

HAPPENINGS IN NOVA SCOTIA

PARRSBORO.

Parrsboro, N. S., Oct. 27.—Miss Grace Cook, who has been visiting in Canada, returned.

Mrs. Harris Jenks, of Dalgrove River, was in town on Tuesday and crossed over the bay to visit her old home.

Mr. Nelson, of Bridgetown, has been spending a few days in town.

Rev. Canon Brock, of Kentville, conducted service in St. George's church last Sabbath.

Mrs. Francis L. Jenks, who has been enjoying an extended visit in St. John and Annapolis, returned home on Saturday.

Tilley Price left on Tuesday for a trip to Annapolis and Halifax.

The most interesting social event of the season was that which took place in St. George's church on Wednesday morning when Miss Alice R. Gillespie became the wife of Mr. James A. Carter, of Moncton.

This event has been the centre of interest within the circle of the friends of the bride for some weeks and when the hour of the ceremony arrived the church was filled with interested spectators.

As the bride entered the church she immediately became the centre of admiration, as she is doubtless one of the most popular of our young ladies. She was graciously attended in white with rich trimmings with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Winnie, beautifully attired, and little Miss Mary, as flower girl. The groom was assisted by Hon. F. J. Stevens, of Moncton. The ceremony was performed by Father Butler, assisted by Father Brown. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple took their departure for the Upper Canadian cities for their wedding trip. Many rich and beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the bride.

On Wednesday evening the home of Mrs. McNamara became the centre of attraction when her daughter, Mrs. Chas. McNamara, was married to Mr. Cecil Lockhart. The bride is one of the most attractive young ladies in town and the host of friends in and around the home bore witness to the popularity of bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. R. Grant. The bride was beautifully clad in a garment of white. Unattended by the maid and the bridesmaid, she was on hand and attended the happy couple for half an hour or more. Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart will make their home with the bride's mother at the present time.

T. S. Rogers addressed a very enthusiastic audience on Tuesday evening in the Opera House and Mr. Logan is announced for Friday.

AMHERST.

Amherst, N. S., Oct. 27.—Among those who went to Halifax this week to attend the provincial Sunday school convention are: Baptist, Mrs. F. A. Chin, Miss Laura Calder and Miss Abby. The Methodist are being represented by J. C. Hawley and Miss Amy Harlow. The Presbyterian by Miss Watt, Mrs. McTavish and Rev. George Wood.

Mr. J. H. Abbott spent Sunday with friends in Moncton.

Miss Helen Milne is visiting friends in Sackville (N. B.).

Mr. and Mrs. H. Abbott left Saturday on a visit to friends and relatives in Boston.

An enjoyable surprise party was given on Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McTavish.

Mrs. Brown, of Halifax, and daughter, Mrs. Trummonds, are the guests of Mrs. Benji. Boyce, of Alberton street. Mrs. Bowen expects to remain in Amherst for a few days after which she will visit her son, Rev. T. A. Bowen, River Herbert (N. S.).

Miss Winnie Cook spent a few days in Springfield this week.

Mrs. Hazen Smith has returned from St. John, where she spent the past month visiting friends.

Mr. H. B. McCulloch has returned home from a trip to the world's fair.

Miss Mary McTavish, of Moncton (P. E. I.), returned to Amherst Saturday on the Ocean Limited and will spend the winter here with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. McLean.

Mrs. Leonard V. Tremblin received her husband on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week at her handsome new residence on Melrose street. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Leaman Bent.

Mrs. Ward, Main street, entertained a few of her friends at her home on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson arrived in town today from their wedding trip.

Miss Ethel Sommer, of Moncton, spent Wednesday of this week in town.

Mrs. J. B. Black and Miss Wood, of Sackville, were in town yesterday.

Mr. H. W. Rogers returned on Saturday from a visit to St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Margaret Stoench, of Moncton, spent Saturday in town with friends.

Mrs. C. W. Bliss, wife of Dr. Bliss of this town, is expected to return home this week after a three months' visit to her mother in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Stewart, accompanied by her son, returned from a visit to Boston, where they have been visiting for the past month.

It would be hard to find two more surprised persons than Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips when the choir of Christ's church, accompanied by the rector and a number of friends, made a visit at their home on Friday evening, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their married life. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games, etc., but the chief event was the gift from the choir to Mrs. Phillips of a beautiful silver pudding dish, the presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Croswell, in a few words of appreciation of Mr. Phillips' faithfulness as a member of the choir. Mr. Phillips acknowledged the gift in a few well chosen words, being too deeply affected by the gift to say more.

CANCER, ITS CAUSE AND CURE.

The cancer actually is a disease of the blood and the one great cause of it is a diseased blood. It is a disease of the blood and the one great cause of it is a diseased blood. It is a disease of the blood and the one great cause of it is a diseased blood.

ed by this token of good feeling to adequately express what he felt for this kindness. Dainty refreshments were served and the friends left about midnight with best wishes that the bride and groom of twenty-five years may enjoy many happy returns of their wedding day. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Barry D. Bent, Mrs. Amos B. Etter, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tremblin, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. MacKinnon and Miss Alice MacKinnon.

DIGBY.

Digby, Oct. 28.—A handsome vessel named the May Eta has been launched at Grosses Coques, on the St. Mary's Bay shore. She is 32 feet long, 23 feet beam, eight feet deep, and registers 38 tons. She is a two-masted schooner, built and owned by Theo. LeBlanc, and will be used in the coasting trade.

Another vessel is nearing completion at Bellevue Cove.

C. A. Lundstrom and G. Torrey have succeeded in shooting the largest moose of the season in this part of the province. It was shot near the Turnpike stream, at 24 yards. Its horns have a spread of 60 inches, with 35 points, and extra large blades.

It is reported that a site has been purchased in Granville, and that a summer house will be built there in the early spring.

Two houses have been broken into in Digby this week. C. A. Abbott's handsome residence, Queen street, and the Columbia House, one of Digby's summer hotels. Nothing appears to be missing. It is supposed that a young fellow broke into them, to get a place to sleep, both houses being unoccupied at the time.

TRURO.

Truro, Oct. 28.—Last Wednesday Miss Jean Creelman, one of Malheur's most popular young ladies, and one well known in Truro, was married at her father's residence to Mr. Cuthbert Trotter, manager of the New Glasgow branch of the Standard Paper Company. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. D. Jones, of Truro, in the presence of intimate friends, and the wedding march was played by Miss Agnes Putnam. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Cuthbert Trotter, of St. John's (Que.). The ceremony was at 1 o'clock, and a reception was held immediately after at the bride's father's, and the happy couple left for Amherst Valley, St. John's, and other cities in Canada and the United States after their return they will make their home in New Glasgow, where the bride has previously had charge of the Domestic Science school. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. J. Trotter, of St. John's (Que.), who is largely interested in the industry of which his son is a manager.

Mr. Frank C. McCurdy, son of Mr. R. O. McCurdy & Co., was married last week to Miss Helen Milne, of Truro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. A. McLean, of Truro. The church was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, and the bride wore a white gown with white and blue trimmings and carried a white bouquet with orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Helen Milne, of Truro, and the bridesmaid was Miss Helen Milne, of Truro. The ceremony was at 1 o'clock, and a reception was held immediately after at the bride's father's, and the happy couple left for Amherst Valley, St. John's, and other cities in Canada and the United States after their return they will make their home in New Glasgow, where the bride has previously had charge of the Domestic Science school. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. J. Trotter, of St. John's (Que.), who is largely interested in the industry of which his son is a manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson arrived in town today from their wedding trip.

Miss Ethel Sommer, of Moncton, spent Wednesday of this week in town.

Mrs. J. B. Black and Miss Wood, of Sackville, were in town yesterday.

Mr. H. W. Rogers returned on Saturday from a visit to St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Margaret Stoench, of Moncton, spent Saturday in town with friends.

Mrs. C. W. Bliss, wife of Dr. Bliss of this town, is expected to return home this week after a three months' visit to her mother in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Stewart, accompanied by her son, returned from a visit to Boston, where they have been visiting for the past month.

It would be hard to find two more surprised persons than Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips when the choir of Christ's church, accompanied by the rector and a number of friends, made a visit at their home on Friday evening, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their married life. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games, etc., but the chief event was the gift from the choir to Mrs. Phillips of a beautiful silver pudding dish, the presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Croswell, in a few words of appreciation of Mr. Phillips' faithfulness as a member of the choir. Mr. Phillips acknowledged the gift in a few well chosen words, being too deeply affected by the gift to say more.

Mr. William Dennis, of the Halifax Herald, was in town on Friday night to attend the formal presentation of the new pipe organ to the congregation of First Presbyterian church, the donor of the organ being the Rev. W. N. Hutchins, of First Baptist church, Halifax. The organ is a fine specimen of the organ of the day, and is a fine specimen of the organ of the day.

Mr. Martin Dickie, manager of the Royal Bank, is on a trip to California and British Columbia and was in town on Friday night. He is a fine specimen of the organ of the day, and is a fine specimen of the organ of the day.

Miss Edith Ross, of this town, has contributed an interesting article to the latest issue of the Canadian Review, a magazine published in London, England. The article is a fine specimen of the organ of the day, and is a fine specimen of the organ of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson arrived in town today from their wedding trip.

Miss Ethel Sommer, of Moncton, spent Wednesday of this week in town.

Mrs. J. B. Black and Miss Wood, of Sackville, were in town yesterday.

Mr. H. W. Rogers returned on Saturday from a visit to St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Margaret Stoench, of Moncton, spent Saturday in town with friends.

Mrs. C. W. Bliss, wife of Dr. Bliss of this town, is expected to return home this week after a three months' visit to her mother in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Stewart, accompanied by her son, returned from a visit to Boston, where they have been visiting for the past month.

It would be hard to find two more surprised persons than Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips when the choir of Christ's church, accompanied by the rector and a number of friends, made a visit at their home on Friday evening, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their married life. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games, etc., but the chief event was the gift from the choir to Mrs. Phillips of a beautiful silver pudding dish, the presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Croswell, in a few words of appreciation of Mr. Phillips' faithfulness as a member of the choir. Mr. Phillips acknowledged the gift in a few well chosen words, being too deeply affected by the gift to say more.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson arrived in town today from their wedding trip.

Miss Ethel Sommer, of Moncton, spent Wednesday of this week in town.

Mrs. J. B. Black and Miss Wood, of Sackville, were in town yesterday.

Mr. H. W. Rogers returned on Saturday from a visit to St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Margaret Stoench, of Moncton, spent Saturday in town with friends.

Mrs. C. W. Bliss, wife of Dr. Bliss of this town, is expected to return home this week after a three months' visit to her mother in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Stewart, accompanied by her son, returned from a visit to Boston, where they have been visiting for the past month.

It would be hard to find two more surprised persons than Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips when the choir of Christ's church, accompanied by the rector and a number of friends, made a visit at their home on Friday evening, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their married life. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games, etc., but the chief event was the gift from the choir to Mrs. Phillips of a beautiful silver pudding dish, the presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Croswell, in a few words of appreciation of Mr. Phillips' faithfulness as a member of the choir. Mr. Phillips acknowledged the gift in a few well chosen words, being too deeply affected by the gift to say more.

city she will be a guest with Mrs. Havelock. Mrs. J. N. Wade, of Port Hood (C. B.), has been visiting her brother, Mr. G. O. Fulton. She goes this week to Halifax, but intends remaining some time in Truro after her visit to Halifax before returning to her home in Cape Breton.

Mrs. William Cummings, of the firm of Cummings & Rennie, preached in Zion Baptist church last Sabbath morning and evening.

Mrs. W. P. King has returned from a pleasant trip to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, of North Sydney, are visiting friends in town and in St. John's for a few weeks.

Mrs. Thomas Sharpe and Miss Sharpe, of Shubenacadie, were in town last week.

A lady picked a strawberry blossom in the park last week, and Miss Edith Chisholm found Mayflower blossoms and buds at Smith's Island this week.

Mr. E. E. Crabb has returned from a holiday trip to Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fulton, of Upper St. John's, were in town last week.

Mrs. Albert Flemming received word last week of the death of her sister, Mrs. E. S. McKay, at Foxbury (Mass.). The body was brought home and interred at Waugh's River.

Mr. Howard Murray had his foot badly injured on Monday while coupling cars. The foot is severely hurt but he will probably not lose it.

Miss Helene Bigelow spent Sunday with her sister in New Glasgow.

Miss Blanchard is visiting friends at Bible Hill.

Truro, N. S., Oct. 31.—(Special)—Prof. W. H. Higgins, of several years' organization of St. Paul's church, Halifax, has been appointed organist of the First Presbyterian church of Truro.

Nequest Street Methodist church, who extended a call to Rev. G. M. Campbell, St. John, has extended an invitation to Rev. Selby Jefferson, of Louisburg, to become their pastor next July.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—(Special)—The outside walls of the Liberal headquarters in Halifax are adorned with the peculiar motto in large letters, "Vote to make Halifax the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

Last night the big black letters were changed and over the word Halifax was pinned a piece of cotton bearing the word "Portland," in similar type, so that the great motto on the Liberal headquarters then read "Vote to make Portland the terminus of the National transcontinental railway."

It remained that way till the people were taken to church near noon today when some of the Liberal committee men saw it and with much difficulty removed the word Portland. They could not, however, remove the impression that had been created.

There is an idea in some quarters that the consequence of a portion of the Liberal committee men to put on the word Portland as a concession to the truth, others say it was a Tory who did it.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY NEAR LOWELL, MASS.

HENRY E. EATON SHOOTS
WIFE DEAD; THEN KILLS
HIMSELF.

Couple Had Not Been Living Together for Two Weeks, and Met by Appointment at Sister's House.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 30.—Henry E. Eaton, of Queen street, Lowell, this afternoon shot and instantly killed his wife, and then himself with the same weapon. The shooting took place in the neighborhood town of North Chelmsford, where the two met by appointment, the couple not having been living together for the past two weeks.

The meeting took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCure, the latter being a sister of Eaton's. The couple ate dinner with the McCures, and about 12 o'clock left the house and passed out of the gate to the road, where they stopped and engaged in an earnest conversation. Suddenly Eaton drew a revolver and fired a 38-calibre bullet into his wife's head. She at once fell and, turning the revolver on himself, he sent another bullet through his own brain. The revolver when picked up had three empty chambers, and it is uncertain whether he fired a third shot or not, but if so, the bullet went wild.

Eaton was about thirty-five years of age, while his wife was ten years his junior. The bodies were brought to this city, and were taken in charge by a local undertaker.

THREE ITALIAN LABORERS KILLED BY EARTH CAVE-IN

Victims Were Working for Boston and Maine Road at the Time

Boston, Mass., Oct. 30.—Three Italian laborers were suffocated beneath falling feet of earth at the Maple street crossing of the Boston & M. E. Railroad Company.

The men with a number of other laborers were excavating a trench preliminary to tunnelling under the railroad tracks. Suddenly the walls of earth in one section of the trench caved in and the three men had no chance to escape. Their bodies were not recovered until half an hour after the accident occurred.

A fourth laborer was caught by the falling earth and imprisoned for a short time but he escaped death by the heroic efforts of his fellow workers.

The three dead men resided in Boston and their bodies will be sent there tomorrow.

The excavating work was in charge of G. M. Byrne, a contractor of Boston.

QUEBEC LIBERALS WORKING RACE CRY

Electors Told That Return of Conservatives Means Abolition of Their Language.

Montreal, Oct. 30.—(Special)—French Canadian Liberal candidates in Quebec are outside of Montreal are working the race cry for what it is worth. At a meeting in St. Laurent Friday night L. A. Meunier, who is opposing Mr. Meunier in the French-Canadian election, told the French-Canadian electors that the election of the Conservatives would mean the abolition of the language.

On the same platform Hon. Mr. Brodeur appealed to the anti-imperialists sentiment of the French-Canadians by saying that Mr. Meunier and his party wanted Dominionism, imperialism and militarism to prevail in Canada, which would mean the expenditure of many millions to maintain an army and guard the frontier.

ONE WORLD'S FAIR SPECIAL CRASHES INTO ANOTHER NEAR KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Oct. 30.—Three persons were killed and 12 injured in a rear end collision between two sections of train No. 3, Missouri Pacific world's fair special at Tipton (Mo.), early today.

The first section left St. Louis for Kansas City last night at 10:10 p.m. The second section left St. Louis for Kansas City this morning at 10:10 p.m. The two sections collided at Tipton, Mo., where the first section was stopped by a signal.

At the time of the collision, the first section was stopped by a signal. The second section was moving at a high speed and struck the first section from behind.

The collision resulted in the death of three persons and the injury of 12 others. The bodies of the dead persons were recovered and the injured persons are being treated at the local hospital.

AN AID TO MOTHERS.

It doesn't help a sick baby to give it "soothing" drugs. On the contrary, it lessens the chance of recovery. If you often show any signs of being unwell, promptly give Baby's Own Tablets and you will find that they help him at once.

It is a mother's duty to see that her baby is kept healthy and happy. Baby's Own Tablets are the best aid to mothers. They are a mother's duty to see that her baby is kept healthy and happy. Baby's Own Tablets are the best aid to mothers.

MOTOR BOATS IN A LONG RACE

Winner Covered 136 Miles in a Little More Than Five Hours.

New York, Oct. 29.—The longest motor race ever run by motor boats in American waters was finished tonight when Frank Croker's N. P. D. N. C. crossed the finish line at the Hudson River at 8:54 a.m., having covered 136.4 statute miles in five hours, 11 minutes and 5 seconds. The course was a loop around the Hudson River and a stake boat at Poughkeepsie and return.

Lofty Ambition.

"It is your duty," said the earnest man, "to lead in leading the world to higher things."

"Well," answered the beefy parker, "I'm not doing my best. Look at the price of meat."—Washington Star.

Men's Superior Clothing

