HAVE, WITH A VIEW TO MEET THE INCREASED demand for the celebrated Perfected Spectacles, appointed F JORDON, chemist and Druggist, Goderich, Ont as their Sole Agent for this place. They have taken care to give all necessful instructions, and have confidence in the ability of their Agents to the requirements of all customers. An opportunity will be thus afforded to procure, at all times, Spectacles unequalled by any for their strengthening and preserving qualities.
Too much cannot be said as to their superiority over the ordinary glasses worn. There is no gliminering, wavering of the sight dizziness, or other unpleasant sensation, but, on the contrary, from the peculiar construction of the Lenses, they are soothing and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the wearer, and producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural healthy sight. They are the only Spectacles that

ON EASY TERMS
INCORPORATED THE A. D. 1864
HURON & ERIE
SAVINGS & LOAN SOCIETY.
CAPITAL, - - - - $700,000.
THIS SOCIETY ADVANCES MONEY ON SECURity of Real Estate, and on Terms very favorable to borrowers.
NO LAWYERS' COSTS ARE CHARGED
The Society pays its Solicitor's charges. Any sum of money, from $200 upwards, is lent for any number of years from one to fifteen. Money may be obtained at any time with little or no delay beyond the time occupied in investigating the title and preparing the Mortgage. The cost of which is paid by the Society. The full amount of the loan is advanced—no deduction being made for commission or other charges, which often add so materially to the cost of a loan from other Societies or from individuals. The borrower can repay his loan by yearly, half-yearly, or monthly payments. The periodical instalments include, besides interest, a small sum for principal, and they are so divided that by their payment the debt is entirely extinguished, and the mortgage discharged at the end of the time stipulated.
EXAMPLE.—A Borrower obtains $500 for 15 years, he pays $66 70 each year, and at the end of the time his Mortgage is paid off. The rapidly increasing business of this Society is the best indication of the favor with which it is regarded by the farming community, and its popularity will become greater as the merits of its system of lending become better known and understood. By the small payments of principal included in the yearly instalment, the borrower gradually and without trouble, pays off his loan—thus avoiding the risk of losing his property, which so often happens when the principal falls due in a large sum at the end of the term. He can, at any time, pay off his loan in advance on favorable terms (which can be settled at any monthly meeting by the Directors, on the application of the borrower,) and interest at six per cent. per annum will be allowed on all payments in advance.
Full particulars and loan table may be obtained at the Society's Office, or by letter post-paid, addressed to the Secretary, or from any of the Society's valuators

GODERICH, March, 9th, 1871.

THE REFORM CAMPAIGN.

ORGANIZATION PROGRESSING.

GIBBONS FOR SOUTH HURON.

GODERICH ON THE QUI VIVE.

On the evening of Tuesday, 28th ult., a large and enthusiastic meeting of the leading Reformers of the town was held in the office of M. C. Cameron, Esq., M. P. The chair was taken by J. S. Sinclair, Esq., who, in a vigorous and sensible speech, pointed out the present position and duty of the party and requested the meeting to appoint eight delegates to attend a general Reform Convention of the South Riding to be held at Brucefield on 2nd March. This having been done, it was moved by Mr. Alexander Watson, and seconded by Mr. James Macfarlane That while not binding our delegates to any particular candidate, they should understand it to be the desire of this meeting that Mr. Robert Gibbons should be their first choice.—Carried. The work of organization was then gone into and influential committees appointed in every ward, and a chairman and secretary appointed to each. The Voters' lists are all ready copied and we hope every reformer in town will go to the work with a will and use every legitimate influence to give Robert Gibbons (who has now been unanimously nominated by the Reformers of South Huron) a splendid majority at the polls on the 21st. The Ward Committees are requested to meet in Mr. Cameron's office this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Turn out in force!

SOUTH HURON ALL ALIVE.

Notwithstanding short notice, an unpromising sky and wretched roads, there was a grand rally of Reform delegates at Brucefield on Thursday, 2d inst., every municipality being fully represented with the exception of Goderich Township. J. S. Sinclair Esq. on taking the chair, explained the attempt the government had made to spring a mine on the reform party, by bringing on the elections, with only about three weeks' notice, and the necessity which arose for him to take the step he did in hastening the meeting of the convention to this day, instead of the 9th inst, formerly announced; which would have been too late. After urging on the Electors unanimity and energy in this contest, and a remembrance of the wrongs they suffered thro' a partisan committee in connection with last election; which resulted in South Huron being misrepresented in the Legislative Assembly for the past two years, he called for the names of the delegates from the various municipalities which were given in as follows:—

STEPHEN.—Septimus Hogarth, George Kilpatrick, John Mathewson, William Lewis, Dr. Browning and George Harwood.

USBORNE. Chas Monteith, A Duncan, A B Freeman, John Anderson, Thos McFarlane, Jas Moir, A Bishop, Robt Dew, and D Walker.

HAY.—Wm Buchanan, jr., David Wanless, Daniel McCall, Hugh Love, Sen., Robt Brown, Wm Carrick, Wm Lehman, and Wm Turnbull, Sen.

TUCKERSMITH.—Wm Chesney, Alex. Thomson, Jas Dallas, Jas Smylie, James Macdonald, Jas Broadfoot, Sen., George Walker and Jas Lang.

SEAFORTH.—S G McCaughey, William Malcolm, F Seegmiller, John Logan, W Ballantyne, W Campbell, D Schantz, and M Y McLean.

STANLEY.—David Youill, Jas Forrest, George Anderson, James Wanless, Josiah Secord, and Duncan McEwen.

GODERICH TP.—Wm Hall and Alex McDougall.

GODERICH.—D. McKay, Abraham Smith James Young, W R. Spuier, W T. Cox, and J S Sinclair

MR SINCLAIR said, when he looked around on this meeting, and saw that the old fire of reform was not extinguished in South Huron, he was convinced that the government, in attempting to steal a march on us, would find themselves very much mistaken. He hoped, whomsoever the convention nominated all would pledge themselves to unanimous support, as he was sure, from whatever part of the county he came, he would be an honest, sterling reformer who would do his best to prevent the ministry spending public money without the sanction of the people's representatives. It was outragoous that a million and a half of dollars should be entrusted to five men, from one of whom a dollar could not be recovered in a Division Court or without a judgment summons. He would urge the people to beware of being influenced in their opinions by the claptrap got up by John Carling in London, promising to bring a railway to everybody's door. It would now be proper for the meeting to nominate [illegible] the view of selecting one who will receive the united support of the reformers of the South Riding.

MR. JAMES WANLESS, Hay, as an old stager in the reform cause, thought it would be very unjust of us to forget the member we did elect, who was so ill-treated and insulted by the member we didn't elect as to be sent out from the doors of Parliament. No honest reformer but would hail with satisfaction the chance to work for Mr. Gibbons, return him by a large majority, and order them to open the door that was unjustly closed against him.

MR. DAVID WANLESS, Hay moved and MR. DALLAS seconded that the nominations be made by open vote. Carried.

MR. A. P. FREEMAN moved and MR. SMYLIE seconded:—"That the delegates at this convention pledge their support to the Reform nominee of the majority." Carried.

MR. W. MALCOLM, Seaforth, in a very eloquent manner, testified to Mr Gibbons' worth, as the man of honesty and sterling integrity we needed, and very forcibly exposed the unconstitutional conduct of the Sandfield Macdonald government.

MR. GIBBONS was of opinion that the strongest man, the convention could run, would be one from the southern part of the County, who would start about even with Mr. Carling. He had come severely enough through the fire already and would sleep sounder when he went home tonight, if he was not nominated.

After some further remarks, in the very best spirit, from Messrs. McCaughey, Campbell, Malcolm, Logan, and McLean, Seaforth; Wanless and Buchanan, Hay; Bishop and Duncan, Usborne; Hall, Goderich; Wanless, Stanley, and others,

MR. ARCHIBALD BISHOP moved, and MR. HUGH LOVE SR., seconded the motion, That Robert Gibbons, Esq., of Goderich, be nominated by this Convention, as the candidate for the South Riding of Huron, in the interests of the Reform party.

MR. GIBBONS moved, and MR. DUNCAN, Usborne, seconded, That Mr. Archibald Bishop, of Usborne, be nominated.

MR. BISHOP earnestly asked the withdrawal of this motion.

MR. DUNCAN, Usborne, explained that he at present seconded Mr. Bishops' nomination only with a view to show the Convention that the people of the southern part of the riding intended, some time in the future, to ask the convention to allow them to bear the burden and share the honor of legislation and support the Reform candidate the South would bring forward. Their present object being accomplished, he, although only the seconder of the amendment, would unite with Mr Bishop in asking Mr Gibbons to withdraw his amendment.

The amendment having been accordingly withdrawn, Mr Gibbons was unanimously and enthusiastically nominated as the candidate for South Huron in the interests of the Reform party.

MR GIBBONS said this was a renewal of confidence which he was proud of but yet did not desire. He had hoped that he was not to be asked to fight for his own election any more, and had come to the convention with the intention of supporting, to the utmost of his power, the man this convention might choose. They had chosen him, and when he saw that that choice came from the bone and sinew of the Riding, the true men who had stood at his back in former years, though it was a trying circumstance for him to accept, he could not refuse to do so. And as he went in, he was bound to go in only to win. He hoped he would be supported at the last, and that having nominated him the people would work for him. If put in he would do the best he could. His past record was the fairest guarantee of what his future conduct would be. He freely confessed he owed the present ministry a grudge, and the day he became one of Sandfield's martyrs' he hoped he would never again see the honest face of a South Huron reformer.

The details of the campaign were then entered into, parties appointed to receive copies of the voter's lists in each electoral district and attend to the canvass, and places of meeting appointed, as will be seen in our advertising columns, where Mr Gibbons may address the electors. The most flattering prospects are held out to our nominee from all parts of the County—even from those municipalities that have been hitherto most lukewarm in the Reform cause. Let no one think, however, that there will be enough working without him. Every true reformer, at this important crisis, should be content to sacrifice both time and convenience to attain success. The struggle this time will not be prolonged, let us throw ourselves into it with all our energy, while it lasts. A grand, united rally, for once! and reformers could carry the South riding by storm, and return honest Robert Gibbons by a majority of 300 votes! Let us then bury all divisions, drown all jealousies, sink all minor differences of opinion, if any such exist in any mind, and work like one man, to send to the Legislative Assembly a man of fearless integrity, whose steadfast aim it will be to expose and destroy corruption, to fight for and secure pure and economical government.

North Huron Moving.

We are in receipt of information that a General Convention of the Reformers of North Huron will be held at Blyth, at 1 o'clock p. m. on Monday, 6th inst for the purpose of nominating a candidate in the Reform interest. We adjure Reformers to be careful to select the good reformer who is the strongest man and will, everything being taken into consideration, be likely to make the best run! whether that man be Thomas Gibson, of Wroxeter or John Leckie, of Ainleyville. We are ready to do our best for the unanimous nominee of the Convention who, we think, should be Mr. Gibson. We hope that all preliminary arrangements have already been attended to by some one, and that as soon as the Convention speaks, the party will be able to go to work in every district. Energetic and united action alone will lead to victory!

No Hope from Sandfield of Railway aid for Huron.

It is not unlikely that ministerial candidates in this County will hold out to the electors gushing promises of the bonuses which can be obtained for projected railway schemes, through their influence with Sandfield Macdonald, if they are returned to support him in the Legislative Assembly. Unfortunately for them, the Premier, with unaccustomed honesty and unusual lack of forethought, has spoken out as far [illegible] effective use of this weapon by the inglorious rank and file that are ready to manœuvre as he beckons. The termini of the lines to be fostered he speciously said must be on "inland waters." When pertinently asked what this ambiguous phrase meant the following colloquy ensued:—

"Attorney-General Macdonald said they intended the inland lakes, the Ottawa river, &c.

Mr Blake—Does the term include the Erie and Ontario Lakes?

Attorney-General Macdonald—No, they are frontier lakes.

Mr Blake—What about Lake Huron?

Attorney-General Macdonald said that Georgian Bay and Lake Huron were included with the terms of the resolutions. Of course he was aware that the Grand Trunk had a station at Sarnia, and another at Goderich, and the Great Western had a terminus at Windsor; but it was not proposed to include this part of the lakes. It was not necessary to offer any encouragement with reference to this district. It was only to those in a more northerly direction that aid was proposed to be given."

From this it is clear that there is nothing for railways in this section (unless we place honest men at the purse-strings) until they are beyond the northerly bounds of this county; the oracle having decided that the county on Lake Huron is already provided for. This conclusion he doubtless arrived at because he feels so sure of his supporters biding elected for these ridings that he does not even consider it necessary to dangle deceitful promises before our eyes. We will therefore know what value to put on such brilliant inducements as his lackeys may offer, and let us show him he has reckoned without his host for once. Mr. Blake's scheme, if a pro rata division of the surplus according to population, in the light of the fact that the Attorney-general can and will, if he has the opportunity, squander the railway appropriation amongst the constituencies he favors (which are by no means those of this western country that he always leaves in the lurch) would be infinitely superior; although it would not do full justice to Huron which has so honorably paid up its indebtedness to the Municipal Loan Fund. We publish below Mr. Blake's proposal, feeling that it would have done at least partial justice to this county. The distribution of the whole surplus would give,

The present government, as we know by frequent experiences, is not to be trusted with the division of the people's money, as honor and justice, when weighed in the balance against the spurious claims of partisanship, have always in their case been found wanting. The people have now the opportunity of electing representatives who will honestly and impartially apportion to the people the surplus which has accumulated in the treasury, whether in the shape of railway aid or otherwise. Let the electors not neglect the only chance they may have for years of securing fair play to every bona fide railway project calculated to develop the country and substantial justice to each municipality.

What shall we have? Responsible Government or Ministerial Despotism.

When the Warden of Hastings presided at the guzzle which accompanied the opening of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Belleville, and fitly celebrated one crowning triumph of Sandfield Macdonald's shameless "stick to me and I'll stick to you" policy, he said:—"When the Government adopted any scheme, they would carry it out law or no law." That being interpreted amounts to this:—The representative of Hastings is prepared to do any amount of dirty work for the Attorney-General, while Mr. Williams of Hamilton fights fearlessly for the interests of the people of the Province; therefore, though the Deaf and Dumb Asylum was promised to Hamilton, and the money of the country already sunk in purchasing a site there, Belleville shall have the Asylum "law or no law." It is possible the instructive sentence escaped the Warden in that truthful abandon so characteristic of [illegible] walnuts and the wine." Intended as a compliment by the speaker, it was cheered as such by the servile audience, and accepted in the same spirit by the Attorney-General. We do not wonder at hungry menials, willing to sell their glorious birthright for a mess of pottage, thankfully picking up the crumbs their demigod throws them, whether gilded by "law or no law." But we mistake the people of Ontario, if any distribution of Ministerial favors would, in their eyes, be compensation for the destruction of responsible government and the erection of a corrupt cabinet into a practical despotism prepared to carry out their schemes "law or no law." Thither we are now drifting, unless the people at the polls place in other hands the control of the ship of state. Toadeating with the baser instincts of human nature, Sandfield Macdonald has year by year been increasing his corrupt following. Buying the manufactured votes of each [illegible] member; providing a County Arbitrator
