

MARCH, 1894.

It stands as firm as Gospel truth.
B. B. B. cures man or youth.

MARCH MERRIMENT.

MISS STRAIGHTLACE was favoring the Brat with her ideas upon music. "What is there to compare with it?" she enthused. It is celestial, heavenly! I know of nothing that works upon the system so thrillingly as music." "Nor I," responded the Brat, absent-mindedly; "unless it's Burdock Pills." He was no gentleman, she said, and her temper, ordinarily so calm and unruffled, became sour even as the green apples of early summer.

B.B.B. improves digestion and sharpens the appetite.

WHY is a dog better clothed in the summer than in the winter? In the winter he has his skin, while in the summer he has his skin and pants.

PARSON (who has mislaid the banns' book, but yet thinks he knows the names of the couple)—"I publish the banns of marriage between—between—"

Clerk (from gallery)—"Between the cushion and the chair, sir."

BEWARE of dangerous imitations and counterfeits of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Ask for the genuine and refuse all substitutes.

A PRACTICAL REPLY.—Sunday School Teacher (after explaining the significance of parables)—"Now, who can tell me what a parable is?"

A little girl holds up her hand.

Teacher—"Yes, Sarah, what is it?"

Sarah—"Please, Miss, a parable's a 'heavenly story with no earthly meaning!'"

WHY is a badly conducted hotel like a fiddle? Because it's a vile inn (violin).

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, colds, and all throat and lung troubles.

A SUMMER boarder once said to a small boy dressed in a broad straw hat, a gingham waist, long trousers and bare feet, "Hello, little boy. What is your name?" "Same as pa's," said the boy. "What is your pa's name?" "Same as mine." "I mean what do they call you when they call you to breakfast?" "They don't nudder call me to breakfast." "Why don't they?" "'Cause I alluz git there the fust one."

WHY can a man's vest never hurt him? Because it is (h) armless.

LITTLE Burdock Pills save big doctors' bills.
