale this morning near the mouth of the Spey. The whole crew numbering ten were drowned.

LIFE OF GREAT FORTUNES.

According to an old fashioned saw, there are only three generations between a coal miner and a millionaire. One of them is said to have already fallen off at least one-fourth when the strain put upon them by the third generation. It is pointed out that water invariably runs down a good deal faster than it can be coaxed to run up hill, and that the same rule applies to fortune.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

At the Dufferin—L. C. Lashley, Turco, Jas. Dorer, Truro; A. R. Wetmore, Fredericton; Jas. Barclay, Liverpool.

WANTS RECIPROCIITY.

San Francisco, Dec. 13.—J. H. Withersford, member of the New Zealand parliament, arrived here. He is on his way to Washington where he hopes to interest the officials of that state in a plan for a reciprocal tariff between the United States and the Austral colonies.

THE TIMES AIM TO BECOME THE BEST AFTER-NOON NEWS PAPER EAST OF MONTREAL.

Uncle George—Wonder if Frank has heard how old he is now. He says he is 70. Mr. Murphy walks in his sleep. Mr. O'Keefe—Is Pat on a policeman's hands or not? A policeman.

EARL GREY CLAIMS HE HAS RAISED THE DEAD.

How Governor General Reached the Capital. Astounding Statement by Father Ignatius, the Famous Anglican Monk of Llanthany Abbey, in Wales—Investigation is Being Made.

New York, Dec. 13.—A despatch to the Herald says: Father Ignatius, or to give him his full name Father Ignatius Joseph Loycester Lyne, the famous Anglican monk of Llanthany Abbey, Wales, reiterates his firm conviction that the days of miracles are not yet past, and that he himself had been the agent of God in their performance, even to the raising of the dead.

On the special train there were Hon. Wm. Paterson, Hon. L. P. Broder, Justice Sedgewick and Killam, and several other large crowds assembled at the depot here to receive the Earl and Countess. Among them were Hon. R. W. Scott, the mayor and aldermen of Ottawa, and the Quarters Militia as well as the capital's leading citizens.

IN THE GRIP OF WINTER.

Snowstorms Cause Inconvenience in the Eastern States.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 13.—The snowstorm which began yesterday serious impeding trolley traffic and steam railroad business during the night raged this morning with apparently unabated strength. Up to 8 o'clock, 11 inches of snow had fallen in the city. On all the lines of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford railroad in the southern part of Connecticut where morning trains were all behind their schedules. In some instances, 4 to 6 hours late. In all parts of the state traffic conditions were similarly affected by the storm.

MR. BLAIR IN FREDERICTON.

No Protests Filed Against New Brunswick Members—Miss Jacob's Funeral.

Fredricton, N. B., Dec. 13.—(Special)—Hon. A. G. Blair, arrived yesterday to attend the semi-annual meeting of the directors of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, of which he is president.

TORONTO'S HOUSE FAMINE.

WILL FACE CARNEGIE.

Mrs. Cassie Chadwick Will go Back to Cleveland OF HER OWN ACCORD

Believed the Missing Half Million Will be Found in the Hands of Pittsburgh Financiers.

New York, Dec. 13.—The apparent purpose of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick and her counsel is to leave to the prosecution the task of uncovering her financial operations. Mrs. Chadwick has been the occupant of a cell in the Tombs for several days, each of which has brought some surprising developments in her case. Neither she nor her counsel has taken the public into their confidence in an effort to explain the mysterious origin of the notes for millions which have figured in the case.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

It Has Been Dissolved—Elections Take Place Jan. 25.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 13.—(Special)—The Globe today makes the long expected announcement of dissolution of the Ontario legislative assembly. His honour the Lieut. Governor, it says, yesterday announced to discontinue, and signed the necessary papers. The elections for the new house will take place Wednesday, January 25, and Nominations January 28. The writs it is understood will be dated December 29.

NEW ZEALAND WANTS FISH.

San Francisco, Dec. 13.—L. F. Ayson, commissioner and chief inspector of fisheries of New Zealand, has arrived here for the purpose of taking a house with him eggs of the eastern whitefish, and salmon to stock the streams and lakes of New Zealand.

Spasmodic attempts have been made for thirty years past to introduce salmon and other American fish into the waters of New Zealand. Most of the work has been done by what is known as acclimatization societies and none of the attempts have been very successful.

FRACTURED HIS SKULL.

Paris, Ont., Dec. 13.—(Special)—Engineer Overend of the westbound International Limited lies here with a fractured skull caused by the projecting arm of the mail catcher at Blue Lake siding striking him as he was leaning out of the cab window.
