Hard Work, Secret of Mr. Borden's Success

Industry Supplemented by Ability Key Note of Prime Minister's Career — Won Distinction as Lawyer and Athlete

(Ottawa Journal.)

The magnificent banquet to Mr. Borden in Montreal recently marked fittingly the anniversary of his victory in the general election of September 21, 1911.

The commanding position which R. L. Borden occupies in the British Empire today is an example of what can be done by hard work, aided, of course, by brains.

That he is not a university man is sufficient answer to those who claim that a college course is necessary to those who would climb to the topmost rung of the ladder of scholarship and politics. Robert Laird Borden was educated at a Nova Scotian Academy and in the year or two following devoted himself with such success to general study that while in his teens he became professor in a New Jersey College.

Law, however, drew him back to Canada, and he apprenticed himself in his native province. In 1878, at the age of 24, he was called to the Bar. Then began a spectacular career in the legal profession. It may be said that in the short term of 18 years he became the most conspicuous lawyer in the Maritime Provinces, where hard headed men abound. In that short time he had an exceptionally large Supreme Court practice—the highest test of efficiency in the practice of law—and he came to Ottawa at the early age of 40 as member of Parliament for Halifax, and possessed of independent means. This is rare in the history of any country.

Worked Hard.

How did he do it? By hard work. He told the writer once that his practice through many of the years of preparation for his present great position was to sleep but four hours at night.

But his success as a lawyer was far from being all. He found some time to devote to athletics, and became known as a good cricketer. Men who worshipped athletes used to regret that he of the "iron constitution" had not given himself over more to sport.

While pursuing his business he read and studied widely. He became a linguist and was quickly able to speak, read and write French and German. He can quote much of the best poetry of these two countries, and is familiar with their history and literature. He can read and write in several other languages. He has a wide knowledge of history as well as of the world's literature.

As a constitutional lawyer, Mr. Borden has no superior in Canada, and while leader of the Opposition in Parliament he gave so much of his time to the legislation which came before the House that scarce an important act was passed which did not show something of his handiwork. Noticeably often his opinion on matters of constitutional law and practice was deferred to by the Government of the day.

As big men usually are, Mr. Borden is deeply religious, and until a few years ago, when some political opponents unscrupulously accused him of attempting to catch votes, it was one of his pleasures to address the bairns of a Sunday school.

It used to be said of him that he would rather get away from politics and bury himself in his library, but wise men who knew that there was a power for good for Canada in Borden, kept him in the field.

These are some of the characteristics and accomplishments of the foremost man of Canada.

WEDDINGS

Cowan-Camp.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Harry A. Camp, Woodstock, when his eldest daughter Muriel Katherine, was united in marriage to Henry Willard Cowan, of the C. P. R. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Camp, B. D., of Leinster street Baptist church, St. John, uncle of the bride. The bride, who was becomingly dressed in a travelling suit of brown broadcloth, with hat to match, was given away by her father. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was beautifully rendered by Mrs. S. J. Parsons. About forty-five invited guests witnessed the ceremony. Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. W. Camp, of St. John; Dr. and Mrs. George Camp, Mrs. Silas and Miss Ruth Stewart, St. Stephen; Mrs. Joseph Prescott, Caribou, and Miss Margaret Cowan, Houlton. The bride, who is one of the most popular young ladies of Woodstock, was the recipient of many valuable presents of silver, china, cheques and gold. The groom's present to the bride was a sunburst of pearls. After a few weeks of honeymoon spent in St. John, N. B., Fredericton and some other maritime cities, they will reside at Upper Woodstock, N. B.

Bennett-Connors.

There was a large attendance at St. George's church, St. George, N. B., on Tuesday morning at seven o'clock when James G. Bennett and Miss Mary C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Connors, Black's Harbor, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. J. F. Carson, administered the sacred rite, and also celebrated nuptial mass. The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated by friends of the bride for the joyful occasion. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in a suit of gray whipcord with black hat and plumes. Wm. Connors was best man. The bride was aided by her sister, Miss Margaret Connors, who looked very attractive in a blue suit with hat to match. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was served. There was a large number of useful and ornamental presents received by the bride, including substantial cheques from her parents and two brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have taken up housekeeping at 90 Princess street, St. John.

Spaulding-Stewart.

Dalhousie, N. B., Oct. 1.—A very happy event took place at the home of Sheriff and Mrs. Jas. E. Stewart on Tuesday at noon, when their daughter Ethel Mott was united in marriage to Dr. Edward Osgood Spaulding of Keene, N. H. Rev. Thomas J. Drumm of Campbellton, N. B., officiated at the ceremony in the presence of the family and immediate relatives.

The bride, who was unattended, entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Karl R. Beedle of Keene, N. H., a friend of the groom. The costume worn by the bride was a very pretty travelling suit of lavender whip-cord with macreme trimmings, and hat to match.

The home was simply but prettily decorated with cut flowers in green and gold. After the ceremony the happy party repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty luncheon was partaken of.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of presents, including cut glass, gold, linen and silver, testifying to the popularity she enjoyed among a wide circle of friends, both in her home town and in Keene, where she graduated from the Elliott City Hospital.

Amidst showers of rice and confetti, and hosts of good wishes, the happy couple left on the evening limited for their home in Keene, visiting friends on the way in Montreal, Joliette and Burlington, Vt.

CAME FROM SCOTLAND TO REGISTER VOTE

Andrew Rennie Finished His Vacation Sooner Than He Expected Last Year to do His Share

Portage Vale, Kings Co., Oct. 2, 1912. —Last week saw a large amount of harvest placed under cover in this locality. It was a week that rejoiced the hearts of all. The hay and grain crops are away ahead of what they were last year.

This week the rains will give harvest a set back.

Andrew Rennie, who has been visiting friends in Scotland since July, has returned and reports having a very delightful trip. He also informs your correspondent that on account of the cold nd wet much damage was done the crops in the parts of Scotland that he visited. Mr. Rennie spent last summer in Scotland, but finished his vacation several weeks sooner than he intended on account of the Dominion election being called so he could register his vote against Reciprocity. As Mr. Rennie remarked to your correspondent on his return, he did his voting first this year, and then left, which gave him his full time.

The school did not reopen this term until the first of last week. Miss Ella T. Young, York Co., is now teacher. She comes very highly recommended.

Bliss Teakles and his sister Delia spent Sunday the guests of friends in Riverglade.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Dunfield and daughter were guests of friends at Corn Hill on Sunday.

Miss Emma Jonah is visiting friends in St. John.

George Fowler, Hill Grove, West. County, is visiting friends in this place.

Miss Emma Holmes, teacher at Anagance, spent the week-end at "Riverbank," guest of Mrs. W. O. Snyder.

Mrs. Spencer Dunfield is the guest of friends in Corn Hill this week.

SEVERAL INCHES OF SNOW IN DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie Oct. 1.—On Sept. 29th several inches of snow fell on the hills and inland. About five inches fell in Balmoral and the mountains were white all day Monday. This has not been seen here in the lifetime of the oldest inhabitants. The weather is still cold and very heavy frost prevails each night.

Halverson McNeill and Garfield Brown were successful in each capturing a moose on Thirteen Mile Ridge last week.

In the St. John's Presbyterian church Sunday a special service was conducted by Rev. Peter McIntyre for the Sunday school. An appropriate programme was carried out by the children of the Sunday school. The church was seasonably decorated with flowers and harvest products. The discourse was "Sowing and Reaping."

Mrs. Lea Young, of Bathurst, is the guest of Miss Lena Haddow.

Miss Vera McInerney and Miss Lena Harquail spent Saturday in Campbellton the guests of Miss Harquail's brothers, J. and D. A. Harquail.

Miss Emma Harquail was in Campbellton on Friday last on business.

WOODSTOCK NOTES.

Woodstock Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Semple of East Florenceville were recent visitors here.

Chas. McGinley of Johnville, one of the progressive young farmers of the county, who has some 500 acres of land under cultivation, was in town recently and states that outside of some hay damaged his total crop will be better than last year, which is considered a banner year in this neighborhood.

A. D. Holyoke, police magistrate, is quite ill, threatened with appendicitis. His assistant, Squire Augherton, is dispensing justice.

Word has been received of the death of Jonathan Harding, well and favorably known in this county, in Boston, on Sept. 27, aged 67 years. The funeral took place in Boston on Sept. 29th. He was a brother of L. R. Harding of Jacksonville, this county.

Mrs. J. A. F. Gardner entertained at five o'clock tea this afternoon to her many friends.

The friends of Oliver Vandine are congratulating him on the birth of a son and heir last Sunday.

Hon. H. A. Connell, the energetic president of the Eel River, Heat, Light and Power Company, has returned from Fredericton, where he made a proposition to give power to the city for running the municipal plant at the head of the town for two cents per kilowatt, providing 200 continuous horse power is used.

The Centreville exhibition opened today and will be continued tomorrow. George Ransom, president of the local creamery company, went up by train this morning to act as judge on dairy.

Circuit Court will open here on Oct. 15th.

A Dilemma.

"Why did papa have appendicitis and have to pay the doctor a thousand dollars, mamma?" "It was God's will, dear." "And was it because God was mad at papa or pleased with the doctor?"

The News in Short Metre

LOCAL.

Salvation Army Changes.

The Salvation Army congress closed yesterday morning. Two changes are announced among the local officers. One of these is the promotion of Staff Captain Holman, who has been in charge of the Evangeline Home for the past four years. Adjutant Habkirk of the subscribers' department of this city, has also been ordered to farewell. He will go to Moosejaw. Staff Captain and Mrs. Coombs who are to assist in the work here have been installed.

East St. John Postage.

Postal officials complain that many persons in mailing letters to East St. John make the mistake of putting on only a one cent stamp. East St. John is outside the city limits and a two cent stamp is necessary. When only one is placed on the letter the receiver is compelled to pay two cents.

Badly Injured.

Frank Strang, son of Mrs. Mary Strang, City Road, met with a bad accident yesterday afternoon in Rankine's biscuit factory. He was sitting on a bannister, when he lost his balance and fell over to the floor below. He was quite badly injured about the back and side. He was taken to the hospital where he had his injuries attended to.

Breakwater Location.

At a meeting of the commissioners yesterday morning, at which H. C. Schofield, president of the Board of Trade, was present, the matter of the breakwater location was discussed and it was decided to get in communication with the Minister of Public Works to see if arrangements could be made to have a delegation visit Ottawa from St. John with the view of having an investigation made into the correctness of some of the statements that have been made.

Post Office Changes.

John Emerson, railway mail clerk since 1898 and one of the best known men in the service, has retired from the road. Mr. Emerson has been transferred to the Inspector's staff and will look after rural mail delivery matters. Three new clerks have been added to the railway mail service force. They are D. L. Monohan of this city, A. T. Ganong of Apohaqui and G. J. Fraser of Grand Falls. All are on duty.

To Play in Toronto.

Miss Mabel Thomson, St. John, Miss Bauld, Halifax; Miss Phepoe, Mrs. Beverley Robinson and Miss Bernard, Montreal, are among those at Toronto for the golf week at the Rosedale Club. The tea hostesses for Monday were Mrs. R. H. Greene (the president's wife), Mrs. Geoffrey Boyd, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs Sandford Ailey.

PROVINCIAL.

Sale of Partridge Stopped.

Fredericton, Oct. 3.—A Royal Gazette extra was issued this morning with a notice signed by Hon. J. K. Flemming as Surveyor General, publishing a regulation prohibiting the sale of partridge and woodcock until September, 1915. It appears that in the preparation of an amendment to the game act passed by the legislature in 1909 the amendment in this regard was accidentally omitted and as a result partridge and woodcock have been sold publicly in the province since the opening of the present season. The Royal Gazette extra draws attention to the fact that the regulation under section 52 of the game act reads as follows: "The sale of partridge and woodcock is prohibited between the date of this regulation and and the 15th day of September, A.D. 1915."

Schooner Wrecked.

Sackville, N. B., Oct. 3.—A schooner, name unlearned, was driven ashore at the mouth of Great Shemogue Harbor in the gale of Wednesday morning and three or four lives were likely lost. The particulars as obtained from Shemogue this morning by telephone are meagre. The vessel was driven ashore about ten o'clock in the forenoon and the fury of the gale and treneral took place in Boston on Sept. mendous seas prevented any small boats from the mainland going to the rescue of the ill-fated crew. Three persons were seen to be on the vessel, some say four, and from the fixings in the part of the cabin washed ashore it is thought that a woman was on board. Although the shores have been searched as closely as the high sea running will permit no sign of the bodies has been discovered.

Narrow Escape.

Fredericton, Oct. 3.—J. Duff King, ex-policeman, and Thomas Sloat had a narrow escape from drowning in the river here last night. They were out in a canoe near the highway bridge and upset. They called for help and Lance-Corporal Masters of the Royal Regiment doffed his outer garments and swam to their assistance. He succeeded in rescuing Sloat, who was well nigh exhausted when taken from the water. King managed to reach shore without assistance.

GENERAL.

Hunger Strike.

Dublin, Oct. 3.—The suffragette "hunger strike," brought about the release on parole from jail today of another militant suffragette, Gladys Evans. The prison doctors advised the authorities that Miss Evans' condition of health had become very grave, and the order releasing her on license, as it is called here, was issued this morning. Miss Evans will be compelled to report periodically to the authorities during the remainder of the term of five years to which she was sentenced on August 7, on the charge of setting fire to the Theatre Royal here the day before Premier Asquith was to speak on home rule. As in the case of Mary Leigh, recently released for the same reasons, for a similar term, should Miss Evans subsequently be convicted of another crime the judge may order her to serve the rest of her present sentence.

Drill in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Bulgarians and Servians of fighting age, to the number of several thousand, out of the twenty-five thousand of these races living in Chicago, are drilling here in preparation for war against Turkey. A large number of able-bodied men are on their way to the eastern seaboard to sail for home, and more are preparing to go. Funds are being collected to send them to the front.

Alderman's Death.

Quebec, Oct. 3.—There was a sensation at the City Hall last evening, when Alderman Patrick Dinan, one of the best known members of the city council, was suddenly taken ill and expired. When doctors pronounced the verdict that his life was in danger a priest and notary were called, and the deceased was able to make his last will before expiring.

LeBlanc Case Echo.

Boston, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Lillian M. Glover, widow of the murdered Waltham laundryman, for whose murder, Hattie LeBlanc was tried and acquitted in November, 1910, is making a determined effort to secure to herself the laundry, over which there has been litigation. The case is being heard privately by Winfield S. Slocum, as master. The suit is against Samuel D. Elmore, executor of the estate, Seymour S. Glover and the Waltham Laundry Company. She contends that all her private papers have been stolen, including a bill of sale of the property, made out by Frank T. Simes to her when she paid $1,000 in cash and $2,000 in notes for the laundry. A will in which she was principal legatee, made by her husband, but never signed, is also said to have been taken.

Charge for Bread.

New York, Oct. 3.—Beginning today, most of the New York hotels will cease serving bread and butter as a free accessory in meals. The diner who calls for bread with his breakfast or with his dinner, will henceforth find an extra charge of 10 cents on the check. The change was approved by the Hotelmen's Association some time ago, and went into effect today.

Telephone System.

Winnipeg, Oct. 3.—The Grand Trunk Pacific will install telephones for train despatching throughout the entire system, making a start on the division between Fort William and Superior Junction.

CONVENIENT.

"I presume there is no statement more true than the one which says that 'money does not bring happiness.'"

"I guess you are right. Still, though money won't bring happiness, it does come in handy for paying the traveling expenses of those who have to go after it."

Perhaps it is perfectly fitting that our secretary of the treasury should reduce our greenbacks one third in size, since a dollar nowadays will pay for only two thirds as many of our every day necessities as it formerly did.
