The Pacific Cable

The Postmaster-General Explains How the Cost Will Be Divided.

Sir Charles Tupper Congratulates the Government on Their Success.

(Special to the Times.) Ottawa, July 25.—In the Commons to-day Hon. W. Mulock moved the House in committee on a resolution regarding the Pacific cable.

Sir Charles Tupper congratulated Hon. Mr. Mulock on the lucid and clear way he put his resolution. He also congratulated the government for being able to induce Britain to aid in the enterprise.

Mr. Charlton thought there were other enterprises, such as the Hudson Bay railway, the Yukon railway and the Ottawa and Georgian Bay canal that were more deserving of attention.

Statement in the British House. London, July 25.—In the House of Commons to-day Rt. Hon. Wm. St. John Broderick, replying on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, said the government had an arrangement for the construction of the Pacific cable.

The government has been informed, Mr. Broderick said, by the Eastern Telegraph Company, that they were prepared to lay a cable from South Africa to Australia without pecuniary assistance of any kind, and the receipt of the local authorities in maintaining order.

On the immigration estimates Hon. Clifford Sifton said that he had given some consideration to the question of getting Old Country farmers interested in the uncultivated land of the older provinces.

There was a Conservative caucus this afternoon. Resolutions of condolence were passed with the families of the late Senator Sanford and Hon. W. B. Ives.

At the privileges and elections committee meeting to-day Mr. Tobin, bill clerk, was examined and swore that everything in connection with the voting at Colborne port, West Huron, was regular and the only ballots used were from the same pad as supplied, J. Lawson, a scrutineer, gave similar evidence.

Major Perry, of the Mounted Police, Vancouver, is here. Senator Templeman left for home on Sunday. There was another meeting of the privileges and elections committee to-day, but nothing new was elicited.

Excitement has been caused here by the mysterious poisoning of a score of guests of the Inns of Court Hotel, which, it is alleged, was due to American canned fruit. A second victim, W. W. Bartlett, of Philadelphia, died during the night. The fruit was eaten a week ago and all who partook of it were made ill, one of the number dying on July 22.

London, July 25.—The Privy Council has dismissed the appeal from the judgment of the court of the Queen's Bench of Lower Canada in the case of Demers against the Bank of Montreal.

Montreal, July 25.—The stock market, morning board: War Eagle, 388, 385; Payne, 140, 135; Montreal & London, 45, 40; Republic, 120, 119. Sales: Payne, 550 at 129, 12 at 140; Montreal & London, 1,500 at 45.

RACE TROUBLES IN GEORGIA.

Execution of Two Negroes Who Will be Executed This Afternoon.

Macon, Ga., July 25.—A special from Leesburg, Ga., says a negro, supposed to be one of the Saffold ravers, was killed by a citizen last night while resisting arrest.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 25.—There will be a double lynching in the west to-day unless something unforeseen occurs. Two more members of the band of negroes implicated in Sarmin's confessions are in the hands of a posse of whites.

San Francisco, July 25.—The United States transport Morgan City, which has been converted into an hospital ship, arrived yesterday from Manila, having on board 473 sick and convalescent soldiers. Three died on the voyage.

Cleveland, O., July 25.—After a night marked with disorder and rioting, the city this morning presents a peaceful aspect.

On all the lines of the Consolidated cars started on schedule time, breaking the usual obstructions, bricks and rubbish placed on the tracks in the outlying districts, there was no interruption of traffic during the early part of the day.

Major Farley has been notified by Adjutant-General Aikine that troops to the number of nearly 1,000 men will arrive in Cleveland this afternoon to assist the local authorities in maintaining order.

Body Will be Cremated at Fresh Pond This Afternoon. New York, July 25.—Mrs. Ingersoll, who was taken ill yesterday, may not be able to go with the body of her husband, Colonel Ingersoll, to the Fresh Pond crematory this afternoon.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 25.—General Juan Ybarri, of Mexico, who is in the city, has received a telegram from Cuyamaca, Mexico, stating that Carlos Hale, son of the late American consul at that point, has been murdered by the Yaqui Indians.

Further information is given that the warlike Yaquis are again in a state of revolt. The Mexican forces, commanded by General Lorenzo Torres, yesterday engaged the Indians in battle, defeating the savages, and forcing them to retreat to the mountains. A cousin of General Torres was also killed during the fight.

Laporte, Ind., July 25.—A cyclone which struck the eastern portion of this city last night wrecked the boot and sub-store of Butterworth & Co., and levelled other buildings to the east of the city. It is feared Jacob Morton and William Steele, who live on the Kan-kakee marsh, have been killed. Their houses have been wrecked, but it is not known whether they were inside the buildings when the storm wrecked them.

Lillooet, July 25.—There has been little or no change in the river since the last report. The weather is clear and warmer.

Quesselle, B. C., July 25.—The river is about at a standstill. The weather is warm.

Lillooet, July 26.—The river is about at a standstill. The weather is warm and clear.

War Not Nearly Over

A Manila Correspondent Says the End of Hostilities is Not in Sight.

He Complains of Otis's Censorship—Sick Soldiers Return From the Philippines.

London, July 25.—A private letter received to-day from a war correspondent at Manila, dated June 17, says: "There seems no end of the war in sight. The censorship is becoming more troublesome. General Otis recently established the rule that any matter relating to the army must be taken to the commander of the fleet for approval, and afterwards submitted to the military censor, thus adding to our difficulties."

San Francisco, July 25.—The United States transport Morgan City, which has been converted into an hospital ship, arrived yesterday from Manila, having on board 473 sick and convalescent soldiers. Three died on the voyage.

Washington, July 25.—A high official to-day pointed out the reason why the United States government has refused to accept fair arbitration of the pending questions. In the first place the United States government is absolutely certain of the soundness of its claims in the matter of the boundary.

Paris, July 25.—General Pellieux, recently military governor of Paris, has been appointed to command the 44th Brigade, located at Quilber, department of Finistère.

Major Count Esterhazy will receive a safe conduct to enable him to testify before the court martial at Rennes for the Dreyfus case.

Paris, July 25.—At a meeting of the cabinet this morning the Minister of War, General the Marquis de Gallifet, announced that General Dalstein had been appointed to the military command of Paris vice General Pellieux.

Washington, July 25.—At today's cabinet meeting the main topic was the Alaskan boundary line dispute.

Secretary Hay explained the status of negotiations now in progress between himself and Mr. Tower, the British charge d'affaires, and said he was not without hope that the vexed problem would be solved by direct negotiations.

London, July 25.—Despite disquieting reports, it is believed at the British foreign office that the Alaskan boundary dispute is trending towards settlement. The United States ambassador to-day forwarded to Washington an important detailed dispatch embodying the position with reference to the Lynn Canal strip.

Montclair, July 26.—President Loubet arrived to-day to spend his vacation. He was welcomed by the mayor and corporation officials, after which he repaired to Marseanne to visit his mother.

It is inferred to think of the number who are induced from cancers and tumors, and other diseases of the throat, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, made especially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

Has Kruger Resigned?

There Are Conflicting Reports Regarding the President of the Transvaal.

Late Telegrams Says Oom Paul Is no Longer Head of the Republic.

Capetown, July 25.—Advices have been received here confirming the report that President Kruger, of the South African Republic, has resigned.

London, July 25.—Reports regarding the resignation of President Kruger are conflicting, but according to the best information he has actually resigned office, conditionally. The Volksraad, while maintaining its opposition to President Kruger's views on the dynamite concession, has given its assurance that it still had the utmost confidence in him, and it is believed he has withdrawn his resignation.

Paris, July 25.—General Pellieux, recently military governor of Paris, has been appointed to command the 44th Brigade, located at Quilber, department of Finistère.

Major Count Esterhazy will receive a safe conduct to enable him to testify before the court martial at Rennes for the Dreyfus case.

War Was Imminent

An Outbreak of Hostilities in South Africa Narrowly Averted.

The Imperial Government Had Arranged For Ten Thousand Men From India.

Stimla, July 24.—It has transpired that the imperial government had regarded war with the Transvaal as being imminent and that just prior to recent amelioration of the situation it arranged with the Indian government to dispatch ten thousand troops to South Africa, on brief notice.

Washington, July 26.—Mr. Tower, the British charge d'affaires, had an interview this morning with Secretary Hay, presumably with reference to the Alaskan boundary. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Choate on the subject for several days.

It is pointed out here that there appears to be a misunderstanding in some quarters as to the history of the pending proposition relative to a free port on the Lynn canal under United States sovereignty. The Canadian government never accepted that proposition as a basis for even a temporary arrangement.

Liverpool, July 26.—The Roman Catholic reformatory ship Clarence was destroyed by fire this morning.
