

st sides. The panorama is simply superb.

hed. Unless one wants be along Main street to eck pavement, which is

This was the original nds over a very much ate residences, the first hurch property. This us falls of the river St. ng to the flow or ebb of
. The phenomenon is es on the way, is forced w water in the harbor,
water the strong tides tide there is an equi-

a span of 640 feet, and lliam K. Reynolds, by hed in 1885. It has a o the west of it is the anawagonish" road as uce the spoken words uninterrupted view of

and harbor, and from

UNION STATION, ST. JOHN, N. B.