Was Plethora of Christmas Products Today The dominating feature of this morning's market was the immense number of fowl displayed. Turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens were to be found in abundance, and the quality was as excellent as the quantity. They found a good sale and prices ruled moderate. Turkeys changed over generally between 23 and 25 cents a pound. Some early buyers, however, around $1.40 and $1.50, with ducks 90 cents to a dollar apiece. Chickens were cheap at all prices from 40 cents up, according to the size of the bird. Eggs reached the half a century, and any cut could be had at 15 cents a pound. Beef ranged from 12 to 20 cents, according to the cut. Butter was the same as last week at 28 and 30 cents.
