Personal Mention.

(Contributions to this department will be gladly received.) Miss Aggie Johnson spent Christmas at Annapolis.

Miss L. Eva Andrews arrived home from Cambridge, Mass., last week. Mr. Clarence Hemmen is home from the Normal School spending the holidays.

Dr. H. H. Bigelow, of Halifax, spent Christmas at the home of his parents in Wolfville.

Miss Mildred Patchell, of St. John, N. B., spent Christmas in Wolfville, visiting her friend Miss Ruby Card.

Mr. J. H. Tabor left on Saturday last for Fredericton where he will spend a few weeks visiting his old home.

Mr. B. Pratt is paying a brief visit to Wolfville this week. His many friends here are glad to welcome him among their own.

Mr. E. Blackadder arrived home on Saturday last from Colchester county, where he has been lecturing and organizing for the Sons of Temperance.

Mr. A. L. Calhoun returned from Boston on Monday evening. He succeeded in chartering a vessel to bring his cargo of corn, and she is now on the way here and is expected in a few days.

Mr. Temple Piers arrived in Wolfville last Saturday, to spend a week and visit old friends. His present home is in Philadelphia, where he represents the well known firm of Drew, Selby Co.

Rev. Hibbert Lockhart, a native of Cornwallis, who is at present in Lowell, has received a call to the Horace Memorial Free Baptist church of Chelsea. Rev. Mr. Lockhart has accepted the call, and takes charge February 9th.

Mr. Stanley DeWitt, eldest son of Dr. DeWitt, is home for a few weeks, after an absence of about two years. Mr. DeWitt took a thorough course in electrical engineering in Lehigh university, Bethlehem, Pa., and has since been in the employ of the Bell Telephone Co. in Philadelphia.

The Delinquent Subscriber had to Pay Up.

Newspaper men and others are interested in a case tried at the division court at Port Hope lately before Judge Ketchum. The publishers of the Ombudsman, as is the custom to send the paper to a subscriber until he was in arrears for several years, and upon arguing the payment of the bill, the publisher said that he had ordered it for the time he had refused payment. The judge made a lengthy deliverance on the subject the contents of which may be inferred from his order—"I give judgment for the plaintiffs for $11.50 and costs." (The Printer and Publisher, Toronto.)

The sad news was received here on Monday of the death of Mrs. B. G. Jackson, of Town Plot, which occurred at a private hospital in New York where she had gone for treatment. Death was the result of a surgical operation. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. A. A. Pines, of Kentville, and a sister of Mrs. A. V. Pines, of this town. The remains are expected to arrive to-day. The ACADIAN tender sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband and relatives.

Better Than a Romance.

The Christmas Furnace's Advocate, of London, Ont., a copy of which we have just received, is a graphic revelation of the agricultural progress of Canada during the past fifty years, and of its capabilities as a food producer for the British Empire. The articles reviewing these and other subjects read equal to a romance, but, like the half hundred engravings illustrating its 72 beautiful pages, they are the faithful portrayal of realities in every part of Canada, from the humble home of the settler to the mansion of those who have risen to a competence. Our old contemporary modestly says little or nothing about its own 35 years service on behalf of the farmers' advancement, which, in the opinion of many best competent judges, has been probably the most effective for good of all agencies.

This number contains the most complete survey ever given of the Dominion Experimental Farm systems and the Ontario Agricultural College. There are sketches of German agriculture, by Prof. Shuttleworth; the English Country Gentleman, by Richard Gibson; Reminiscences, by William Miller; Agricultural Education, by Rev. F. H. Byles; Starting Right on a Prairie Farm, by Supt. Bedford; and Canada's Resources, by the Dominion Statistician. Any one of which is alone worth the price (50 cents) of the number, which is being supplied gratis to all new subscribers for 1899 at the old rate of $1.00 per year. The design on the front cover represents Canada as the Empire's Rising Hope, and the poem, "The Path of the Yeoman," by Mr. Elliott, and John Bull's Christmas Dinner, by J. W. Baggough; "Ramshackle Farming," by Frank Stockton, are among the many features that will catch the popular fancy in this splendid issue of the Advocate, which will not only be a benefit, but a surprise and delight to its readers.

Ottawa will vote on the question of Sunday cars at the municipal election on January 2. The Municipal Association has passed a resolution opposing the cars.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., DEC. 30, 1898.

Local and Provincial.

A Happy New Year to all our readers. The rink was open for the first time last evening. The ice was in fair condition and well patronized.

Our streets have been in a fine condition this week, and bicyclists were out. Main street was as smooth as a floor.

The mild weather which we have been enjoying for the past week or two was followed yesterday by a decidedly cold wave.

The Nova Scotia Carriage Co. has ordered a 50 horse power engine and boiler from the Robb Eng. Co. for the new factory they are building at Kentville.

There was an excellent opportunity for witnessing the eclipse of the moon on Tuesday evening. The phenomenon was seen at its best and for a time the moon was totally obscured while the stars were shining brightly around it.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) church on Sunday morning and at Chalmers' church, Lower Horton, in the afternoon. Preparatory service will be held in St. Andrew's church this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The case against John Hutchinson and Silas Atwell, who were up before Judge Chipman last week for trial under the Speedy Trial Act, on the charge of stealing sheep from Artemus Levy, of Cupersaw, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Mr. Thomas Bernard Tooker died at Los Angeles, California, on Dec. 22nd. He had lived until Jan. 1st, 1899, he would have been sixty-five years old. He leaves two sons and five daughters to mourn their loss. One daughter is the wife of Rev. H. S. Baker who is at present studying at Acadia College.

Riverton Fruit Park at Port Williams is to be planted in orchard and nursery in the spring. Mr. W. C. Archibald left on Tuesday for West Ontario to purchase a car load of fruit and ornamental trees. Mr. Archibald on his way will pass through Guelph and will visit the Agricultural College to become acquainted with the working of that interesting institution.

Christmas was generally observed in Wolfville on Monday. The day was one of the best of the season, and although there was no sleighing the driving was excellent, and considerable business was done. The mild weather prevailing presented the opening of the rink, but there was good out-door skating which was amply taken advantage of. There were the usual home-gatherings and the day passed quietly and pleasantly.

The children of the Baptist Sabbath-school, of this town, gave a very successful Christmas concert last Sunday evening. Tactfully arranged arrangements delighted the audience members of the church, which was well filled with parents and friends of the little ones. Music, recitations, etc., were delivered in a pleasing and creditable manner, the best "Form, the Light of the World," by Miss Bourne and Grace Rockwell, being especially worthy of mention. A letter address by the pastor brought to a close a very pleasant hour. Collection devoted to paying balance of debt of the same used by the school.
