

The Union Advocate

NEWCASTLE, AUGUST 15, 1906

The Leader of Friday, Aug. 4, published an article which does not do much credit to itself. It was rather a hard one on Policeman Hill and was a very one-sided story. The writer would have the public believe that Policeman Hill arrested a sailor for whistling and even dubbed him.

In conversation with Mr. Hill, we learned that the sailor was arrested for creating disturbance and using profane language, and on such charge he was convicted.

Mr. Hill informed us that when he had warned the sailors the second time about creating a disturbance one of them said "That's Britain, her" and used language which was the cause of his arrest. The sailor resisted and Policeman Hill was forced to use his club, and a slight wound was inflicted but so trifling that it is not worth mentioning.

There are always two sides to any story and the Leader should obtain facts before publishing an article of this kind.

The public generally is satisfied with Policeman Hill and know that he does his duty. Mr. Hill has had several rather thrilling experiences with sailors and on this occasion where the odds were against him he was perfectly justified in using his club.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS

By the Imperial Guards While Engaged in Volley Firing The Usual Harvest of Assassinations in Warsaw.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.—The day was quiet in the capital. The activity of the terrorists in the provinces included besides the usual harvest of assassinations in Warsaw, an attempt on the life of General Katateff, chief of the General gendarmes of Soma Province and the wounding of Captain of the police Ivanoff of Libra, by a youth who fired three shots in the street.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholavitch, President of the Council of National Defence, narrowly escaped assassination yesterday afternoon at the hands of the Imperial Guards in the Guards camp at Kronsnoy, Telo. It was learned that the troops were in extended order and engaged in volley firing when the accident occurred, rendering it difficult to determine the regiments from which the bullets came. The Grand Duke, surrounded by his officers and aides de camp, was off on one side, out of the line of fire. The affair has created a deep impression in military circles, but the news is not generally known here.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 12.—This city was thrown into a state of excitement this morning by the terrible news from Mira that Horace Dickson Mayhew, son of Horace Mayhew, President of the Cape Breton Coal Iron and Railway Company, had committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at the house of Timothy Spencer, near the iron railway bridge at Mira.

With James Hampson, manager of the Broughton Mines. Young Mayhew had been staying at Mr. Spencer's house, and retired last evening in his usual good health and spirits. Early this morning, however, Mr. Spencer was awakened by unusual noise and proved to come from Mr. Mayhew's room, and upon investigation the latter was found dead in his bed, with his throat cut almost from ear to ear.

As far as can be learned the suicide was committed just before Mr. Spencer arrived, for it is stated that one of the inmates of the house observed Mr. Mayhew looking into a looking glass at the gash in his throat at the time he opened the door. Mr. Mayhew staggered to his bed falling dead almost instantly. As quickly as possible Coroner McLean was summoned from the city, and on an inquest being held this afternoon a verdict of death by suicide while temporarily insane was returned.

MAN WITH REVOLVER CREATED PANIC AT CONEY ISLAND.

New York, Aug. 11.—While Oceanic Walk in the Bowery at Coney Island, was still crowded early today, an undisciplined man pulled a revolver and fired two shots into the back of the waiter at Stanch's restaurant and then turned the weapon into the crowd and fired four times as quickly as he could pull the trigger. Four persons were writing in agony on the board walk when the man fled toward the ocean, threatening any person who would pursue him. The injured, three of whom may die, are:

Thomas Fitzpatrick, aged 25 years, of Brooklyn, shot in breast and side, may die.

Thomas McDonald, 19 years, Newark, N. J., shot in back, may die.

Annie Smith, 20 years, Williamsburg, shot in thigh and leg, various wounds.

George White, a waiter, 26 years, of Coney Island, shot in back, may die.

At the time of the shooting a crowd was pouring from the restaurant. In the throng were women. At the sound of the shots and the screams of a woman who witnessed the shooting the crowd broke in all directions. As they fled the man deliberately turned the weapon towards them and fired several more shots. A panic ensued, and women were thrown to the walk as the men ran over them in an effort to reach a place of safety. The stranger defied anyone to follow him. He had a revolver in his right hand and shouted: "The man who follows me I will kill."

No one ventured to approach him then. He jumped over a railing and vanished in the direction of the ocean.

Fully ten thousand persons stood at the entrance to the bowery and from them a cry swelled that the murderer must be lynched. They broke down all the police barriers and forced their way to the Bowery over-running the physicians whom the police had summoned.

Then down on the sand in the direction which the assassin took the crowd poured. Captain Harkins, in charge of the Coney Island police station, quickly strung out a long line of men along the ocean front. He had the exits guarded as far as Brighton Beach and every terminal of the island men searched for a man dressed in a dark suit of clothes and wearing a fedora shaped straw hat. He was described as being short and smooth faced.

Two big searchlights were playing on the beach early today to assist the police and thousands were aiding the authorities in a search for the assassin.

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 12.—Descendants of the Acadians, the people who were exiled from Louisiana, in 1755, as told in Longfellow's poem "Evangeline," gathered in New Bedford today for a three-days' meeting of the Society of the Assumption.

This morning in St. Anthony's church, a solemn high mass was celebrated by Monsignor M. F. Richard, of Rogersville, (N. B.), and a sermon was preached by Rev. P. L. Bellevue, of New Brunswick. Tonight a public meeting was held in Federation Hall.

The bridesmaid wore a suit of blue with white hat and carried a bouquet of brides roses. As the bridal party was leaving the church the strains of the wedding march was heard from the organ. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party was driven to the home of the bride, where a beautifully dinner was served to about fifty guests, who awaited their home coming, the home of the bride was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The Gloves.
A woman who is careful of her hands must be careful of her gloves, for this is most important. If they are tight, they ruin the shape of the hand; if they are badly cut, they give a common aspect to the whole appearance, and such gloves are the dearest in the end.

Bonneted Face Tonic.
A benedict face tonic is a delightful addition to the bathroom. It is quite easy to make. Take a big bowl of warm water and put twelve drops of benzoin in it. If your face is rough, add a pinch of borax and bathe the face daily in it.

The tops of wardrobes and cupboards that do not reach to the ceiling should have papers laid over them, not only to keep dust from settling down, but to lighten the monthly house cleaning.

Nail biting can be cured by will power alone in older people, as it comes from nervousness. With children dip the ends of the fingers in quinine or a little extract of quassia.

It takes only five minutes to change wet boots and stockings, but it may take ten months to get over a cold caught by not changing them.

Don't wash your hair on a damp day or you cannot dry it at all, and damp hair is always dull hair.

Called the Man.
Mrs. X.—Yes, I tried to make my husband economize in smoking, so I told him if he ever smoked I would never speak to him again. Mrs. Y.—What was the result? Mrs. X.—His cigar bill was doubled the next month.

There can be no friendship without virtue, for that intimacy which among good men is called friendship becomes faction when it subsists among the unprincipled.—Sallust.
