to convince people that a good article costs more than a poor one, and a Heintzman & Co. make the very best piano, they cannot compete with many others on a mere question of price.

Whoever purchases a poor piano merely because it seems to be cheap does so with a mortifying sense of distrust in his bargain.

LOCAL NEWS OF BOXERS

John T. Power returned home this morning from Halifax where he acted as referee in a recent bout between Mike O'Neil, in which the latter won. Mr. Power said this morning that the bout was a good one, and that O'Neil certainly made a good showing. Foley had the best of the go in the early stages, but O'Neil made a strong finish, knocking his opponent out in the tenth. The bout was witnessed by a large audience, and according to the Halifax papers Mr. Power handled the bout in a very capable manner.

Mr. Power has also had an offer to return to Halifax next Thursday night and referee bouts between Mike (Twin) Sullivan and two boxers from the navy. One of the latter is a middleweight and the other a heavyweight, and Mike has agreed to take on each of them. A good go is expected. It is possible that Sullivan may visit St. John before returning to his home in Cambridge, Mass.

THE POLICE COURT

Henry Murphy and Otis Kelly were arraigned in the police court this morning on the charge of being habitual loafers, common vagrants, and so forth, means of support. The former pleaded guilty to the charge and the latter not guilty. Kelly is hard of hearing, and the court officials had considerable difficulty in making him understand what the charge against him was. Policemen O'Neil and Rennie, Sergeant Scott and Detective Kilian gave evidence. The men were remanded to jail.

Andrew Craig, arrested at night using abusive language to Henry McCann, was again before the court, and was remanded. The complaint was not in court.

Robert Tucker, charged with keeping a disorderly house in Sheffield street, Kate Barrigan and Agnes Cunningham, charged with being inmates, and Charles McLean, charged with being an inmate and stealing $24 from James O'Cook, were before the court and further remanded. Agreements of sale have been recorded for two properties in Lancaster from B. R. Armstrong to the Consolidated Land Co., Ltd., for $37,500 and $34,500 respectively, and the assignment of Consolidated Land Co., Ltd. of the same properties to the Prudential Trust Co., Ltd.

There is also record of an agreement of sale between J. W. Myers and Mrs. M. Gillespie for a property in Waterloo street for $21,000.

In Kings county there is record of the transfer of a property at Westfield from Alex Long to E. M. Sharp for $3,000; I. A. Price to New Brunswick and British Colonization Co., Ltd., property at Greenwich, $3,000; and J. W. Smith to T. N. Vincent, property at Robesay, $3,500.

Throughout the province the number of transfers of farm and other properties has been steadily growing larger, indicating that St. John is not the only part of the province which is progressing. The railway construction which has just been completed or which is under way has opened up large tracts of land for settlement and added greatly to the value of land which has already been settled and cultivated.

From the activity in agricultural properties it is apparent that the population of the province in general will show a marked increase during the next year or two.

NEW CHIEF WILL TAKE POSITION IN CAPITAL MONDAY

Frederick Newspapers' Comment on the Situation in Police Circles

Policeman John H. McCollom, who has received the appointment of chief of police in Fredericton, will sever his connection with the local force tomorrow and will leave for Fredericton on Monday to take up his new duties. He has been a very popular official since joining the local force, and is receiving the congratulations of a large number of friends on his new appointment.

Referring to the police scandal in Fredericton the Glasgow says:—"There is a well-grounded belief that the policemen were in alliance with the liquor and certain other interests. The police affairs of this city cannot be under the control of liquor or other allied interests, nor will public sentiment in this town permit of the two working jointly. Our laws must be respected, and it is the duty of the police to see that their officers are men who respect the oath of office and are ever ready to do their duty. There are those who say that the members of the police commission must have had some knowledge of what was going on. We would not like to think that this latter statement is accurate, and can understand that even under such conditions as have existed the members of the commission, trusting almost wholly to the reports of the police officers, did not themselves fully realize the gravity of the situation. But in any event it will be admitted that the responsibility must rest at least to some extent with the members of the commission, who should have known the conditions."

The Mail says:—"The attempt being made in certain quarters to make scapegoats of the members of the police force is a little too transparent to go down with the public. If the police are found guilty of wrongdoing they will be punished, but there is no reason why the 'higher ups' should get off in a coach. If the members of the police force want to do something to please the public, we would suggest that they tender their resignations. The chairman of the police commission has been so busy during the past year disposing of patronage for the domination and local governments that he apparently forgot all about the police force."

THE HEAVY RIVER TRAFFIC

Not only were most of the river steamers delayed several hours in their arrival from the upper counties yesterday, but in leaving today some were also behind the appointed time, due to their lateness in reaching Indiantown yesterday and the heavy freights being taken both ways. The steamer May Queen due to leave yesterday morning did not reach the city until last evening and her upriver trip was made until today when she left about 12:30 for Grand Lake.

The Ocean made her last trip today. She will return to the city tomorrow and on Monday will be placed at Glenwood for repairs, expected a few days ago. The steamer D. J. Purdy and Champlain got away about on time this morning, each with a heavy cargo. Some delays have left over shipments on hand because of not being on hand early to have them put on board.
