Poetry.

LINES INSCRIBED TO THE REV. L. C. JENKINS, RECTOR, SUGGESTED BY A WALK IN THE CHURCHYARD NEAR CHARLOTTETOWN.

As pensively I wander here
And cast a glance around,
How many names, to mem'ry dear,
Familiar once—are found:
How many Epitaphs I see—
Where dreamless sleepers lie,
Which preach this truth impressively
That man was born to die.

Tread softly over those that sleep
Beneath the funeral yew!—
Ye mourning friends, for friends who weep,
This is the place for you;
But thoughtless ones, with footsteps rude
This scene so sacred, fly!—
Or learn, when hither ye intrude,
That you were born to die.

Here poverty with grandeur must
Repose, when life is done,—
Lie earth to earth, and dust to dust,
As spoils which death has won:
Ah! why should Pride with foolish scorn
Roll round its haughty eye?—
The proudest man! and beggar born!
Are born alike, to die!

How'er distinct in life they were,
They've no distinction here!
Save polish'd stones which here and there
More beautiful appear;
But Monuments, or rude or grand!
As Time goes wasting by,
Moulder beneath his crumbling hand
And, falling prostrate, lie!

Dark and uncertain were our fears
Did we no further know—
Our eyes might well with bitter tears
Of sorrow overflow;
But in the sacred page we see
Celestial visions bright
Of "life" and "immortality,"
Brought out in Gospel light!

All christians who beneath this ground
Are in "corruption sown,"
At the last trumpet's awful sound
By God's Archangel blown—
Shall rise, and evermore endure,
Above yon azure sky!
Their bodies, as their spirits pure,
No "second death" shall die!

THE OLD MAN'S GIFT.

'Twas a beautiful gift from a white-haired man,
To his white-haired brother sending,
A staff for the weary to lean upon,
As his steps to the grave were tending.

And he felt that nature requires support,
Ere she sleeps on the lap of her mother;
And he knew that a branch from his childhood's home
Would sustain him, as would no other.

Bearing his spirit through days lang syne,
To scenes of freshness and beauty,
When the friends of his youth around him smiled,
And life seemed a pleasant duty.

And friends still live, else why this gift,
From a dear and distant brother;
'Tis a simple thing, yet it speaks to the heart,
As the voice of a gentle mother.

O! love in life's morn is beautiful,
More beautiful at even;
May it bear ye both as a faithful staff,
To the pearly gates of Heaven.

Varieties.

VARIETY OF SENTIMENT IN THE HEART.

We know nothing, or next to nothing of the structure of our souls, so we cannot account for these seeming caprices in them, that one should be particularly pleased with this thing, or struck with that, which on minds of a different cast, make no extraordinary impression. I have favourite flowers in spring—among which are the mountain daisy, the harebell, the fox-glove, the wild briar rose, the budding birch, and the hoary hawthorn—that I view and hang over them with particular delight. I never hear one loud solitary whistle of the curlew in the summer noon, or the wild mixing cadence of a troop of grey plovers in the autumnal morning, without feeling the elevation of soul, like the enthusiasm of devotion or poetry. Tell me, my dear friend, to what can this be owing? Are we a piece of machinery, which, like the Æolian harp, passive, takes the impression of the passing accident? or do these workings argue something within us above the trodden clod? I own myself partial to such proofs of these awful and important realities—a God that made all things, a man's immaterial and immortal nature, and a world of weal or woe beyond death and the grave.—Burns.

EQUALITY.—The different ranks and orders of mankind may be compared to so many streams and rivers of running water. All proceed from an originally small and obscure source; some spread wider, travel over more countries, and make more noise in their passage than others; all tend alike to an ocean where distinction ceases, and where the largest and most celebrated rivers are equally lost and absorbed with the smallest and most unknown streams. —Bishop Horne.

A CURIOUS RELIC.—At the last meeting of the New York Historical Society, the Rev. Dr. Abbott, who has been in Egypt, and principally in Cairo, presented a gold ring, weighing about three English sovereigns, which had been found in the tomb of a high priest, on the south side of the great pyramid of Lonphon, who was the Cheops of Herodotus, and the second Pharaoh of the fourth dynasty. It is believed to be the signet of Cheops himself. Its date was upwards of three thousand years before Christ, and the beauty of the engraving of the hieroglyphics could only be seen by the means of a microscope, and could not now be surpassed.—Presbyterian.

MANUFACTURE OF PAPER PULP FROM BARK AND WOOD SHAVINGS.—A patent has been taken out in England, for manufacturing pulp, for making paper from straw and other similar vegetable matter, and from the bark of Osier, or Chestnut-tree, by the use of boiling solution of hydrate of soda or potash, in conjunction with other chemical means, and without mechanical operations. Wood shavings are treated with nitric acid, to obtain pulp for the same purpose.

A RECRUIT.—A sailor who formerly belonged to her Majesty's navy, went one Sunday to the Kirk in his native town of Kircaldy; where he behaved with great propriety, until the minister read his text, which was as follows: "Who will go up with us to the battle of Ramoth Gilead?" The sailor, having first crammed a quid of tobacco in his cheek, rose up, put on his hat, then looking about him, and seeing nobody moving, exclaimed—"You cowardly lubbers, will none of you go? Blast my eyes, I'll go for one!" So out he went, giving three cheers at the door, to the amazement of all present.

TO MAKE CAKES THAT WILL KEEP FOR SOME TIME.—Mix two pounds of sugar, and one ounce of caraways, with four or five eggs and a few spoonfuls of water, to make a stiff paste; roll it thin and cut it to any shape. Bake on tins lightly flavoured. While baking, boil a pound of sugar in a pint of water to a thin syrup; while both are hot, dip each cake into it, and put them on tins into the oven to dry for a short time; and when the oven is cooler still, return them there again and let them stay four or five hours.

THE CURATE'S PUDDING.—To one pound of mashed potatoes, while hot, add four ounces of suet and two ounces of flour, a little salt, and as much milk as will give it the consistence of common suet pudding. Put it into a dish, or roll it into dumplings, and bake a fine brown.

Worcestershire Sauce.

IT is an old true saying that 'Good wine needs no bush,' the same remark applies to the Worcestershire Sauce, prepared by Lea and Perrins. It is only necessary for us to make this one observation—that, for flavour and piquancy, it exceeds all other Sauces that are now before the public, and has only to be tasted to be appreciated.

Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce is adapted for every variety of dish—from turtle to beef—from salmon to steaks—to all of which it gives a famous relish. I have great pleasure in recommending this excellent Sauce to Captains and Passengers for its capital flavour, and as the best accompaniment of its kind for any voyage.

The truth of the familiar adage, "Appetite makes the best sauce," which ought never to have dropped from the lips of a Frenchman, is boldly disputed by Messrs. Lea and Perrins, and not without justice, for since their invention the adage is inverted—the Sauce positively creating the appetite. The Worcestershire sauce has a peculiar gout of its own, full of richness, piquancy, excellent for digestion, and we should say unrivalled for promoting the appetite, and indispensable for the dining-room table.

REVIEWS OF THE WORK.

"MANHOOD, by J. L. CURTIS—We agree with the Author, that so far from works of this class being objectionable in the hands of youth, or difficulties being opposed, every facility should be given to their circulation; and to strengthen our opinion, we need but refer to the recent distressing events at our Military and Scholastic Academies at Carshalton and Woolwich."—Naval and Military Gazette, Feb 1, 1851.

"We feel no hesitation in saying, that there is no member of society by whom this book will not be found useful—whether such person hold the station of a parent, preceptor, or a clergyman.—Sun, Evening Paper.

"CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—Fortunate for a country would it be, did its youth put into practice, the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate, be succeeded by a renewal of the hardy, vigorous spirits of the olden time."—Chronicle.

Bliss' Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy,

A new and efficacious remedy for Coughs, Common Colds, Cold in the Head, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Tickling in the Throat, Catarrh, Diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial Affections.

This favorite remedy is composed of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with other valuable ingredients, which completely disguise the repulsive taste of the Oil, without detracting from its medicinal virtues, presenting it in a form by which it can be administered to the most delicate invalid, without inconvenience. The medicinal influence of this Candy pursues the exact tract of the inflammatory action, causing cough. First, soothing the organs of the voice, its sedative influence, passes along the unconsuming of the windpipe into the bronci, and allaying pulmonary irritation, giving ease and comfort to the chest, restoring the voice to its accustomed clearness and powers; Concealed Phlegm, Acrimony in the Fluids, and Obstructions in the Glands, are gently and safely discharged by easy expectoration. It never disagrees with the stomach, a common cold yields to its benign influence in a few hours, and when resorted to before the complaint is far advanced, all danger of CONSUMPTION is entirely prevented.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7 Presco Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY;

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the violence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMAN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, resident at New Town, has been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period, she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she resorted to, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement—August 2, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so recruited me, that I am desirous that other should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

(Signed) HENRY COE,
North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heyton, Esq., Sidney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and was forborn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.

(Signed) Wm. JONES, Proprietor of Goulburn Herald, New South Wales
