TWO GOOD MEN The Conservative Association have been very fortunate in securing two Cabinet Ministers for their annual banquet, especially as houses are now in session. Hon. Mr. Roche, the Minister of the Interior at Ottawa is a versatile man and also an excellent speaker. He represents Marston and won out last election by one thousand majority. He is M.D. and also an L.L.D. The Hon. Mr. Hearst is the Minister of Lands and Mines in the latter Cabinet. He represents St. Marie and was returned for Riding by acclamation. He is one of the most prominent men of Ontario. Without doubt both gentlemen receive an enthusiastic reception. And in addition there will be four members of the four Brant in a row. Four mark you.
