LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

President,—Mrs. Campbell.

Vice-Presidents,—Mrs. Darling, Mrs. Jas. Robertson.

Secretary-Treasurer,—Miss M. Patton

The Society meets for work every Wednesday afternoon, from 3 o'clock onwards, in the Ladies' Parlor of the Church. The members also take work to do at home.

Besides providing for the poor of the Congregation, the Society contemplates affording assistance to the Finances of the Church, and all the Ladies of the Congregation are cordially invited to the meetings.

The number of the women of the Congregation attending the several meetings has not been large; but those who have shared in the pleasure of those weekly gatherings would not like to miss them, and they would cordially welcome others who so far have not found their way to the Church, on Wednesday afternoons.

Those who cannot go to the Church every week are earnestly requested to attend as often as they can; and they may be able to render great assistance by making articles at home, even if they are unable to come to any meetings.

The following is an abstract of the work done last year :—

"All the demands of our poor have been met by money or clothing, as the case might require. A Bazaar was held in September, for the building fund, which was very successful. A supplementary sale was also held in December to dispose of the various articles left over from the previous one."
