one North West against police can stand any damn man back. If there is a row in a saloon, two soldiers or policemen can stop it and arrest the principals on it. Police and soldiers have the same rule, as the soldiers are more like police here.

We have three churches: Church of England, Methodist, and a Kirk. Oh! yes, and a Catholic chapel. They are built of logs and are very small, poor buildings. There are not many churches going people here. I go to the Methodist or Church of England once a Sunday unless I am on duty.

Well, I have not told you about our food, yet. The food we get is not up to first-class hotels—mostly pork and beans. We get fresh meat once a week, usually on Sunday. Sometimes we get it once during the week. The bread is poor, but we cannot complain as thousands of people here do not get half so good. But we will do justice to a good meal when we get out of this place.

We had a fire here and it got a good start on us as we had to cut through about ten feet of ice on the Yukon river. I got a bad cut on my leg, but we have good medical attendance and I am on duty again in the Bank of Commerce.

The following interesting extracts are from a letter received by Mr. John Murphy, of this place, from his son Edward, who is a member of the Canada Militia force in Dawson City: You asked me to describe Dawson City. I am afraid I am not much of a hand at it, but I will do the best I can.

THE RECONSTRUCTIVE POWER of Park's Perfect Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is greatly enhanced by its palatable and agreeable taste. The nauseating tendency of the oil in its crude state is entirely obviated, making the emulsion acceptable to the most delicate stomach. Children and invalids receive prompt and permanent benefit from its use.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS

and the advanced stages of Lung Trouble PARK'S PERFECT EMULSION is unequalled. It not only relieves the more evident symptoms, but builds up the entire system, filling out the emaciated parts, making them robust and healthy. Without question the most perfect Emulsion you can obtain.

Soraps for Odd Moments.

A stolen pair of shoes is booty. Lovers may not wish to snub the gas, but they turn it down pretty often.

It's spring when a man sits on a tack and fall when he steps on a banana peel.

Minards Liniment Cures Colds, etc. It doesn't profit a man much if his servant keeps all the commandments intact and breaks all his crotchety.

Stranger—What are the principle objects of interest in this town? Citizen—Savings bank deposits.

"A live copper," said the cheerful fellow, "can often prevent a deal steal." After which he laughed merrily.

Minards Liniment Cures Diphtheria. Bill—I have just taken something which was induced by my doctor. Jill—What was it? "A check."

Eh—Supper is ready, Uncle Don. Uncle Don—You mean breakfast, don't you, dear? "Eh, ha! I ain't say it."

Minards Liniment Cures Distemper. "Dearest," she murmured, "I'm so afraid you'll change?" "Justing," he answered, "you'll never find any change about me."

"In Berlin there's one bicycle to every 25 persons?" "That's all right; any kind of a rider can easily run over 24 persons."

Minards Liniment Cures Gaget in Cows. "I see Crimmins' building is more than half empty again?" "Yes," he replied the second floor to a dabbler in lead, and they both got mad and left."

Whether we seek our own or another's welfare, our conduct must be mainly on the same lines. In this way we shall find that the claims that seemed at first contradictory really melt into each other.

"Do you believe in the power of the human eye with a wild best?" asked Gabbish.

"Yes," said the professor; "the power of the eye is very useful—to see the wild best coming."

THE STAMP OF SECURITY.

On every "Slater Shoe", put there by the makers as a guarantee of wear value—a protection against extortionate profits.

Many men would readily pay more for a "Slater Shoe" were not the price stamped on the sole—this stamp gives the actual market value of the shoe determined by the manufacturers.

Made in twelve foot-model shapes, all sizes, widths, leathers, colors and styles. Every pair Good-year welted. $3.50 and $5.00.
