10 per cent. Discount for Cash for One Month. B. Williams & Co., Clothiers and Hatte Clothiers and Hatters.

he would take his seat. He was sure that every member would sooner see the sum spent for schools than for an missioner had given the information, but mamental figure.

Mr. Hall started to sing "He's a Jolly

Good Fellow," just to kill time, but Mr. Cotton called him to order and tried to force the government to answer his question or strike the vote of $4,000 off the estimates. The government not being willing to do either, he took his turn at killing time by quoting statistics as to the average number of children were to each family.

Kitchen took his turn at passing time. After dealing with the school report, he proceeded to read the report of Col. Baker's speech delivered at Van-The chairman called him to order, but as Mr. Kitchen claimed that the speech dealt with education he could read it. Hon. Col. Baker rose to a point of He wanted to know if it was in order for a member to wipe his nose with his fingers.

Mr. Cotton-That is a question privilege, not a point of order. The Chairman-I rule that a member

Mr. Kitchen-The provincial secretary must have come from Billingsgate, where everybody wipes his nose on his sleeve. He had not wiped his nose with

Mr. Kitchen claimed that the speech of the minister of education referred to education, for which the vote under discussion was proposed. He intended to show how the minister of education earn-

Mr. Cotton reminded the chairman that the opposition knew nothing about the vote for the fifth minister, while the govment members did, or should, know The opposition members were therefore anxious to obtain every scrap of information that they could. Mr. Keith in a long speech contended that as there was no room for immigrants there was no room for an immigradion minister. Mr. Hall, who had taken the chair during Mr. Martin's absence, tried to shot off the debate, but Mr. Forster had Hon, Mr. Davie rose to a point of order. The privileges of debate were being abused. The way the debate was being proceeded with was out of or-Hon. Mr. Beaven contended that the government was responsible for the de-

The chairman called Mr. Beaven to clerk and one draughtsman. Hon, Mr. Beaven objected to being peremptorily ordered to take his seat. The chairman appealed to the speaker on the question that the speakers were the debate and obstructing the business small amount was paid for prosecutions. of the house.

Mr. Sword wanted to know if a chair-resolution from the committee.

Hon, Mr. Beaven contended that the plain a civil question put to them.

Mr. Speaker said the information wish-passed. If a member did not come to Baker went up to wake him up. order when called to order he was in contempt of the house, and if a member could put the question as if no member was on the floor of the house. If the question was again referred to him he would apply cloture.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—The cloture cannot be applied in this house. After receiving instructions from the speaker, Mr. Hall again took the chair and Mr. Forster continued the debate. The chairman put the motion while Hon. Mr. Beaven and Mr. Kitchen were on their feet. Hon. Mr. Beaven—You cannot do

The chairman-I intend to put the resolution, and I will put it. Hon. Mr. Beaven-You are a disgrace

o the legislature. Mr. Kitchen-I have the floor. put my amendment and it was carried, sit down. The only way you can make me stop talking is to put me in charge of the ergeant at arms.

Dr. Milne—It is a disgrace to the legslature. He was surprised that members would sit still and stand such a

He did not blame the chairman; he had been put up to do what he had done. No one would sit on him. Hon. Mr. Vernon rose and tried to smooth matters over, everybody speaking at the same time. The chairman again put the motion, but five members were on their feet, and all were talking at once. Mr. Cotton said he would not be sat on by any one. He challenged the chairman to put him in charge of the ser-

Hon. Mr. Beaven-The chairman is a diegrace to the house. Hon. Mr. Davic—A man of your years ought to know better than to speak like

Mr. Kitchen moved that the committee rise and ask the speaker to appoint another chairman. The action of the chairman was a disgrare. Mr. Hall left the chair, and Mr. Martin resumed his place, which he had been out of during the row. Mr. Kitchen wanted to know if his of was in order.

Hon. Mr. Vernon said the proposition made by Mr. Kitchen was not an amend-

The Chairman-As far as I know the Hon. Mr. Davie wanted the speaker's decision on the point, so the speaker this morning will be a lasting disgrace was again appealed to. He decided that to the province. If he pointed out the the amendment was in order. It would have been much simpler to have voted would have to point out something that against the original resolution.

Hon. Mr. Beaven continued the debate other members were asleep. on the original motion. He would like the chairman (throwing his books on to see the vote for the fifth minister de-schools than for a figure head for a department. Uf the government would be simple for the government would be simple for the government to explain the proposition. The strike out the voite for a fifth minister had the right to know why the house vote had been placed on the estimates. Hon. Mr. Davie said the chief comif the leader of the opposition wished to have the explanation over again he would give it. Vioices-Give us the explanation? Mr. Kitchen-I understood the finance ninister refused to give the explanation. Hon, Mr. Turner-What I said was that an explanation had already been

Mr. Kitchen-It looks more like something to dangle before the eyes of members and constituents. Last year $3,000 had been paid the Colonist for publishing a pamphilet on British Columbia to encourage immigration. The pamphlet would not give any information to intend-ing immigrants. If the people had their that some of the magistrates were not way they would decrease the executive performing their duties and they would by two ministers.

was or was not in order. an explanation that would be satisfactory to the opposition. He could not sate Mr. Kitchen m istly the opposition. He would make an explanation if the opposition would vote

Mr. Kitchen-That is beating around the bush. He should explain the matter for the satisfaction of the country. Dr. Milne said an immigration minister was unnecessary. The Dominion The chairman called Mr. Kitchen to government had an agent here to attend > and the debate continued. Mr. Keith said the opposition were not going beyond their privileges in asking the government for information. Hon. Mr. Beaven said the opposition refused to be bulldozed by the government. The attorney-general was too fend of bulldozing. Dr. Milne-The finance minister relied on the explanation of the chief commis-sioner. That explanation was that it fort and keep the government in their was the policy of the government to keep the vote on the estimates. That was no explanation.

Hon, Mr. Davie was speaking on the questions of the unemployed and redistribution when he was called to order. The chairman rang the bell to take a division and half a dozen members jumped to their feet and had a lively discussion as to whether the vote should be

The chairman declared the resolution for $4000 for the fifth minister carried. of Nanaimo and received the same In answer to Hon. Mr. Beaven, the chief commissioner said the staff of his department had been decreased by one Mr. Kitchen asked how it was that outsiders were engaged to conduct prosecutions when there was an attorney-general, deputy attorney-general and crown Hon. Mr. Davie explained that a very

The members of the opposition obtained Mr. Sword wanted to know if a chair from the government explanations of all man could appeal to the speaker without the changes in the estimates of civil service salaries. On the vote of $1500 for Mr. Speaker having taken the chair a librarian there was a long discussion. ing the business of the house was a the year around when the house was only in session for three months every year.

Mr. Semlin moved that the allowance members of the government were the be reduced to $300, the former vote, but betructionists. They had refused to ex- his motion was defeated and the original vote was passed. During the discussion on vote 28, ed for could be asked for in the house. $22,320 for supreme and county courts. The discussion in committee should be Mr. Martin had his head on the chair confined to the vote proposed to be and was apparently asleep. Hon, Col. It was suggested that the house should adjourn, it being 6:15, but Hon. Mr.

would not come to order the chairman Davie refused to consent to the adjournment. Mr. Semlin-If the attorney-general tries to tire us out he will have a long wait. Hon. Mr. Beaven called attention to the number of members asleep and several heads flew up from desks. Mr. Martin, the chairman, vote 28 adopted.

Hon. Mr. Beaven-I was on my feet before the vote was passed. I cannot help if the chairman was asleep and could not see me. The chairman-Sit down. You are out of order Hon. Mr. Beaven declined to sit down, Hon. Mr. Davie-When the chairman

The chairman—But he will not sit down. Will the leader of the opposition sit down? Hon. Mr. Beaven sat down and got The chairman-Why do you sit down and get up again. The vote has been Hon. Mr. Beaven-You are mistaken. The chairman—You are mistaken. Mr. Rogers-If you cannot bring him to order appeal to the Speaker. The chairman—The leader of position is all right. Mr. Sword wished to know if the motion for the committee to adjourn was in The chairman-No such motion was

The chairman-You are mistaken.

Mr. Sword-You are mistaken.

Dr. Milne-You were asleep. Mr. Kitchen-The vote could not be passed when there was a member on the The chairman-The member had no right to be on the floor.

Mr. Kitchen-It was not passed. Hon. Col. Baker contended that Mr. Kitchen was out of order, Mr. Kitchen-What is the point of or-

Mr. chairman-The point of order is that you are saying nothing. Hon, Mr. Davie said it was very unseemly for a member to wrangle with the chairman. The question should be referred to the Speaker. Hon, Mr. Beaven—The proceedings reason for this unseemly discussion he had been brought into the house that had The amendment was negatived and caused the wrangling. The chairman and ecretary had to wake you up.

Mr. Sword appealed to the Speaker. The Speaker having taken the chair arguments on both sides regarding the pass age of the vote was discussed. government claimed that Hon. Mr. Bea ven and Mr. Sword were not on the floor when the vote was put, the oppo sition claiming otherwise.

The Speaker put the motion to the house and the chair was sustained. There was a long discussion on the ote for stipendiary magistrates. was pointed out that in Nanaimo another magistrate had to perform the duties of the stipendiary magistrate and the same was the case with one of the Westminster magistrates.

Hon. Mr. Davie said he was aware be brought to task for it. The vote had The chairman and Mr. Kitchen had a to be passed, however, as there was an lively spat as to whether Mr. Kitchen agreement with the Dominion govern-Those magistrates that did not Hon. Mr. Davie said he could not give do their duty would, however, not receive Mr. Kitchen moved to strike out the vote, which was defeated. Mr. Keith introduced an amendment can wipe his nose with his fingers if he age or nay after the explanation was to do away with the magistrates who were not doing their duty. The chairman was putting the question without receiving the amendment

Mr. Keith told him that he did not know what he was talking about. The amendment was defeated.

Mr. Kitchen did not think it was ne-At 3:30 a.m. a suggestion to adjourn cessary to appoint a gold commissioner was made but neither side would yield and recorder for Alberni. The vote was, however, passed. Mr. Beaven said, seeing it was 7:30, the house should in all reason adjourn. The government refused to adjourn. Hon. Mr. Beaven contended that the members could not deal with figures after having been up all night. Mr. Kitchen advised the leader of the opposition to go home. The other memseats longer than they bargained for. On the vote of sessional allowance, Mr. Kitchen moved to decrease the number of members and the allowance of each from $600 to $400. The amendment was lost. At a quarter to 8 Hon. Mr. Beaven moved that the committee rise and re- rietors will permit the output to deteriorport progress, but the government voted it down and Mr. Beaven left the house. Mr. Forster could not see why there should be so large a vote for Cowichan.

amount as Nanaimo. Mr. Croft made a few remarks and Mr. Martin declared the vote carried. Mr. Forster claimed that the chairman was taking a snap vote. Hon. Mr. Davie, wishing to speak to Nanaimo, he said, had been very fairly dealt with. too well treated. Mr. Forster moved that the vote be reduced to $4000.

the question, the motion was again put.

The chairman declared the amendment Mr. Sword said he was on his feet besaid he would stand no fooling. The charge that the minority were obstructive was not necessary to pay a librarian all to the house against the decision of the A Tacoma ice company, represented by chair. Mr. Semlin complained of the inadequacy of the vote for Yale district. The premier had promised to do more than $20,000 worth of work in the district. Mr. Kitchen said it was a waste of money to spend $1000 to survey the Squamish and Pemberton Meadows trail. They knew quite well where the trail was. It would be better to spend the money to improve the trail. Mr. Sword asked the government what they intended to do with the $20,000

Hon. Mr. Vernon said part of it would be used to carry out the topographical surveys in West Kootenay. Hon. Mr. Beaven, who had returned after a couple of hours, said the $8000 for advertising should be called a corruption fund. Hon. Mr. Beaven and Hon. Mr. Semlin objected to the vote of the board of ex- on the rails. The wheels of the next aminers of the Provincial Surveyors' Association holding that the principle was bad and that all sorts of professions his clothing became entangled and before would be making applications.

Hon. Mr. Davie held that the surveyors were differently situated than the other professions.

orders a member to sit down, he has to from the Imperial Institute as far as sit down.

British Columbia was concerned. Only recently a lecturer at the Institute had run Canada down.

Hon. Mr. Baker said he was sorry to hear that about the Imperial institute. Were the honorable member to go to London he would appreciate what a fine thing the institute was. The honorable nember neglected to say that the lecturer and been hissed from the platform by his anditors. So would the honorable lender of the opposition were he there. He and his confreres were the only ones who were crying down the province and injuring its reputation.

Hon. Mr. Beaven defied the provincial secretary to prove that he had ever run the province down. In fact the provincial secretary himself had done much to injure both the province and his reputation abroad. The government members had done much to injure the reputation of the province in bringing false returns to the house. The speaker was called to order by Mr. Booth, chairman. He protested that Hon. Mr. Baker had been allowed to speak. He said anyhow they were voting money they did not have unless they resorted to further taxation or borrowed it.

Hon. Mr. Beaven, when the item of $3000 for the provincial board of health was reached, said that it needed an explanation. It again brought up the question of the payment to the provincial health officer. He desired to say that the objection to the bill was not because it but because the payment was illegal. Dr. Davie's pay went on at a time when the when there was no occasion for his employment at all. Hon, Mr. Davie said that Dr. Davie could not be employed by a private party | hall last night was well attended. for twice the sum paid him. He held

Hon. Mr. Beaven-Tell me what service Dr. Davie performed in 1893?

Hon. Mr. Davie—Kept it out.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said the city health officer aided by better Dominion regula-tions had kept it out. He denied the charge that he had neglected the small-The only question was the securing of a site for a pest house. The hands of Dr. Milne, city health officer, had been tied with injunctions.

In considering the vote of $22,363.35 in the supplementary estimates for interest, Hon. Mr. Beaven said the sum was not really a supplementary estimate but an The action of the hon. atndemnity. torney-general in appointing the provincial librarian was illegal. He also pointed out that of the vote of $48,000 for oads, streets, etc., $32,000 had already een spent and special warrants issued. He named a number of abuses of the special warrant privilege.

At 12:45 the estimates were finally passed and amid cheers the committee rose, reported progress and asked leave On motion of Hon. Mr. Davie, seconded by Hon. Mr. Vernon, the house went into committee with Mr. Croft in the chair to consider the address of His Honor the Lieutenant-Goyernor, transmit-ting the redistribution bill. Hon, Mr. Beaven called for an explanation of the There was half an hour's talk on rules of order and the bill was finally reported, read a first time and the second reading set for Monday. The house adjourned at 1:15.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

New Westminster, Feb. 26.-The fact poned. that the woollen mill will resume work. after a long suspension of operations, under the management of C. Boyer & Co., Vancouver, who have leased the sign of the better times coming. The themselves for the express purpose machinery will be thoroughly everhauled ejecting the Mongolians at all hazards. and the mill will then start at its full capacity. The cloth turned out under the old management was a superior article. and it is not likely that the new propate. Those who understand the business believe, notwithstanding the high rate of wages, that tweed manufacturing can be made highly renumerative in That district was only one-third the size | British Columbia.

Among the other ridiculous political rumors afloat in this city is one thought worthy of being retailed in the News Advertiser, to the effect that Theodore Davie will run against Kitchen in Chilli wack. Another report says that Mr. Kitchen will run for Ottawa as an independent opponent of the Thompson Wonder if our friend Kitchen, who, notwithstanding the dia-Mr. Kitchen said Cowichan district was tribes of the vulgar World, is an ablo man and a true friend of the district ever read the fable of the dog crossing a stream with a bone in his mouth.

After all the talk about cold storage in the other cities, New Westminster is likely to get the start and have in opera-Mr. Harris, proposed erecting a cold storage building 60x120 feet, two stories high, and asked for "encouragement" in the shape of a little municipal assistance There is no doubt that this city, as the headquarters of the great fishing industry, is the proper place for a "freezer' and our citizens will be shortsighted if they don't help the project along to success. Mr. Harris will return in a few days again to complete his arrangements.

NANAIMO.

Nanaimo, Feb. 24.-The Joan brought down news of a frightful accident which occurred to a Chinaman on the Union mine railroad on Thursday. As the locomotive passed a number of Chinamen on the line some of them jumped on board the cars, but one unfortunate fellow missed his footing and fell head first car immediately passed over his neck decapitating him instantaneously, then the engine was stopped the body had been literally torn to pieces in a horrible manner, so that it had to be removed with a shovel. The Chinaman's death was caused by his own rach act and no one else is to blame.

By the same steamer comes the news of the arrest of two Indians supposed to have been implicated in the murder of Green and Taylor at Savory Island, The Indians claim to know the whereabouts of Lynn, and intimated they were willing to conduct the police to his hiding place, which is a cave situated in the mountains, but they first want to be assured they will be suitably rewarded. Mayor Quennell has been assured by Hon. Mr. Turner, minister of finance that something will be undertaken by the government towards the erection of suitable schools for Nanaimo, although noth ing will be done at this session on an extensive scale.

Mrs. B. Aaronson is confined to her bed from injuries received by coming into collision with a coasting party.

Nanaimo, Feb. 23.—The funeral of Peter Beyer took place yesterday under the auspices of the A. O. F. of Wellington. The remains were followed by a large number of Foresters and other ac quaintances. The fact that the deeased lost his life while bravely saving that of an acquaintance, aroused great sympathy, and the sad occurrence cast quite a gloom over the town of Welling-

Captain Gibson of the Crown of England and Pilot John Sabiston were indig nant yesterday on learning that an item had been published in the morning local paper to the effect that the vessel had struck a rock on her way up from Vicobjection to the bill was not because it toria. Such a false report is damaging was paid to a brother of Hon. Mr. Davie to the captain and the pilot and will undoubtedly cause the captain much inconvenience and annoyance. The captain law was not in effect, and at a time says if he can find out who started the report he will take legal proceedings.

The masquerade ball given by the Diamond Dancing club in the co-operative Some time ago the residents of China-would not be necessary very likely to put the whole staff on but the law would be put in effect and a secretary placed in for but by the time they arrived the money had been refunded with good interest.

The steamship Crown of England has received the quickest dispatch of any steamer that has ever entered the Nanaimo harbor. She went under the shutes about 4 o'clock on Wednesday and was loaded last night with over three thousand tons of coal.

The Crown of England has heretofore carried a certain amount of ballast on her trips up from Saa Francisco. This entailed an outlay of $100 each trip. To do away with this expense she has taken on two large tanks, formerly used on the steamship Romulus, capable of holding 50 tons of water, which will act in the place of ballast.

W. Hughes, a settler at Cape Mudge. reports having found on the beach a quantity of ship's stores, including flour and a barrel of beef, and a boat, presum ably part of the wreckage of the ill-fated steamer Estelle. Constable Brown dislocated his arm last night in a friendly wrestle with another man. He was not much hurt. Nanaimo, Feb. 26.—The engine driver of the train which mangled Vater at Wellington on Saturday, in speaking of the accident, said Vater must have been ent-minded. There is no fault attached to the driver, and many eye-witnesses endorse his statement.

There are several enthusiasts in the city who are doing their utmost to drum up a crowd to put in an appearance at the meeting of government supporters arranged for to-morrow evening. It is a useless task, and even with the aid of the morning local newspaper it is doubtful if a quorum will be present, and then the meeting will probably be post-

The settlers of Alberni appear determined to take the settlement of the Chinese question into their own hands. They find that it is a failure and waste of valuable time to petition the legisproperty for four years, is hailed as a lature, and so they are organizing among The funeral of Mrs. Anderson, who died at Northfield on Friday night, took place on Saturday afternoon W. Wilson has leased the Hotel Wilson to G. R. Raymond, late of the Colonial hotel. Westminster VANCOUVER. Vancouver, Feb. 23.—The board licensing commissioners met this morning and decided to cut off four licenses of hotels the accommodation of which is not up to the standard. They announce ed that they were determined to insist on all hostelries complying with the A. M. Beautie has been notified of his recognition as Hawalian consul by the British government. In the police court this morning a boy named Collingham, who says that his mother keeps a house of ill-fame in Victoria, and who was found wande ing about the streets, was remanded for A. H. Lynn-Brown is threatening a suit for libel against the Westminster

Columbian. In Vancouver on Friday night, a fine ng young fellow applied at the lock-up for a night's lodging, stating he was "broke." He said he had come from New Zealand. In one of his pockets was found a purse in which was $1, Then he was told he could not be accomodated as he had more than he would pay for his bed and breakfast. He was very indignant at the turn events took, and he left without saying good evening. A meeting of those interested in poultry and pet stock will be held in Vancouver during the next few days for the purpose of forming an association and holding an exhibition. The correspondent of an Island journal residing here was the fortunate winner of a hig prize in a lottery a few days ago. He now wants to buy out the aforesaid island journal, and continue in the lottery business.

Bakersfield, Cal., Feb. 23.-A tramp who tried to assault a woman near Poso yesterday was attacked by a dog and es caped. The woman got away and rode barebacked to where her husband was and told her story. The husband and neighbors caught the tramp, bared his back, tied him to a telegraph pole, and gave him an unmerciful lashing with a blacksnake. The wife whipped until she was tired, then the husband, and afterwards the neighbors. The tramp was then tunned loose and hurried away. New Haven, Conn., Feb. 23,-The condition of ex-minister Phelps this morning was more favorable, though still critical. New York, Feb. 23.—This morning Alexander Mohr, a discharged employee of Ludurg Bros., Fourteenth street, entered the store waving a bludgeon and threateningly demanded $100,000 from Ludurg. He was seized and handed over to the police.

Rhenmatism cured in a day.—South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 5 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. To cents. Sold by Langley & Co.

before Buying a Bottle of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER You may need it to night

MEDICAL.

A Gure is Guaranteed

pr money cheerfully and conscientiously refunded.
PRICE $1.00, 6 PACKAGES $5.00.
Sent by mail to any point in U.S. or Canada, secure, sealed free from duty or inspection.
Write for our Book "STARTLING FACTS" for make saily. Tells you how to get well and stay well. ADDRESS D. E. CAMPBELL Family Chemist SOLE AGENT,

Quickly, Thoroughly, Forever Cu

api8-ly wk

VICTORIA, B. C.

by a new perfected scientific method cannot fail unless the case is beyond aid. You feel improved the first day benefit every day; soon knew yourself among men in body, mind and heart and losses ended. Every obstacle to ha married life removed. Name force. energy, bruin pawer, when failing or is are restored by this treatment. All st and weak portions of the by yenlarg da strengthened. Victims of abuses and excess es, reclaim your manhood! Sufferers for felly, overwork, early errors, ill health, reg. your vigor! Don't despair, even if in the stages. Don't be disheartened if quad have robbed you. Let us show you that medical science and business honor still exist, here go hand in hand. Write for our book with explanations and proofs. Sent sealed, fice Over 2,000 references.

ERIE MFDIGAL CO., Buffalo, N.

All the Nourishment of Prime Beef is rendered available to the INVALID AND CONVALESCENT

Johnston's Fluid Beef

Which embodies the virtues of Prime Beef in an easily digested form. For sale by all Grocers and Druggists, Propared by The Johnston Fluid Beef Co

Audijan. This extraordinary Recuvenator is the most wonderful discovery of the age. It has been endorsed by the leading scientific men of Europe and America. Budyan B inble.

Hindyan stope

Prematureness

of the discLarge in 20 days. Cures MANHOOD Constipation, Dissiness, Falling Sense Nervous Twitching of the eyes and parts. Strengthens, invigorates and the entire system. Hudyan cures de Nervousness, and developes and to weak organs. Pains in the back stopped quickly. Over 2,000 privile Prematureness means impotency in the stage. It is a symptom of seminal weakness the crube stopped in 20 days buse of Hudyan.

The new discovery was made by the first of the old famous Hudson Medical Lute. It is the strongest whater made very powerful, but barmless. Sold for subscript of the crubes of packages in $5.00 (plain stocks). Written guarante given for a crube will be sent to you free of allice. Send for circulars and testimonals. As HUDSON MEDICAL INSTITUTE

SELJAY'S LIVER LOZENGES. 25 CENTS A BOX hey do not nauscate or rack and weaken the sy ke pills and other purgatives, but they tone up

Ask Your Bruggist For Thesia

VOL. 9-NO. 33. WHOLE NUMBER BLAND IS

The Champion

ENTERTAINS NO

Seignora

He Feels Utmost Bill Pi

A Quorum Secured Dead-Lock in Co Hailed with C Million Dollars of the Ledger.

Washington, Feb. in the house is broke been secured on the bill. There was a committee on rules of the presence of a had their resolution utmost confidence in

Mr. Bland in conver London, Feb. 28. Gazette says the reti stone is now merely time. Referring to I says: "Whoever sha must nail the green The Pall Mall Gaz son for his retireme stone has never like new Radicalism. C of home rule, he is Burtsell Wo New York, Feb. recognized as the g

Roman Catholic can side of the ocean, Rome. This news yesterday by a Catho pathy with Dr. Bur tion did not come but through a frien the church, who is it to the righting of down to a bishop of who is in communi said last night that advices of Burtsell's expected he would May 1st.

She Was Wait New York, Feb. 2 60 West 6th street, Jefferson Market cov noon charged with was arrested while in Elizabeth Hewett, the court, Mrs. Hewett band, George Hewet agent in London h divorce against her. Hall as bo-responder anxious to avoid the iety of a trial, so in for this country, he f steamer. Dr. Hall, v a wife in England, s ett had been singing cert hall, under the i He did not deny tha her in London, but se erica two months ag He started on a slow hawk, but she follow of Paris, and was w on the dock when he He acknowledged ent in her husband' said he could not be h the divorce was graand by the English come effective until elapsed. "If you h to this country," said will have to support produce any evidence troduced her as your bind you over to pa every week." Dr. 1 til March 1st, and M to bring her witnesse Motives for Wi

New York, Feb. 28 rent yesterday that l mplated startin to R. G. Dun & Co this caused the arre and the charge of for this was the secret of the two men, Dun an Lawyer Bordman ha he hinted a reason f client which had not When the story read Wiman, he denied it templated establish agency," said he to a no syndicate of we to back me in any s the motives for my learn of them at the there is nothing more about my case."

Caprivi's Maste Berlin, Feb. 27.-I day Chancellor von masterly defence of sian committee treat tion of the speech d the Reichstag by P which the old chang either himself or his deavor to conclude with Russia.

Detecting a Morgantown, Pa., Cassidy, a young man Saturday night about place. There was lerer, other than the Morrow, James Whis Williams had been was found dead. three were summone ing beyond the fact assidy was proved, Whisenhunt were on witness was directed was asked to put his body, which had not