"WHITEY" IRVING IS UNDER ARREST.

Fred Porteous Identifies Him as One of His Assailants—A Noted Crook.

Mark Tompkins' alleged accomplice in the assault upon Fred Porteous on the night of July 18 is under arrest. He is David Irving, known all over the Dominion as one of the worst criminals, having done probably thirty years for various crimes throughout the country. Irving was arrested yeaterday on a charge of vagrancy in Brantford, and among his possessions was a loaded revolver. That aroused Chief Slemin's suspicions, so he telephoned to Chief Smith, and learned something of his record. This morning Irving was remanded till next Thursday, as he pleaded guilty of vagrancy.

The local police called on Fred Porteous has the surface of the men who are all of the list of the time, and it is alleged he was one of the men who repeatedly called on Tompkins prior to the assault on the list of July. Mr. Porteous went, and identified Irving as one of the men who assailed him on the night of the 18th of July. Mr. Porteous was questioned, and was positive the man was one of his assailants.

SUNDAY LAW.

CRUSADE FOR

Lord's Day Alliance and Law and Order League Act.

Hotel Men Furnished $500 Bail Each For Appearance.

Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 14.-Fifty warrants for arrests of saloonkeepers, charged with selling drinks on Sunday, issued yesterday by Magistrate Hughes, on complaints made by Field Superintendent Hann, of the State Law and Order League, and members of the Lord's Day Alliance, of this city, who started the crusade in retaliation for disregard of their protests against Sun-day violations. The saloonkeepers fur-nished $590 bail each for appearance be-

Members of the Lord's Day Alliance along with Rev. Hann and Lawyer Chas. E Sheppard, of Bridgeton, who has been retained as attorney on the reform fight, appeared before Chief of Police Woodruff yesterday and demanded that all Sunday amusements along the board Sunday amusements along the board walk be closed down.

Chief Woodruff refused to take any part in the crusade and the reformers visited County Prosecutor Goldenburg, who promised to act on any evidence pre-sented.

sented.

As a result of the reform scare, every gambling house in the city is closed. The crusade will result in closing of bars all over the resort to-morrow. The reformers expect to bring the total number of those arrested to one hundred.

BIG PICNIC.

Large Crowds Here From Toronto and Other Places.

To-day was Moulders' and Hibernians day in this city, and altogether about seven bands were supplying music. The moulders came from many parts of On-tario to attend the picnic at Mountain tario to attend the pienic at Mountain View Park. About 300 came from Guelph, and the Guelph Band accompanied them. After a short paradz around the principal streets they broke up in small groups and visited the principal buildings and other places of interest. Torointo was also well repesented, about 1,300 coming on the steamboat lines. The Kitties' Band accompanied them. Large numbers came from other places over the different railroad and steamboat lines. Brantford moulders came 300 strong on the Electric Railway.

ford moulders came 300 strong on the Electric Railway.

The Hibernians gathered at Maple Leaf Park, and it was the largest gath-ering of the order in this city for some me, for not only was Toronto well | he time, for not only was foronto wen represented by a contingent 1,500 strong, but numbers came from other places. Chadwick Bros.' employees held their annual picnic at Niagara Falls. Alto-gether about 500 left on the special and annual pienie at Niagara Falls. Altogether about 500 left on the special and 8.15 trains.

About 200 of the Cornishmen and their friends went to Oaklands this afternoon to enjoy their annual outing. The John R. and the Ivan R. were kept busy conveying passengers to and from the favorite pienie grounds. Large numbers of people now make it a point to spend Saturday afternoon under the trees at the park. The razzle-dazzle is kept busy accommodating the large crowds. A large number of games were run off by the Cornishmen.

He has been promoted, and may remain in the city of Winnipeg in the main branch of the bank, or may be appointed manager of a bank further west. He has been a very popular memoer of the staff here, and his many friends with him every success in the new Provinces.

KEEPS HER EXERCISED.

John McLaughlin, of this city, died in Pullman, Ill., on Thursday, after an illness of but a few days. Deceased was a son of James McLaughlin, and was 58 years of age. William McLaughlin, of the Gardner-Thomson Co., is a brother. The remains will be brought to this city, and the funeral will take place from the residence of deceased's father, 42 Ray street south.

Mrs. Briggs—Does your husband take any special exercise?

Mrs. Griggs—Yes; he's all the time kicking."

—Two small fires necessitated the calling out the fire department shortly before noon to-day. The first, at the grocory store of W. Ryckman, was in the oil room, but the firemen were on he job before the devouring element had a chance to get a good start. The second, at the home of William Cun mingham, 17 Caroline street north, was caused by a spark from a chimney igniting the shingles on the roof.

As already announced, the old corner ne of All Saints' Church, laid by Mrs. Samuel Mills in 1872, was last week re amined. Since then the stone has bee re-cut and fitted into one of the north the following engraved upon it: "Erected 1872. Enlarged 1900."

At 9 o'clock this morning Mrs. Forneret, at the request of the Building Committee, replaced the glass jar in the stone, and re-laid the covering stone, Archdeacon Forneret offering a prayer of dedication.

The Building Committee regrets that it had not time to notify the congregation of the re-laying, owing to the uncertainty of the day that the masons would be ready for it, and it was only yesterday that the members of the committee could themselves be notified.

In addition to the former contents of the stone were placed to-day copies of Toronto and Hamilton papers, a Nagara Synod journal for 1909 and a written document of which the following is a

SOME LATE SPORTING ITEMS

The Capital Incrosse team will meet the Tigers, of the Juvenile C. L. A. district, at Victoria Park at 3.30 this afternoon. The Capitals have been showing improved form in every game and the last time they played the Burlingtons at Burlington, it took thirty minutes over time to break the tie. All lovers of the game will see a battle royal for they are determined to beat the Tigers in their final game with them.

The following fast and interesting pointing of a successor to the late Inspector G. F. Nichol.

—Col.-Sergt. Jas. Freeborn and Staff-Sergt. Thomas Mitchell, Hamilton members of the Bisley team, arrived home this morning, looking well and speaking highly of their trip. They will shoot at the O. R. A. next week. Sergt. Major Huggins will likely arrive to-morrow or Monday.

—Some of the Beach residents are complaining of the railway accommodation they are having. This morning the 8 o'clock car from the Beach carried 147 pecple and the seating capacity is only for 62. The residents think more cars should be rum, especially during the hours when the men are going to work.

—Mr. James P. Phelan, of the Hotel Royal, left yesterday afternoon for Buffalo to attend the annual reunion of the veterans of the 116th Regiment, New York volunteers. Out of the original 1,070 members who left Buffalo for the civil war in 1862 there are very few left, Mr. Pheland being among the survivors.

—A writ was issued this morning by Tigers in their final game with them.
The following fast and interesting genes of indoor baseball will be played at Woodland Park next week: Monday Y. M. C. A. vs. Emeralds; Wednesday American Canning Co. vs. Emeralds, Triday, American Canning Co. vs. Woodlands.

Cincinnati, Aug. 14.—Harry Manss, a wealthy manufacturer, and member of the City Board of Public Service, is said to be negotiating for the interest in the Philadelphia National League Club held by the late President Israel W. Durham, and the outlook is that the Cincinnati man will soon complete the deal for the transfer of the stock. When the Philadelphia club was in Cincinnati a few days ago, Manss and Secretary Shettsline had several long talks about the matter. Shettsline gave Manss all the information he could, and since then Manss has been in communication with the officials of the Philadelphia club.

Memphis, Tem., Aug. 14.—Brewer John W. Schorr is again to enter the racing game upon a large scale giving up his interests in his Memphis brewery, according to a report published in agmorning newspaper. Recently Mr. Schorr has been purchasing a number of young horses, and his colors, the famous "Orhorses, and his colors, the famous "Or-ange and Black," have been seen occu-sionally this year on northern tracks. One of his youngsters, Penn, broke a record last week, and demonstrated that he is entitled to race in the first division of two-year-olds in the Canadian circuit.

Athanta, Ga., Aug. 14.—It is said that Manager Chance, of the Chicago Nationals, is after Viebahn and Tonnemann, a battery of the Nashville Southern League team, and it is considered probable that these two men will don the Chicago uniform next season.

MUSIC ON THE LAKE.

Wednesday afternoon next the fine band of the 91st Highlanders will give one of their popular concerts on the steamer Modjeska, leaving Hamilton 2.15 p. m. Tickets for the round trip, including an up-to-date band concert, only 50c. Passengers have the privilege of returning on the Modjeska leaving Toronto 5.30 p. m., or remaining over in Toronto until 7.30 p. m., arriving home 10.00 p. m. If you wish to enjoy a pleasant afternoon's outing take in this trip.

HOME AGAIN.

The two girls reported to the police as having left their home in Winona, and who were said to have been last seen in Hamilton this week, have been found and returned home. They are known around the city as "the girls in pink." One day this week they were seen in the Jolley Cut about 7 o'clock in the morning, their appearance conveying the idea that they had been out all night. Some months ago they were arrested for vagrancy, but let go as it was their first offence. They are nice looking girls, but without some alteration in their ethics their future will not be much to boast of.

FRESH AIR OUTING.

The fresh air outing for the women and children of Hamilton to Oaklands on August the 26th is being undertaken by Mrs. Hugh Garee, 2 Argue street south. The Street Railway Company and Hamilton Ferry Company are cooperating in this well deserved plan. His Worship Mayor McLaren heads the subscription list. The citizens are subscribing liberally, and the list will be made public in the city press shortly.

FOR MARKET OFFICER.

Among the applications for the position of market constable is that of John Berlinghoff. Mr. Berlinghoff has done good work as Terminal Station officer and as constable at Maple Leaf Park. As he is well known and well thought of on the market, it is hoped by a large number that he will be successful in his by application.
