

Attendance at Fair Beyond Expectations

Exhibition Has Already Proved Its Success—Features Today Include Parade of Prize Winning Live Stock—Results of Judging

There can now be no doubt of the wisdom of the directorate of the Exhibition Association in holding the 1914 exhibition in spite of war conditions. The attendance up to date has been in excess of the expectations of the management and with good weather today and tomorrow the gate figures should be highly satisfactory. The fact that the exhibition has been so successful is a splendid tribute to the soundness of business conditions in the province. While the people of New Brunswick are doing their share for the defence of the empire those who are staying at home are also doing their share by carrying on business in the usual way. There can be no cry of hard times around this part of the province while the people have so much money to spend as has been in circulation since the exhibition opened.

The programme for today contains all the regular features and, in addition, the grand parade of all the prize-winning live stock in front of the grand stand after the afternoon performance. The band concert will be given by the Sons of England Band which will alternate with the ladies' orchestra on the grounds and in the main building both afternoon and evening.

The tea room in the women's department will be in charge of the St. John Women's Suffrage Association today.

This morning was one of the quietest on the grounds since the fair opened but the visitors began to arrive by mid-day and soon after noon the various attractions were galvanized into activity and the scene again assumed a lively appearance.

At the Free Kindergarten booth Kewpie Kaddies are now offered to the visitors, a consignment having been received to be sold for the benefit of the kindergarten. There is a brisk sale of baskets at the playground booth, where interested crowds watch the children making them.

CANADA, IN FEW DAYS, TO OFFER A SECOND CONTINGENT TO BRITAIN

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 11.—It is expected that within a few days the Canadian government will offer a second expeditionary contingent for service abroad.

While the offer has not formally gone forward, and probably will not until the Valcartier has been despatched, there have been unofficial intimations to the British government that another contingent might be expected. In fact, the British government has been put in the House of Commons.

PEG O' MY HEART DRAWS ANOTHER LARGE AUDIENCE

It is only on rare occasions that the theatre-going public in St. John has the opportunity to enjoy so fine a play, presented by so well-balanced a company, and with so clever and charming an actress in the leading role, as is afforded by the presentation, at the Opera House, of Peg O' My Heart, this evening. The play has been despatched, and the situation dramatic and at times emotionally so, though the play of wit makes chiefly for mirth and laughter.

There was a very large house last evening, intensely absorbed in the splendid production of a play in which the parts of the players are never overdone.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

The following real estate transfer has been recorded in the city:

ASK FOR INQUIRY INTO STRANDING OF SHENANDOAH

The board of trade council in session this morning with the president, J. M. Robinson, in the chair, discussed several matters of interest to the development of trade, and the promotion of the welfare of the port. It was decided to request Hon. J. D. Hazen to hold an inquiry into the stranding of the steamer Shenandoah. Those present at the meeting besides the chairman and Secretary R. E. Armstrong, were J. A. Lake, A. E. Massie, Senator Thorne, W. F. Burdett, W. B. Baunford, J. H. White, Allan Schofield and C. S. Philips.

MRS. AMELIA WOODS IS DEAD IN ROXBURY, MASS.

Many St. John people will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Amelia Woods, wife of Richard Woods, which occurred at her home in Roxbury, Mass., on Thursday, September 10, after a lengthy illness. She was born on Kennebecasis Island, Kings county, and was a daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Keith. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Lake of Roxbury, Mass., and Mrs. John Mills of Tracy Station; also three sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Craig, of Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. David White, of St. John and Mrs. John Morrow, of Kennebecasis Island, and two brothers, Joseph of Boston and Robert, of St. John. She also leaves several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

On the highway leading to success very few keep to the right.

Canada In The War

Newsy Notes of Activities in Many Parts of Dominion

The Halifax city council yesterday voted $25,000 to the patriotic fund.

Brigade exercises will be begun next week at Valcartier, showing the rapid advance made by the volunteer troops mustered there.

It has been proposed to organize an Imperial Legion in St. John, the object of which will be to enroll all those who cannot join the army but who will volunteer to aid in the support of sick and wounded soldiers and the mothers, wives and children of the soldiers, the idea being to make some sacrifice, however small or large, to save money for the fund.

BELGIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

Fled the years of servile shame!
Belgium, 'tis thine hour at last.
Wear again thy glorious name,
Spread thy banner on the blast.
Sovereign people in thy might,
Sheaf and staff yet and valiant be,
On thine ancient standard write:
King, and Law, and Liberty.

Strive, nor seek discharge at length,
Hold thy courage as thy crown,
God, who keeps thee in His strength
On thy labors smiteth down.
Over all thy fruitful land
Labor's prize is full and free.
On thine arts enthroned stand,
King and Law, and Liberty.

Foes, that our friends of old,
Are returned to love at last,
All the free we prize as gold.
Praying that our strife be past,
Belgians and Batavians, friends,
Knit in brotherhood shall be:
With one voice the shout ascends,
King, and Law, and Liberty.

THE VIGIL

(By Henry Newbolt.)

England! where the sacred flame
Burns before the inmost shrine,
Where the lips that love thy name
Consecrate their hopes and thine,
Where the banners of thy dead
Weave their shadows overhead,
Watch beside this candle-light,
Pray that God defend the Right.

Think that when to-morrow comes
We shall claim command of all,
Thou must hear the roll of drums,
Thou must hear the trumpet's call,
Then let Memory tell thy heart:
Commune with the voice of truth;
England! on thy knees to-night
Pray that God defend the Right.

Single-hearted, unafraid,
Hither all thy heroes came,
On their knees steps were laid
Gordian's life and Outram's name.
England! if thy will be yet
By their great example set,
Here beside this candle-light
Pray that God defend the Right.

So shall thou when morning comes
Rise to conquer or to fall,
Joyful hear the rolling drums,
Joyful hear the trumpet's call,
Then let Memory tell thy heart:
"England! what thou wert, thou art!"
Forth and God-defend the Right!

SHANNON-CODY

In St. Rose's church, Fairville, an interesting nuptial event was solemnized on Wednesday morning by Rev. Charles Collins, when Miss Mary Frances Cody, daughter of Mrs. Annie and the late James Cody, of Kingsville, was married to William E. Shannon, of Milford. Miss Lena Cody, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the bridegroom was supported by his brother, Francis Shannon. The bride was dressed in old rose silk with bridal veil trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid wore purple and gold shot silk. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon will reside in Kingsville.

Edward Gipple of Los Angeles was locked in a cage and given a free ride through the streets of that city. Placards called attention to the fact that he was recently married, and friends, who followed him, explained to the crowds that Gipple was paying the penalty for secretly marrying the stenographer employed in the same firm with them all.

A three days' sale of the Duke of Sutherland's Littleham (Shropshire) estate of 2,900 acres at a rental of £2150 was concluded at Wellington Salop depot. All the lots but one farm were sold, the total for the three days being £116,486. Three farms of between 320 and 400 acres realized £16,000 each, the tenant being the purchaser in each case.

NOT GOING AS EXPECTED

High German Officer's Admission in Letter.

London, Sept. 11.—A Post correspondent writing from a point not given in the despatch, has seen a letter from a high German officer invalided home, in which he states:

"The war is not going quite as well as we expected and the resistance of the allied forces is extraordinary. We are beginning to feel nervous as to results."

"The German losses are terrible, so terrible that the Emperor has forbidden their disclosure. Our generals have been wondrously wasteful with our men, who have been mowed down in thousands."

"While it is impossible to say what our losses are, I estimate them at between 850,000 and 400,000. If they continue at this rate we shall be quite unable to meet Russia with any hope of success."

DETERMINED TO GO

Ottawa Officer Had Offending Appendix Removed.

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—So anxious to go to the front that he had his appendix removed so as to obviate the only objection raised to his enlistment, Lieut. H. N. Bate, of Ottawa, is now convalescing in a local hospital. Lieut. Bate, who is a son of F. C. Bate, an Ottawa business man and sportsman, went to Valcartier to enlist, but was rejected because he had at one time been troubled with appendicitis. Lieut. Bate promptly returned to Ottawa and had the offending organ removed. When recovered he will go to the front.

THE SANJAK OF NOVBIAZAR

(Olin L. Lyman in New York Sun)

A despatch from Kragayovatz recently stated that the Austrians had evacuated the Sanjak of Novibazar.

The Sanjak of Novibazar! It sounds like a drink at the bar. Or the yell of a lynx. With the willies, methinks! It sounds like the name of a star, Shining far. Or the script on a Pullman car.

The Sanjak of Novibazar! It sounds like a family jar. Or the ooliphenic themes. Of mad heroin dreams. Or the growl of a uksing Caar. When they are At grapples in Novibazar.

MAY MEAN RE-OPENING OF THE ANTIMONY MINES

Fredricton, N. B., Sept. 11.—H. P. Timmerman, industrial commissioner for the C. P. R., is here, making inquiries in regard to the antimony mines at Lake George, which were closed down about five years ago. On account of war antimony has recently had a phenomenal advance in price and it is said if satisfactory financial arrangements can be made the mines at Lake George will be re-opened. Mr. Timmerman will go to St. John this evening and will probably interview some of the directors of the company.

Eight men who were rejected at Valcartier came arrived here by noon train today.

The Maritime Baptist convention will meet here on October 17. It is expected that about 200 delegates will attend.

LIQUOR CASE

FARMS BOUGHT

The farm settlement board have purchased from William Crawford 100 acres of land at Johnson, Queens county, at a cost of $900; from R. L. Fullerton, a property at Hopewell, Albert county, $200; from J. L. Peck, property at Hillsboro, $1,000; from A. W. Wilson, property at Hopewell, $400; from Alex Campbell, property at Hillsboro, Gloucester county, $2,000; from Jerome Arsenault, 100 acres at Adamsville, Kent county, $800; from Joseph Arsenault, thirty acres at Adamsville, $500.

REDUCED BY $8.

One of the prisoners before the magistrate today evidently does not seem to be facing any financial difficulties on account of the war. He had $12 and a bottle of liquor when he was arrested at Fredericton Junction by C. P. R. Police men on charges of drunkenness, obscene language and interfering with the police. Asked by the magistrate where he got all the money, he did not seem to think it was much to carry about in his pocket. His money was returned to him minus $8 and he was advised of better ways of spending the balance.

IMPERIAL SPLENDID SHOW TO NIGHT

The programme at Imperial Theatre tonight and tomorrow, will be fresh and sparkling. Rae Eleanor Ball, the violinist, has a new programme of three numbers. Mr. Huskins is singing a new song and the pictures include the following: Mary Pickford in Biograph's pretty little Dutch comedy, "Lena and the Green"; a splendid two-part Pathé romance "The Marriage of Cupid"; and the pictures will be concluded with a rollicking Vitaphone farce "Such a Hunter." The motion pictures of the departure of the first St. John soldiers for Valcartier will be repeated tonight and all day Saturday. These pictures elicited the keenest interest yesterday. Many of those within range of the cinema on the evening of Aug. 22 being surprised to find themselves in the big living photograph. A bright feature of the programme is Mr. Huskins' encore song "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," the marching and fighting ditty of the British forces in France.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION CASE

Hearing in the case of Angus Robichaud vs. John E. Moore & Company, Limited, was held this morning before Mr. Justice McKeown. This is an application under the Workmen's Compensation Act to recover damages for injuries received by the petitioner in a mill at Pleasant Point in last November. The injuries consisted of the loss of three fingers. Francis Kerr, for the defendants, took preliminary objection that the mill did not belong to John E. Moore & Company, Ltd., but to Moore & White, and contended that the wrong
