Sowing Wild Oats. Rowing wild outs; the thoughtiess words
By careless men are said,—
A vain excuse for sins of youth
Which merit blame instead,

Howing wild onto; the soil is strong, Its acres broad will yield A harvest rich of worthless weeds, To deck the fruitful field.

Sowing wild cats; the passing wind Bears the light seed away; But whirlwinds wild will seher in The coming harvest day.

Sowing wild oa's; let it be thine
To share more blest employ, $\frac{1}{2}$
And, when the reaping time is o'er,
A harvest home of joy.

Dr. Ward's DEAD SHOT WORM CANDY

(CERTIFICATE.) Albany Medical College, December 15, 1862. I do hereby certify that I have analyzed Dr. Ward's Dead Shot Worm Candy, and to the public I would say that they contain nothing that is in the least injurious to the youngest infant. They are entirely vegetable, and possess those truly anthelmintic qualities which above all others are preferable as exterminates of the common or these. minators of the common or lape Worm.

J. V. P. QUACKENBUSH,

Prof. of Obstetuces and diseases of Women and Children. This Medicine has been prepared by the proprietors for a number of years; has been used with the most decided success in numerous families of the first respectability, and has received the approval and recommendation of several eminent medical gentlemen. The most alarming symptoms of the disease arising from the prevalence of worms in the intestines have been speedily and entirely removed by the use of the VEGETABLE

WORM CANDY. Dreadful indeed are the effects of these pernicious vermin on the constitution, des- Fur. troying the appetite, vitiating the nourishing principles, and their certain consequences are paleness, emaciation, a stoppage of the growth, etc., and often followed by consumption and decline. Even where werms are not discharged, this medicine acts as a gentle and safe domestic physic-clearing the passages of whatever is noxious, introducing a healthy chyle into the constitution. The Subscriber is pleased to state that he by this time realizes the advantage of buying and contains nothing that is injurious to the his Goods for Cash, and selling, for cash or smallest infant, and children will cat them execution.
