COMMENTS ON SATURDAY'S GAME

U. N. B. Hampered by Loss of Two Men—Good Forward Line — Thursday's Game at Wolfville.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 24.—"U. N. B.'s football victory over Moncton here on Saturday was not a very illuminating event in the way of giving a line on what may be expected from the Red and Black in the maritime intercollegiate rugby league, which opens this week," declares a sporting writer in the Gleaner, today.

"The fact that U. N. B. played without the services of Captain H. H. Trimble, who is regarded as one of the best back division players at U. N. B., in recent years, as well as Leo Cain, another of the regular back field performers, must have upset the working of the machine coach Jack Astin has been perfecting.

"This may have accounted for the lack of punch in U. N. B.'s attack, the many errors in judgment in the back division and the altogether too frequent fumbling which characterized the play.

West Acadia Thursday.

"The U. N. B. team will leave here tomorrow for Wolfville, N. S., for the opening game of the western section of the intercollegiate league with Acadia on Thursday.

"U. N. B.'s strategists seemed to be convinced before Saturday's game that their forward division had much prowess, and with Jewett and Akertey playing a great game as the Rose members of the

WONDERFUL STORY
RUGGED AND MANLY HOUSE PETERS AND BEAUTIFUL JANE NOVAK
In James Oliver Curwood's Thrilling Romance of a Northwest Mounted Police Officer
"ISOBEL"
THIS PRODUCTION, ADAPTED FROM CURWOOD'S GREATEST NOVEL, "Isobel," and starring House Peters and Jane Novak, has been heralded in all sections of the country as one of the most compelling love stories ever related on the screen. To have to do with the love of one Sergeant William McVeigh for the beautiful and faithful wife of the man McVeigh has been assigned to take dead or alive—McVeigh being of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. In spite of this apparent fatal angle, the two men and the woman are fast friends, and their thrilling adventures in the frozen wastes "north of sixty" compose one of the most masterful chronicles of adventure and love ever presented the public.
