

"A City's Greatest Asset is its Young Men."

"The Association exists to influence Young Men in the wise use of their spare hours, the use of which determines "character and destiny."

Its present building was dedicated twenty-five years ago, but is not adapted to the present methods of Young Men's Christian Association work.

Subscriptions and bequests for a new building will meet a need that is felt in each department of the work.