

Athletes of the week

HOCKEY PLAYER TERRY Crowe and volleyball player Simona Vortel have been named Dalhousie's Athletes of the Week for the period of Nov. 25 to Dec. 1.

Crowe, who is a 22 year old native of Springhill, scored three goals in the third period to lead the Tigers to a 6-4 win over St. Francis Xavier X-Men on Saturday. The Tigers were trailing 3-2 heading into the third period.

Crowe is in his fourth year with the Tigers and he is a Recreation student. Crowe is a 5'11" right winger and an assistant captain of the Tigers.

Vortel is a third-year member of the volleyball Tigers. Vortel, who hails from Liberec, Czechoslovakia, was named the MVP of the Moncton Invitational held last week. Vortel led the Tigers to a silver medal by recording 61 kills, 26 digs, 36 serving points, nine ace serves and 73 per cent on serve receive.

Vortel is a 5'11" power hitter who is enrolled in Occupational Therapy. She is a former Dalhousie Female Athlete of the Year and this is her second selection as a Dalhousie Athlete of the Week this year.
