Tokio, June 10 .- 6 p. m.-Japan has agreed to President Roosevelt's suggestion to appoint plenipotentiaries to meet Russian plenipotentiaries.

WHY JAPAN DECLINED TO START NEGOTIATIONS.

London June 10 .- The keenest interest is manifested in President Roosevelt's note endeavoring to bring Japan and Russia to an understanding. While the of whose actions in the matter it has British government is not taking any Diplomatic and official circles are fully in accord with what the cordinate and that the order are order as the order are orde in accord with what they consider to be the only way in which the difficulty could be overcome. The United States, not being entangled in any way, was really the only country which could take action but even President Roosevelt could not do more than endeavor to start direct negotiations between the beliiger demands will include an indemnity the amount of which has been fixed by the Japanese government, and on this point the President is urging lenient treatis entitled to an indemnity, which would
