A NEW BOOK BY " NORAH."

THE DAYS OF A LIFE

THE DAYS OF A LIFE

Is the title of a new book just out, by the talented Canadian Authoress "Norah" (Mrs. McDougall, of Pembroke) whose brilliant leters from Ireland to the Montreal With the term from Ireland to the Montreal With the term from Ireland to the Montreal With the nemories of their readers. The new book is an historical novel, descriptive of the days of a life of an Irish landlord. Although a work of fiction, it deals exclusively with facts that came under the writer's personal observation, and every character in the tale is taken from life. It is a scrupulously authentic and convincing argument in behalf of a reformation of the present condition of many of the Irish tenants. The author is an Irish Protestant lady, who has been for many years before the public as a writer of more than ordinary power. The book contains 450 pages, on extra paper, and is handsomely bound in cloth; Privice $1.50.

"It is impressively told, and will no doubt be widely read, especially by the people, the sufferings of whose friends it so graphically depicts."—Globe.

"The condition of things as they presented themselves in Ireland during the late years of trial and privation is painted in colors true to life. Dedicated as this most interesting book is to the exiled sons and daughters of Ireland in the United States and Canada, it is not too much to expect that it will have a large circulation among our country people; and this would be but a fitting reward to the noble efforts of a good woman, who spared neither her time nor her pen, in making known to the world the wrongs of Ireland."—Irish Canadian.

"In the Days of A Life,"

Mrs. McDougall skilfully interweaves the story of Irish wrongs and Irish sufferings, of spared neither her time nor her pen, in making known to the world the wrongs of Ireland."—Irish Canadian.

"IN THE DAYS OF A LIFE,"

Mrs. McDougall skilfully interweaves the story of Irish wrongs and Irish sufferings, of the power of landlordism, and the manner in which they were too often abused, and of the dreadful effects of such abuse of power upon the general condition of the peasantry. We hope that this book, which is beautifully got up by W. Templeman, of Almonte, will have a large sale.—Toronto Tribune.

"A valuable contribution to the literature of a subject which is engaging the attention of the world."—Montreal Wimess.

"The volume is typographically fine, elegantly bound for an inexpensive book, and the subject and its treatment are such as should command an extensive sale throughout Canada. We gladly welcome the work as a valuable addition to our native literature."—Hamilton Tribune.

"The present work has somewhat similar effect in awakening public interest and sympathy for the downtrodden people of Ireland, that "Uncle Tom's Cablin" had in preparing the way for the liberation of the Southern Slaves."—Armprior Chronicie.

"It makes clearer to many minds the feelings of discontent, which cannot be understood by those who take their ideas of the Irish agitation by looking at it merely in its political aspect; and in this respect alone it would be well if it could obtain general circulation in England."—Renfrew Mercury.

"The characters are mostly well and bodly drawn, and there is much in the book to interest even those who know little and care less about Irish questions."—Mail.

"A story of uncommon interest and of much instruction. The literary style is a credit to the author's graceful pen."—Montreal Post.

"A tersely written compendium in the guise of fiction, of the terrible sufferings inflicted on a long-enduring people, by the instabile greed of a privileged few, who, ghoul-like, fatten on the products of the many; a protest agalnst the unholy and soulless exactions of these on-producing dron

St. Catharines, May 25, 1881.

DEAR SIR.—My wife has been suffering for the last year from rheumatism in her left am and shoulder. A short time ago my daughter brought her a bottle of your Rheumatine. She did not feel any benefit from this one bottle, but concluded to try more. She took four bottles, and is now quite free from pain, and through all this bad weather has not had the slightest twinge of rheumatism. We can recommend it to all sufferers from rheumatism. Yours respectfully, Sold By All Druggists.—Wholesale Agents: Toronto, Northrop & Lyman; Hamilton, J. Winer & Co.; London, James Kennedy & Co.

THOROUGHNESS IS OUR AIM,

And our efforts to accomplish it untiring, our reputation in this particular has become so widespead, that last year our attendance more than doubled that of the previous year, and numbered among its pupils students from such distant points as Arizona and New Mexico, while this year promises to double the attendance of last.

YOUNG MEN & WOMEN who are interested in a business education, should note these facts, and inquire into the reason of our rapidly increasing popularity.
