SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE.

LITTLE ITEMS LOCAL AND FOREIGN, TRITE AND VIBRANT, WISE AND OTHERWISE.

W. J. Kenny—Kenny do it again.

W. H. Benson—I've Benson in any way.

L. E. Tillson—Well I held out Tillson set.

G. W. Cowan—I did it by Cowan the electors.

W. F. Cornish—I will now open Payne school.

W. S. Marshall—I marshalled the voters in the right line.

William Robertson—I got the contract for school trustee for 1932.

R. Cuckey—I saw enough electors but I didn't nail enough votes.

John Waddell—I just Waddelled in because of my circus license policy.

Andrew Thomson—Thought I was elected, An-drew a blank after all.

Monday was the day on which many Chathamites got rid of their crosses.

George Heyward—I wasn't elected in "Hay-ward." It was number 5 ward.

E. A. Mounter—I had had more "tears" than, one, had I but had 46 votes less.

I think that at least four men were surprised at the result of Monday's election.

W. E. McKeough—The contest was warm enough to "M'ke you" want to have first place.

D. A. Hutchison—I didn't seek the office. The Binder Twine Co. takes my time and attention.

S. B. Arnold—I lost on good intentions—just like lots of others. I intended to canvas but forgot.

Dr. G. T. McKeough—I only doctor-ward 3 once. It was in 1900 and the ward has been well ever since.

After it's all over, what did it really cost you, M'c? Successful candidate, and what promises have you got to keep?

George Gordon Martin—I didn't have a chance to talk to the electors, that's why I lost.

John Edmondson—I guess it's all off with Emma St. this year. The only North Chatham Alderman defeated.

Well, I just guess that Chapin, by-law carried. The ratepayers all united and voted for prosperity for Chatham.

Two M's, two Mc's, a C. an F., an O.B., A T and a W will be the letters of the first names of the aldermen this year.

Archie McColg—It was M' Coy(g) ways that won, and could I but Arch his neck a little I would have had first place.

Out of nine elected aldermen, only six reside in Ward 2. We always had an idea that the best people lived in Ward two.

William O'Brien—Well, I guess I know something about beats beside sugar beats, and I thought that sugar beet was the best there was.

John Mount—Take my totals last year, this year and next year, add them and they will Mount up to enough to elect me some time.

G. G. Taylor—I am a tailor in name only, but I was the tail ender this time. I never canvassed for a vote, and I just got in by the "skin" of my teeth.

Wilfrid Fleming—I may have been the "accidental alderman" of the Banner-News, but I got there on my own merits this time.

The defeated candidates all blame their defeat on the hard work they were doing for the by-law, at the sacrifice of their own election.

They tell me the reason that the aldermen are so active on election day is because, they can't work at their own business on that day and their natural inclination for work makes them want to be doing something.

A citizen asked me the other day why the police didn't summon the livery stables keepers if they were so anxious to test the Lord's Day Act instead of indicting children for selling Sunday newspapers. The citizen said that from his own personal knowledge one little colored boy was keeping himself—and his mother by selling Sunday papers.

OVERWORKING THE NEWSPAPER FIELD.

Stratford Beacon.

The Belleville Sun has finally sunk beneath the journalistic horizon, leaving the field to the two old established papers. It was another case of three being too many for a small city—Ottawa Citizen.

The Sun was well supplied with money when it started and was well conducted until the funds ran out. It then dwindled into insignificance. A newspaper cannot continue to be a good newspaper unless it pays. An adequate revenue is as necessary to it as brains, but brains do not always bring revenue. The business commun-

MOTHERHOOD

Is a natural instinct which shows itself in the girl as soon as she is big enough to play the mother to her doll. Unfortunately the womanly health does not always keep pace with the motherly instinct, and while motherhood comes it often comes to mothers who suffer intolerably during maternity and who are unable to nurse the weakling child which frets and moans in their arms.

Motherhood is prepared for and provided for by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures nausea, tranquilizes the nerves, gives a healthy appetite and promotes restful sleep. It makes the baby's advent practically painless, and gives the mother abundant strength to nurse her child.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women.

"Two years ago I was very sick and began taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. Ed. Hackett, of Chardon, Georgia Co., Ohio. "When my baby came he weighed twelve pounds and a half. Have had good health ever since, until about three weeks ago, when wearing my baby, I contracted a heavy cold. Am taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I am thankful that your medicine has such a grand chance to regain their health by using Dr. Pierce's medicine. It would take pages to tell the good it has done in our family, and in a great many more families under my observation."

"I thank you for your kind medical advice." Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CHILD SCALDED TO DEATH.

Five Dollars a Box

The Price Cut No Figures With Him

"I want to say for the benefit of some poor dyspeptic that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will give comfort and ease every time. Five dollars a box, would not stop my purchasing them should I ever suffer again as I did for a week before using them."

The one 50c box I bought at my drugstore did the work and my digestion is all right again.

Many of my neighbors have also tried these tablets and found them to be just as represented and Mr. Elms also wants me to use his name in endorsing Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Signed, A. Elms and Chas. F. Buzzell, Asst. Postmaster, South Sudbury, Mass.

Mrs. Jas. Barton, of Toronto, Can., writes: "For 18 months I have suffered from what I supposed was blindness and kidney trouble, and took medicine from three different doctors without any sign of cure. I felt so ill at last I was hardly able to do my work."

"I thought I would try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if they would make me feel better, never really thinking I had dyspepsia, but after only three or four tablets had been taken all the acid trouble disappeared, and then I discovered I had had acid dyspepsia, while the doctors had been treating me for kidney and bladder trouble and one of them treated me for rheumatism."

"My digestion is fine, my complexion clear and I am able to do my work and low spirits are unknown to me."

"I am so thankful for finding a cure so good and so pleasant, to take as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I am surprised at the change they have made in me."

All druggists sell and recommend Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they contain only the simple natural digestives, and taken after meals, prevent acidity and cause prompt digestion and assimilation of food.

Physicians everywhere endorse them because they are as safe for the child as for the adult; they are invaluable for sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, heartburn, gas on stomach and bowels and every form of stomach derangement.

Most of the shadows that cross a man's path in life are caused by his standing in his own way.

DILKE'S FEAR.

London, Jan. 7.—Sir Charles Dilke, at a meeting of the Shipmasters' Society, made a speech referring to the Admiralty sending a training ship to Newfoundland. He said that the Admiralty were troubled lest they should be spending money to increase the efficiency of America's seamen, indicating that the colonies might be induced to wander into Uncle Sam's navy after they had received their training.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Sarnia, Ont., Jan. 7.—Isaac and Walter Kersey were before Police Magistrate Gorman at the court house here today on a charge of robbing the mails between Oil Springs and Eddy's Mills on the 17th of February, 1901. The case occupied the attention of the court all day, and at the conclusion the prisoners were committed for trial.

A new boy had come to school fresh from the country, and the teacher "Sir" and "Miss" of the city child were quite unknown to him. "What's your name?" queried the master. "George Hamilton." "Add 'Sir' to that, boy." "Sir George Hamilton," came the unexpected reply.

"Do you guarantee the photographs to give satisfaction?" demanded the plain looking man.

"Well—no," said the conscientious photographer, "but I can guarantee a good likeness."

By the prompt action of the fire company, the house was only partly destroyed, and the loss is covered by insurance. The cause of the fire, which seems to have started from the outside, is unknown.
