WELLAND CLUB TO STAGE BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT

Sergt. James of Welland and "Curly" Hume of Hamilton Will Be Principals in Main Bout of Inaugural Bout.

The newly formed Welland Athletic Club will stage four boxing bouts tonight. The main bout will be a ten round go between Sergt. James of Welland and "Curly" Hume of Hamilton. James won the championship of Ontario in 1913-14. Before leaving for overseas in 1915 he won the lightweight championship of Ontario.

The building permits issued in Hamilton for the first quarter of this year amounted to $600,000.

WILE GOVERNOR SIGN?

Albany, N.Y., April 9.—The Walker-Malone Sunday Baseball Bill passed the Assembly by a vote of 82 to 60. The measure now goes to the Governor. All of the Democrats voted for the measure together with many Republicans.

START FROM THE BOTTOM

Con Kelly, the old Winnipeg Henley oar, is back from the front, where he held the rank of major. The secretary of the Winnipeg R.C. states that they will hardly be in shape to send oarsmen or scullers to the C.A.A.O. regatta, but will spend their time the first peace year in club races.

ONE MOEB FOR BROUSSEAU Montreal, April 9.—After giving his opponent a terrific lacing for six rounds, Eugene Brousseau knocked out George Rivet in the seventh round of a scheduled ten round bout here.

DICK NUGENT WILL REFEREE VET'S BOUTS

One of the Best Known Arbiters in U. S. Will be Third Man in Ring When Loney and Scott Meet To-morrow Night

Ever since Jack Loney, the crack St. Catharines middleweight, boxed Pete Scott, the Hamilton Indian, at the Armory several weeks ago, there has been more or less discussion and argument among the followers of both boxers as to which is the better man of the two. While the majority of critics found in favor of the St. Catharines boy, the Hamilton scribes and some of the out of town fans present declared the ten round contest should have been declared a draw. Bert Finch, manager of Scott always has claimed Scott won on finer boxing points and was really entitled to the popular decision. Those who are interested in the pugilistic destinies of Loney never will agree with the Buffalo impresario.

The Great War Vets have been selected by many members and fans to stage another ten round bout between the two. Efforts have been made to bring the boys together again, but Manager Finch has insisted that another referee be the third man in the ring. He claims Dan Rogers was inclined to favor Loney in the clinches and the breakaways and is willing to let Scott box the St. Kitt's boy if a new referee is in the arena. With this point in mind the Great Vets have been scouring the field for a suitable arbiter and have decided that Richard Nugent, one of the best known referees in the United States, who always officiates at the Queensberry club and the Velodrome club shows in Buffalo, is the one man to satisfy both sides. Nugent has been approached and has consented to referee, although he is rather high in his price for his services, considering the fact that he is not called upon to officiate in a championship match.

So with Referee Nugent, a most capable and competent referee in the ring, there should be no objection upon the part of Scott or Loney when they have their second ten round contest at the Armory on Thursday evening, April 10. Loney is now in training for the contest, while Scott is getting plenty of action in Buffalo rings. He won a hard bout from Al Wise in Auburn last Friday night and recently boxed Paul Dixon, a Brooklyn middleweight, a sensational six round bout at Buffalo's Broadway auditorium. The second clash between these two should furnish the athletic fancy of St. Catharines and Hamilton with abundant excitement. There will be a six round bout and two four round bouts to precede the Scott-Loney main contest.

This event undoubtedly will furnish Sullivan and his friends with an excellent line on the boxing and punching abilities of the waterfront knockout artist and if he gets by the Akron fighter as successfully as he has in his other engagements in the roped arena then he certainly will be started on the high road to fame and fortune in the realm of pugilism.
