The Brooks family and three boarders were forced to fice from the house when the alarm was given by one of the household about 12.30 o'clock. With barely enough clothing to cover their bodies they ran into the open and to add to their misery a fierce thunder and lightning storm followed shortly afterward. It is not known how the fire started, but some think that it originated in a defective flue. It had gained a good headway before it was first noticed, and

CANADIAN SENATE HOME OF MANY FINE OLD MEN

It is doubtful if the public life of any country can show a larger number of old men who are still in active life than are to be found in the Senate of Canada. Hon. J. V. Ellis, who died last week at the age of 78, left behind several who were older than he and a number who were close to his age.

Since the rejection of the Borden Naval Bill by the Senate there has been a good deal of speculation as to the possibility of a change in the political complexion of the Upper Chamber through the death or retirement of Liberal Senators and the appropriate of Construction in the political complexion of the Upper Chamber through the death or retirement of Liberal Senators and the appropriate of Construction in the political complexity.
