they should be addressed, Northfield Student Conference, East Northfield, Mass. When remitting, indicate clearly name, college and address to which you wish your receipt sent.

3. Any delegate who is unable to attend may have his program fee refunded or may have it credited to his Association.

4. Remittance should be made by draft, postal or express money order, payable to Northfield Student Conference, or by registered letter, not by personal check or currency in an unregistered letter.

5. Address all mail for delegates during the conference in name of the college delegation, care Northfield Student Conference, East Northfield, Mass.

6. On the conference grounds the business offices will be located in the Headquarters Tent near the Auditorium. Delegates should register there immediately upon arrival, and receive assignments to rooms; otherwise they cannot be located. Serious delays in delivering letters and telegrams have resulted from delegates failing to register promptly.

7. Transportation circulars will be placed in the hands of Association presidents about May 15. For railroad rates, etc., consult nearest ticket agent.

8. For further information apply to your State Student Secretary or address, Northfield Student Conference, 124 East 28th Street, New York City.

This conference is held under the direction of the Student Department of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations with the cooperation of the state committees in the territory it serves.

CHARLES D. HURREY,
Executive Secretary.
