IRING PRESIDENT
WORKED FOR 52 YEARS

said in London that Mrs. Henry Pitt is retiring from the presidency of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, of Great Britain, with which she has been connected since its formation. Her sole reason for withdrawing from the leadership of the oldest women's suffrage organization is that she is seventy-three, and for fifty-two years she has been fighting for the higher interests of women. As one of the pioneer workers in the English movement for the enfranchisement of women her name is associated with the campaign which culminated last year in the bestowal on women of the right to vote. Mrs. Pitt is the widow of the blind Postmaster General of England, whom she assisted in the work. She has published books on political economy, also biographies, including a Life of Queen Victoria. She is a sister of the late Dr. Elizabeth Garrett Anderson, the first seventy-three, and for fifty-two years she has been fighting for the higher interests of women. As one of the pioneer workers in the English movement for the enfranchisement of women her name is associated with the campaign which culminated last year in the bestowal on women of the right to vote.

INTOLERANCE.
(Rev. George Scott.)
I am weary of your creeds,
Heart-weary of your debates,
Of your prosy-titling gospels,
And your hard and bitter hates.

That man is a slave of slaves,
Whose spirit hungers and craves
For the rancor and the strife
Hedging the demagogue's life.

The mark of the outcast's brand
Is on his brow and his hand;
His soul is bitter as gall,
Who pipes the fanatic's call.

No meaner slave could be born,
I hold him in utter scorn,
A curse as wide as the sky
Shall cling to him till he die.

Religion is more than creeds,
For it nourishes and feeds
All that is highest and best,
All that embolies the breast.

A passion for sacrifice,
A hatred of cant and lies,
The chivalry that delights
In granting to each his rights.

When Christ has made a man free
The world shall behold and see,
And own when they see his face
To the miracle of grace.

Wherever he goes or stays
The poor shall beat his ways,
Yea, he shall heal the oppressed,
And give to the weary rest.

Too long have your creeds held sway,
And poisoned God's blessed day,
Too long have their leaden chains
Bewildered men's hearts and brains.

War to Peace

Creating Opportunities for Employment

BESIDES helping to distribute employment through a chain of Employment Offices, the Government has developed plans to create opportunities for employment.

Briefly, these plans cover the following phases:—

- 1. Public Works
During the war, many important Public Works have been held up. The Minister of Public Works, has his plans and preparations made to proceed with the more necessary of these in the near future. This Committee has also been in touch with Provincial Governments and Municipalities, with a view to impressing upon them the necessity for similar action. The building and public works programme now in sight will provide employment for many returned soldiers and war-workers.
- 2. Railways
During the past four years, a great deal of work necessary to keep our railways up to standard has been postponed. Some millions of dollars must be expended on improving road-bed, constructing bridges, buildings and other improvements. Vast quantities of ties are being got out this winter. Equipment of various kinds must be secured. The Minister of Railways states that as soon as weather conditions will permit, some thousands of men will be absorbed in various railway undertakings. The supplies and materials required will also provide employment.
- 3. Shipbuilding
The shipbuilding programme arranged for by the Government will provide employment for many men during 1919. It is expected that arrangements will be completed to keep the shipbuilding yards in active operation throughout the year. The Government recognises that this ship construction is one of the best means of providing suitable employment for many skilled and other workers.
- 4. Export Trade
The Government has established a Canadian Trade Commission. This Commission has an office in Canada and a "trade mission" overseas. Through this trade mission it is anticipated that Canada will secure an important share in the business of materials and manufactured products required for reconstruction work. A short time may be required before final details are completed and the results are announced. The business so secured will be distributed through the regular channels of trade and thus afford extra opportunities for employment.
- 5. Housing
The Government has set aside the large sum of $25,000,000 to be loaned through the Provinces in order to encourage the building of workmen's houses. When the season for building arrives, this work should give employment to many hundreds of men both in construction work and in the supply of materials.
- 6. Land Settlement
The Government, as already explained in a former announcement, has developed plans to help soldiers to become farmers, providing land, granting loans and giving training and supervision where necessary. It is expected that a large number of returning soldiers will take advantage of these opportunities. The scheme will involve the expenditure of some millions of dollars, a good deal of which will find its way into building materials, supplies, machinery, etc., all of which will assist in providing employment.
- 7. Road Building
The Government now has under consideration the question of joining the provincial governments in financing the construction of public highways. Should a favorable decision be reached, a large field for employment opportunities will be opened up. Regardless of Federal action, provincial governments are preparing their own road-making programmes.

The Government is alive to the necessity for providing employment opportunities, and stands prepared to assist in every way possible. If corporations and private citizens will join in this feature of Repatriation Work, Canada should have little difficulty with the employment problem.
