Child Almost Burned to Death Yesterday.

Yesterday morning about 7.30 the 8 year old little daughter of Mr. Edward McGinn, fireman of the Eastern Station, narrowly escaped being burned to death at her residence, 15 Howe Place. Mr. and Mrs. McGinn went to 7 o'clock Mass at the R. C. Cathedral and left their daughter, Emma, with a bright fire in the kitchen. Kitty arose after her parents left home and bringing a chair opposite the stove, was hardly seated in it when her nightdress of flannel, caught fire and she was immediately enveloped in flames, and almost before her sister knew what had occurred. The child rushed into a room off the kitchen, where her brother, Willie, aged 15 years, slept. Her screams woke him and getting out of bed tried to tear the blazing dress from his sister. The wristband were closely buttoned and it caught there, and as the boy's hands were burning while he held the dress he let it go, and taking a pail of water from the kitchen dashed it over his sister, thus effectually quenching the fire. The boy's presence of mind and coolness saved Kitty from being burned to death but not from terrible injury. Her hair was all singed and the side of her face, hands, arms, chest and abdomen were badly seared with the fire, and she suffered excruciating pain. Neighbors flocked around and did all possible to alleviate the child's suffering. A man named Hynes told Sgt. Keane at the station of the affair and he rang up Dr. Rendell but the doctor was not at home. Mr. and Mrs. McGinn on returning from Mass were horrified at the condition of the child, and her father again went in search of the doctor, who gave him an order for the child's admission to Hospital. She was taken there in the ambulance. This morning the little girl's sufferings came to an end, at the Hospital, death having claimed her as a victim. We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. McGinn.

Memorial Service at Heart's Content.

To-day, May 20th, was observed here as a public holiday by all classes out of respect and commemoration of the death and burial of our good and beloved King Edward VII. of loving memory. The Memorial Service was held in St. Mary's Church, and was as follows:—

1. Mendelssohn's Dead March.
2. Opening sentences of Burial Office (read while Choir and Clergy entered the Church by Rev. W. H. Bailey).
3. Hymn 165.
4. Psalms XXXIX. and XC. sung by the choir.
5. Lesson—I Cor. XV. 20v., read by the Rev. W. H. Bailey.
6. Hymn 608.
7. Address (text II. Sam. XIX. 14: "And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah even as the heart of one man.") The address was delivered by the Rector, Rev. Frank Smart, and was very impressive.
8. Burial Office beginning: "Man that is born, etc." by Rev. W. H. Bailey. The Rector then began: "Lord have mercy upon us," and continued to the end.
9. Hymn 399.
10. After singing two verses of this hymn there was perfect silence while the bell tolled ten strokes.
11. National Anthem.
12. Chopin's Funeral March.

The service was attended by members of the S. U. F. and L. O. A. from all parts of the Parish. The brass band of the L. O. A. rendered some splendid music on the way to and from church. The Company of the C. L. B. also attended as well as the school children. There were many people from Heart's Delight, New Perfection and Selly Cove. There has not been so many people in church at one time since the time of Queen Victoria's Memorial Service. The church was draped with purple and black, and showed that it had been done by skilled hands.

We congratulate all who helped to make the service so beautiful and impressive, and trust it will be many years before we are called upon again to attend a similar service.

"GOD SAVE THE KING."

Condolences.

To His Excellency Sir Ralph Champey Williams, K.C.M.G., Governor of Newfoundland.

May it please Your Excellency,—
On behalf of the Trades and Labor Council we beg most respectfully to tender, through you, to His Most Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth and the Royal Family, our most earnest and heartfelt sympathy with them in the deplorably sad loss which they have sustained through the death of our beloved King Edward VII. To Her Royal Highness Queen Alexandra we send a special message of condolence, for to her has fallen the burden of the sorrow. Not a subject in the vast Empire to-day whose heart does not pour forth its most affectionate sympathy to the bereaved Queen Mother, and from none is that sorrow more deep-rooted than from her loyal subjects in Newfoundland.

We also beg to extend to His Majesty King George V. and his worthy Consort, Queen Mary, our heartfelt congratulations upon their accession to the Throne. We further wish to assure them of our affection and loyalty. May King George's reign be marked by many glorious years, as was that of his illustrious grandmother, Queen Victoria, of happy memory, and brightened by those peace-loving characteristics of his deeply lamented father.

City Brigades Parade.

Yesterday forenoon the C. L. B., C. C. C. and Nfld. Highlanders held church parades. The C.L.B., mustering about 300 boys, in charge of Lieut. Col. Rendell, marched to the C. of E. Cathedral, where Rev. Jas. Bell took the service and preached an excellent sermon, in which he made touching reference to the late King Edward VII. After service, headed by their excellent band playing martial airs, the lads marched to Renette's Mill and out Monkstown Roads, proceeding to their armoury. Before dismissing the lads the commanding officer paid a deserved meed of praise to Corporal Adams, who is shortly leaving for Canada.

The C. C. C. had one of the largest parades since its inception yesterday forenoon when they attended last Mass in the R. C. Cathedral. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan. The Corps in command of Lieut.-Col. Greene after Mass paraded through some of the principal streets of the city and made a good display. The band, which was composed of 33 members, played several excellent quick-steps on the march.

The Nfld. Highlanders in command of Lieut.-Col. McNeill paraded to service at the Kirk yesterday forenoon. Headed by their pipes playing Scottish and patriotic airs, the companies in their kilts presented a very attractive appearance and were much admired by the many people who saw them on the march. Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite officiated at the church and preached a very eloquent sermon. After the service the brigade proceeded up New Gower Street and down Water Street to their armoury.

The Restraint of Wisdom is Silence.

It was Solomon who said "There is a time to be silent and a time to speak." If everybody only knew when to be silent and when to speak, what unpleasantness could be avoided, what good could be accomplished. There are people who have ready tongues, a quality not always to be made use of. Prince Bismark said: "I'm sure that you are right then go ahead." This is we are right, our goods are right, our prices are right, and we do right by selling Clothing, Dry Goods and Furniture for cash or credit.—B. FRIEDMAN, 301 Water St. Water Side, Phone 546, P. O. Box 5.

Stopped the Swearing.

As Sgt. Byrne was passing up Water Street Saturday night one of three men standing on the sidewalk was doing some tall swearing. The Sgt. remonstrated, but as he was in plain clothes, and the other did not know him this only made the man use more blasphemy. He then refused the officer his name, but was soon good enough to give it as the Sgt. hurried him to the lock-up. Here he was warned to drop his habit of using bad language and allowed to depart.

DANISH SCHOONER ARRIVES.

The Danish schooner Emil, Captain Carlsen, arrived here at 10 o'clock last night, after a run of 41 days from London with a general cargo which includes a quantity of gunpowder. Most of the time the vessel encountered gales of wind and heavy seas.

JOINED THE FIREMEN.—Mr. Wm. Harvey, of the West End, a fire reservist of many years standing, has been appointed to the regular force.

Bruce Sailed.

The S. S. Bruce, Capt. Drake, sailed for Port aux Basques at 11.10 a.m. yesterday to resume the service on the Gulf. Capt. Delaney, Capt. Parsons and Chief Officer Keane went on her to Sydney where they will give evidence in the Admiralty case in the case of the collision of the Invermore with the French banker Beluga. There was no steam trawler named the St. Etol' cut down as the Daily News says. The case will be heard in the court at Sydney.

Looters at Work.

The house of Mr. Wm. Quigley, situated on Long Pond Road, was broken into Wednesday night last just about midnight. The owner, Mr. Quigley has been ill for some time past and is not residing in the house, the doors of which are barred up. A friend of his passing at the time saw lights in the house, and believing that the owner was better and had reoccupied the place, called out and asked Quigley, whom he thought to be there, how he was. He was surprised to see the light extinguished suddenly and two men jump from a window and run down the road. They had entered by breaking open the window. Next day the furniture in the house was found to be tossed about while there were evidences enough to show that when disturbed the men were ransacking the place, evidently in search of money. The house will be carefully looked after in future.

Underwent Operation.

Mr. James Kavanagh, the popular travelling salesman with McMurdo & Co., has been very ill the past few weeks of peritonitis. He recently underwent a serious though successful operation at the hands of Drs. Mitchell, Frazer and Chaplin and is now rapidly regaining strength. He will be up and about again in a week or so.
