Dear Mr. Meighen,

Will you read the enclosed file and let me know what you think of it all. This is certainly a time "when a feller needs a friend"

I talked to Mr. O'Connor and he advised me to make every effort to get a place (which I have been doing for several months,) and if at the 15th I cannot find any place tell them - "if they have the power to put me on the street I cannot prevent them." He suggested that I get your opinion on this.

The fact that they have lots of land and apparently all the money in the world, why do they have to put people out on the street in order to spend thousands on making a place over for offices. They say it will cost at least $50,000 to make it fit for offices, and another half million or so for the property.

Will you give this a few minutes thought? I will be glad to drop down some time when you have read it over and hear what you have to say.

I am pretty nearly beside myself with worry and that in itself is not conducive to good work is it.

W. Meighen
