EDITORIAL NOTES.

An idea of the increase of French Cana dians in Vermont may be obtained from the fact that the Rt. Rev. Bishop de Goesbriand. of Burlington, dedicated a church for French Canadians at Johnsbury on the feast of the Epiphany, the building having cost $37,000 The sum of $108,000 has been expended on the church, cemetery and school. The pestor of the church is Rev. J. Bolssanault.

THE subject of the evening sermon in the Toronto Unitarian Church on the 13th inst. was "Robert Elsmere." This has become a favorite theme for sermons all over the United States, and a witty clergyman says that the charge given to ministers at their ordination should be changed to "preach Robert Elamere, and the most modern discoveries of science."

REVIVALIST Musson Hontsman, of New ark, has been sentenced by the judge to imprisonment for blasphemy at Belvidere, N. J., Warren Co. On being arraigned be pleaded not gullty and said the Lord would be his bondeman and would defend him from his enemies. He claimed to be the Saviour and the Son of God and received adoration from his dupes. Such vagaries are the necessary result of private interpretation of the Scripture.

PREFECTS have been directed by the Italian Minister of Public Instruction to have lessons in religion given during school hours in elementary schools, but school nours in elementary schools, but the priests are not to be allowed to inter-fere. This is carrying out the theory that the State and not the Church is the authorized teacher of religion. What kind of religious instruction will that be which is founded upon a principle so victous and so contrary to the first princi-ples of religion?

IT IS a mistake to suppose that the election of a Liberal member for Govan division is a gain for the Home Rule division is a gain for the Home Rule party. Balfour has a way of his own of keeping up his mojority in the Commons. When one home ruler is elected he puts another one in jail. Mr. Sheehy's imprisonment is the latest instance. It may be said that the Irish secretary is a very much abused man, but it may also be claimed, with equal truth, that there is not in the British Empire, or out of it, a man more richly deserving the execration of mankind. mankind.

An effort is now being made in New Jersey to tax the Catholic parochial schools. These schools already save to the State about $570,000, which is paid by Catholics who support them, besides paying taxes for the support of the public schools. The bigots of the State, however, wish to inflict this new injustice on the Catholic population, in the hope of crippling the Catholic schools, though the State law exempts from taxation all buildings devoted to educational purposes. In Plainfield the city assessor levied a tax on the parochial school property, but payment has been resisted, and the case will go before the Supreme Court of the State.

lish was leader of the attacking party, and the result was that seven were in and the result was that seven well as the seven well as the seven of retention of the Confession as it is, six were for modification, and twenty-six for its total abolition. The attacks made upon the Confession were very violent, and the Professor said "the flowing tide is with us." If other Presby-terian bodies are in accord with the College, it would appear that the Con-fession of Faith must go.

GENERAL CLUSERET, who has been elected to the French Chamber of Deputies for the Department of the Var, was saved from death by the charity of a priest when the French troops rescued Paris from the hands of the Communists in May, 1871. The General appealed to the priest for protection, and was at first hidden for for protection, and was at first induced for some weeks in the priest's house, and was then aided in escaping into Belgium. The General is not, however, overstocked with grateful feelings, as he is one of the most rabidly anti clerical members of the Chamber now. The Department of the Var has done itself small credit by electing such a man.

It is now pretty certain that no successor will be appointed to Lord Sackville-West until the new President be inaugurated. The Americans do not seem to be very anxious whether the appoint-ment be made at all or not; but in the present complications which are arising in East Africa the English press are finding it very inconvenient that there is no representative of England at Washington. This is another of Lord Salisbury's diplomatic another than the salisbury of Salisbury and This is another of Lord Salisbury's diplo-matic blunders. Undentably, Lord Sack-ville committed himself by allowing him-self to be entrapped, and a false sense of dignity ought not to be assumed to shield the erring one at the expense of the country. the country.

SAM JONES said in a sermon the other sight of God as any fare or poker player in Chicago." Commenting on this, the in Chicago." Commenting on this, the Chicago Times says: "This is on a level with the doctrine of the drvs that the man who drinks a glass of hard cider is as wicked as the one who goes to bed drunk every night. The doctrine of degrees in crime is unknown to all of them. The lovers of progressive euchre need not tremble, however. It is not likely that on the last day they will find the Rev. Sam Jones occupying the judgment seat and consigning people to hell or heaven after his peculiar notions. It is even possible he may be among the goats."

IT HAS been decided by judge Tuley, of Chicago, that as long as the Anarchists do not incite directly to crime, it is lawful for them to hold meetings and to advocate their principles. It seems to us that the public advocacy of principles which would certainly subvert social order would very properly be punishable by the State, or, at least, that the State should probibit such advocacy; still there will arise from the decision this good result that such outrages as the Haymarket murders will be the more readily traced to their origin, if the Anarchist leaders be allowed to ven tilate their views in public. Besides, many persons are attracted towards secret societies by the excitement caused by their secrecy. Judge Tuley's decision may in this way have the effect of keeping many from becoming members of the Anarchi-t societies, who would join them if they were obliged to concesiment. societies by the excitement caused by their

REV. CHAPLAIN PERRY said in his lec ture at St. Catharines "that he compli mented the Free Masons for the stand they took when their power was cast in with Garibaldi, the Apostle of Liberty, in wresting the bloody sword from the hands of the Pope." Wonder if Mr. Perry ever read or heard of the fable of the "Wolf and the Lamb?" The Pope wears the white cassock, the symbol of peace. It was Garibaldi who wore the "bloody shirt." Except for the fact of his being chaplain to the Grand Orange Lodge, it is inconceivable how Mr. Perry, as a Christian minister, could ally his as a Christian minister, could ally his cause with that of Garibaldi, and sound cause with that of Garibaldi, and sound the praises of a red-hot Revolutionist who declared war against all religion; and, while discarding the three Divine Persons of the God-head, dared to commit acts of the most impious blasphemy. At Milan, in the open streets, and in presence of a crowd of applauding infidels, he baptized a child in the name of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity!

THE opposition to the admission of New Mexico as a State is based really upon the fact that the population of the territory is chiefly Catholic, though the pretence is that the language spoken there is for the most part a foreign language. There is the same spirit exhibited in regard to the schools in Boston and in regard to the schools in Boston and Haverbill, Mass., and in the action of the New Hampsbire Constitutional Convention. But in spite of all the efforts of bigotry to stay the progress of the Catholic Church, the Church is in the United States to stay, and politicians of every shade may as well at once recognize the fact. We are pleased to find that the conduct of the Boston and Haverbill bigots is producing the effect which might are taxed for the support of the schools, they will insist on having a voice in their management. No taxation without representation! Let the Catholic taxes go to the support of Catholic schools and Catholics will not ask to control the public schools.

THE Holy Father received the members of the Sacred College on Christmas Eve and in reply to an affectionate address read by the senior cardinal, reviewed his eltuation in Italy. Among the matters upon which he touched, he stated to their Eminences that the enemies of the Church are constantly manufacturing new weapons with which to attack the Holy See.

He continued : "It is persistently asseverated that the Pope is the enemy of Italy, but that asser tion is made to mask the real object of the perifiduous war which is being waged against the Church, and to render the Italians hostile to the Papacy. To vindicate the rights of the Sovereign Pontiff is presiding and approach the property of dicate the rights of the Sovereign Portiff is in reality, to advance the prosperity of Italy. To demand that the greatest moral power in the world should possess in Italy, where it had been established by Providence centuries ago, a real sovereignty is not an act of hostility against the country. The fact that the Bi-hops, faithful to the Holy See, in foreign countries beloved in the cause of the temporal tries labored in the cause of the temporal power is proof in itself that the cause is one in which the interests of the whole of Catholicity are bound up."

THE English Government have chosen. indeed, a suitable time for the evictions on the estate of Mr. Wybrants Olphert, at Cloughanheely, backing them with battalions of police and military. New Year's day is the time when above all we are disposed to wish each other "a happy New Year." The contrast strik-Sam Jones said in a sermon the other night, "when you get up from a progressive salisbury's Government towards Ireland, for they choose New Year's day to send ninety men of the Sixtieth Rifles, under Major Meade, to turn out of their own, not their landlord's houses, the tenants of Mr Olphert who were unable to pay the impossible rents and arrears which that Shylock is exacting. The police and emergency men were received with showers of stones, and though they freely returned these New Year's greetings, they were completely worsted until the military were ordered to load and present their rifles. The defenders of their homesteads were still undaunted, but on the entreaty of Father McFadden, but on the entreaty of Father McFadden, they gave up the contest. #### IRELAND'S STRUGGLE.

LATEST NEWS FROM THE GREEN ISLE. THE ARREST OF MR SHEERY.

Mr. David Sheehy, M. P. for South

Galway, was arrested on the 21st ult. in Glasgow on a warrant issued under the Coercion Act. On the same day the Court of Exchequer refused to confirm the defeat sustained by the Government the one true Church. in Govan, where Mr. Sheehy spoke in favor of Mr. Wilson, the successful candi-date. The Earl of Aberdeen also con-demned it at Patrick, Scotland, saying demned it at Patrick, Scotland, saying that its monstrosity would make Scot land realize the meaning of Coercion. Great indignation was manifested in Glasgow, and the Liberals held a large meeting to denounce the action of the Government in serving Irish warrants in Section 5 and Exercise tending the serving strains to the serving training the serving Scotland. Fearing trouble, the police took the route by water to Greenock, as a large concourse of people assembled at Glasgow station to witness the prisoner's Glasgow station to witness the prisoner's departure.

A later cable despatch says:—The arrest of Mr. Sheeby, at Glasgow, seems to be a striking illustration of the Latin proverb, "Those whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad." It has been thought nothing worse for the Tory cause could happen than the election reverses of last week, but this foolish arbitrary action has sent Scotland into a howl of wrath, and is condemned even by moderate Unionist papers here. The warrant upon which Mr. Sheeby, who is in himself an unimportant figure, was arrested, was unimportant figure, was arrested, was issued several weeks ago, and the offence on which it was based was over three nths old.

Notwithstanding the slighting tone in which the despatcher speaks of Mr. Sheehy, he is one of the most universally respected members of the House.

FEATURES OF THE IRISH STRUGGLE.

One of the most peculiar and unique features of the Irish agitation for local self government is the phenomenon that Ings devoted to educational purposes. In Plainfield the city assessor levied a tax on the parochial chool property, but payment has been resisted, and the case will go before the Supreme Court of the State.

In Glasgow Free Church College the Westminister Confession of Faith was made the subject of discussion among the students, and a vote was taken on the question of its abolition. Professor Candillian and the case of the State of the people are the possessors of certain of the people are the possessors of certain the distress and enable them to continue the bishops of Ireland would relieve the distress and enable them to continue the constitutional agitation. It would indeed be a sight most edifying and imposing to witness the Irish race

Whose millions tread the wide, wide globe, whose feet are on every shore.

O'Brien was advertised to address a mass meeting at Carrick on Saunday.

When the vertical in the Ruesian language have been expected. On the first night school bust of the bishops of Ireland would relieve the distress and enable them to continue the constitutional agitation. It would indeed be a sight most edifying and imposing to witness the Irish r the object being of course to keep the people in ignorance of the proclamation, and then when they would assemble, disperse them by force—but Mr. O'Brien and the people are not to be caught with chaff. The meeting in Carrick that the military and police were assembled to disperse merely a decoy, and while the authorimerely a decoy, and while the authorities were guarding Carrick to prevent Mr. O'Brien from addressing the people, that gentleman was at that very moment speaking to ten thousand people two miles further off This is how Ireland's most beloved son, William O'Brien, describes the scene: "I have a thousand fond recol-lections of the fidelity of our counlections of the fidelity of our countrymen (cheers). The police cannot find a man or child in the whole country side, for love or money, who will give them even a hint in Carrick (cheers). Here we are within ear shot of them almost (cheers). Thousands of people are perfectly aware of what is going on, and yet with all their receives of averagement, with all with all their resources of government, with all their wealth they cannot buy a single hint of what is going on (cheers). The represents what is going on (cheers). The representa-tives of this hateful Government, and it is well that we should repeat it again, have to slink through this country, whipped hounds with tin kettles tied to their tails, and that is why we gave the whole police force of two counties a day of wretchedness and defeat on Sanday, and that is why we are giving them another and still worse dose of humila-tion to day, and to teach them that the work of suppressing the libertles of a nation is not a elight matter and will not be a pleasant one for them any more than for us (cheers)." Here Mr. O'Brien, who possesses a most delicate constitution, showed signs of weakness and partook of a glass of water, saying: "Here is long life to the National League." (Cheers). A voice—"And long life and more power to yourself." (Cheers.) FORBEARANCE OF THE PEOPLE. One of Mr. Balfour's ltes received a practical refutation at that meeting. During the course of Mr. O'Brien's speech two policemen arrived and had a jovial reception from the charge of conspiracy took place at assisted."

vast assembly. Mr. O'Brien invited the policemen to "come a little closer and make themselves perfectly at home." He then adverted to the fact that wherever police exhibited their usual brutality. the police were completely outnumbered the meetings were always orderly and peaceable. It was only where they were peaceable. It was only where they were strong enough to assault a meeting that there was any chance of disorder. The lonely pair of strollers who came up when Mr. O'Brien was addressing the meeting could have been eaten up by the people, but not a hair of their heads was disturbed. The truth is the only inchements to disconnections. The truth is the only incitements to dis-order in Ireland are Mr Balfour's pro-clamations and the brutal assaults of his police.

FIDELITY OF THE IBISH TO THEIR FAITH. Mr. O'Brien has been denounced as a man at variance with the head of the Church and as a socialist, yet he enjoys the respect and esteem of the bishops and priests of Ireland, and the last number of United Ireland is sufficient to convince us of his fielity to the Holy See. United Ireland says: "The letter of His Holiness to Archbishop Welsh disposes forever of any possibility of the power of Rome being found ranged on the side of the being found ranged of the sale of the already sufficiently numerous enemies of the aspirations of the faithful Irish race. The Irish prelates may be trusted safely to see that morelity does not suffer in Ireland, even if their views should conflict with the archar gelical virtues of the Clauricards, Plunkets, Turners and Cecil Roaches. With what trustful hearts the the conditional writ of habeas corpus granted for the release of Mr. Edward Harrington, who has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment under the same Act. The Daily News denounces Mr. Sheehy's arrest as Balfour's revenge for the discovered in the streets of the town. When the trial was resumed next day Mr. O'Brien was absent. The trial, however, proceeded in his absence, and he was convicted and sentenced to four months' imprisonment without hard labor. The police have as yet discovered in clue to Mr. O'Brien's whereabouts.

no clue to Mr. O'Brien's whereabouts.

A strange and touching incident of Irish history, yet to be written, is the fact that the magnificent temples erected to the worship of the living God to replace the shrines built in ages of faith and ruth lessly destroyed by the vandals of the seventeenth century, are mainly erected by Ireland's exited children throughout the world. That while the people are fleeling from persecution, the churches are multiplying, shows the faith and love of these exites for their native land whose beautiful surface they desire to adorn by these monuments. Who knows butt hat it may be in the Providence of God that these churches may yet be filled by a numerous, prosperous and faithful people, for it must be evident to all that the Irish race is undying, and like the Phœix of old, will, rising from its ashes, come forth from the fierce persecution of the present faithful as ever to God and country.

An Appeal To Thie Pope.

And just here we may say we would ful as ever to God and country.

AN APPEAL TO THE POPE.

And just here we may say we would wish to see the Irish millions throughout the world sending in petitions to His Grace the Primate of all Ireland, or to the Archbishop of Dublin, with a view of having them forwarded to Rome, asking the most set may be never in the world to the greatest moral power in the world to grant a season of prayer, beseeching the Heavenly Father that He may mercifully hear the cries of His faithful children and deliver their beloved motherland from the deliver their beloved motherland from the most hateful and persistent persecution of ancient or modern times. Such a movement, sanctioned by the Church, could not fall to have good results. The militure taken up in subscriptions in the several churches of the world and forwarded to the bishops of Ireland would relieve the distress and enable them to continue the continue agricultural agriculture.

faithful for a time of prayer for their suffering motherland.

We are constantly witnessing the power of prayer in the individual cures that take place at the various shrines throughout the world to which the faithful flock. Surely our Heavenly Father would not be less mindful of the prayers of an entire people. "Where many." He says Hunself, "are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them."

It is stated in a cable despatch that Cardinal Manning and several home rulers urged Mr. Gladstone to have an audience with the Pope before his return, as this would be a great benefit to Ireland. Mr. Gladstone declined to do so. The reason given for his not visiting Rome is that he finds the air of Naples very invigorating and that he will remain there during the whole period of his stay

As Mr. O'Brien entered the court house he was O'Brien entered the court house he was greeted with vociferous cheers. His defence was conducted by Mr. Timothy Healy.
