The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Do you know I think there is such a thing as being too much home at home.

That is, for a family to be very closely and intimately bound together is a beautiful thing. But for a family to be so intimately bound together that individual rights and privacy are invaded is an unfortunate thing.

For no matter how dearly the members of a family love and trust each other, I think they are a happier and better family if they preserve a habit of privacy and of respect for each other's privacy. And I think that in the average family there is far too little of this spirit.

For example, when one member of a family goes into his room and shuts the door, I don't think that any other member should think of entering that room without knocking, any more than he would a stranger's room.

In the same way, I think property rights should be as thoroughly respected in the family as outside of it. That is, I do not believe it is well for brothers and sisters to go freely to each other's drawers and cupboards and rummage in them.

The habit of lending and borrowing clothes and small articles that many sisters and brothers have is a perfectly natural one, and as long as the borrowing is done with the full permission of the owner, I cannot see the slightest objection to it.

I know a family of sisters whose wardrobes are all rather scanty and who willingly contribute all their prettiest things when one of their number has some especial occasion to honor, and I think the custom is very sweet and kind of funny, and not in the least anything to be ashamed of.

But borrowing that is done without the owner's knowledge and permission—even borrowings of little things—don't think should be smiled upon in families any more than it is outside of them. When big sister wants to wear her favourite blue scarf and finds that little sister has worn it and soiled it, or when little sister finds that big sister has cheerfully borrowed all her handkerchiefs, I think the injured one has a very good right to be indignant, and that the offender should be read a stern lesson on respecting other's people's property rights, and, if possible, made to suffer in some way that will bring the lesson home to her.

Opening each other's mail is a liberty that members of a family occasionally take and one of the worst I think.

It doesn't make any difference if you are sure the envelope contains only a bill. It is addressed to one person and meant for him only. There is a law of the land for the punishment of any one who opens another person's mail before it is delivered. There is also a law of decency which should guard mail after it is delivered even from one's closest and most privileged relatives.

To sum it all up—just because a group of people happen to be related that does not exempt them from the need of showing courtesy and deference and respect towards each other.

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abhorrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 50 stamps.

Household Notes.

Chloride of lime as a disinfectant is invaluable, especially on humid days in summer. Sprinkle it about the cellar floor if there is any evidence of dampness. It is advisable to sprinkle a little daily in the garbage can.

To make mushroom soup, peel and trim some large flat mushrooms; lay them on rounds of buttered toast; place a lump of butter on each, pepper and salt, grill or bake till cooked through. Serve hot with a good savory gravy.

A delicious and nourishing hot weather drink is a fruit eggnog. Beat up a raw egg well and then add half a cupful of any fruit juice. Beat hard and then add gradually, still beating, half a cupful of cream. Serve immediately.

For a good silver polish, take half a pound of whiting and mix with two ounces of turpentine, one tablespoonful of ammonia and half an ounce of camphor. Apply to silver with a Canton flannel cloth; let dry and polish with chamois.

Cold baked beans may be used as a sandwich filling or a salad. If for sandwiches, mash them and season highly with tomato sauce catsup or chili sauce. For a salad, a plain French dressing is best. Garnish with tomato and serve on lettuce.

If in making a soup of fresh fruit the diced fruit is sweetened to taste and then put into a mould or pan and packed in ice and salt for an hour or two, the dessert will be found especially pleasing. The fruit partly frozen, is very refreshing on a hot day.

A substitute for aspic jelly is quickly made. Get a can of the consommé or bouillon and prepare it as for serving hot, adding enough gelatine to make it the desired consistency. Then it may be easily molded by itself or with poultry or meat as one desires.

Before washing silk stockings they should be soaked in cold water for one-half hour, and then washed in lukewarm water with good white soap. Common laundry soap should not be used, nor should the stockings be ironed, as heat is apt to crack silk.

Peaches are delicious served with ice cream. Make a plain vanilla cream. When frozen, line in a melon mold with the cream and fill the centre with the peaches cut into small pieces and well sweetened. Cover with the cream and then pack in salt and ice for an hour or two.

When boiling a pudding in a cloth, first wring the pudding cloth out in boiling water and then, spreading it over a bowl, drudge it well with flour, flouring it well again near the opening, after the pudding is tied. This will prevent the bag's contents becoming water-soaked.

It is a decided economy to stuff sweet green peppers with a forcemeat made of left-over meat or fish. The forcemeat may be mixed with a cream sauce or a little tomato sauce. If the peppers are set into custard cups or muffin rings while being baked, there

Father Morrissey's Lung Tonic

Cured Miles Maroney of Serious Lung Trouble.

Blissfield, N.B., Dec. 26, 1909.

Father Morrissey Medicine Co. Ltd.

As a patient of Father Morrissey's I would thank you for an opportunity of giving expression to the benefits I have received from his prescriptions and medicines, not on one occasion but at different times.

Some eight years ago I had occasion to apply to the Rev. gentleman for treatment for lung trouble which proved to be of a serious nature; so serious was my case that my friends looked upon my recovery as almost hopeless, but after his treatment I am thankful to say that to-day I am in perfect health.

On Feb. 26, 1907, I had occasion to ask his advice and treatment for a lame back. I received a prescription which gave me immediate relief.

Thanking you, I am
Yours faithfully,
MILES MARONEY.

If you know of a case of Lung trouble, tell the sufferer of Father Morrissey's "No. 10" (Lung Tonic). Trial Bottle 25c. Regular size 50c, at your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co. Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

will be no danger of their falling over to one side, thus spoiling their appearance.

To recur an ostrich feather have a teakettle of boiling water and shake the feather vigorously through the escaping steam, being careful not to get it too damp. Next, take a silver fruit knife and beginning with the feathers nearest the quill take a small bunch between the thumb and forefinger and draw it gently over the blade of the knife.

A delicious fish dish is made of crab, lobster or any kind of cold fish. Flake the fish well; then put it into a pan with plenty of butter, adding a little nutmeg and salt for seasoning. Add a little flour and an egg or two beaten up with cream. Stir so the mixture will not curdle, and add a few cracker crumbs so as to make it thick enough to handle.

Add a pinch of soda to the beans before baking, and the flavor will be improved. Another thing to remember in baking beans is this: Save about half a cupful of the liquor in which the beans are boiled. When the beans are baked, immediately on taking them from the oven, spread the top with the bean liquor. This makes the beans much more moist.

Many people flour their fruit, whether currants, raisins or citron, before adding it to the batter. A cook who says that she never experiences any trouble from having the fruit sink to the bottom of her cake, attributes her success to putting a little of the batter in the pan and then adding the fruit to the remainder of the batter before turning it into the cake pan.

Family Slain by Blackhand Band.

Policeman, Wife and Six Children Are Murdered in Italian Village.—Plot Hatched in New York

REGGIO, DI CALABRIA, Italy, September 7.—To the vengeance of the Black Hand society in New York is ascribed the murder early Monday of a policeman named Rovolino, his wife and six children in the little village of Pellarò, eight miles south of Reggio.

Early Monday morning some of the townspeople of Pellarò were awakened by the terrified shrieks of a child. Rushing to the cottage occupied by the Rovolino family, they found the three year old daughter of the policeman lying with her throat cut before the open door of her home, screaming piteously.

Picking up the child, the villagers carried her inside the house, where they were horrified to find the remaining members of her family lying dead, all of them having been terribly mutilated by blows from an axe. Beside the mother lay her four months old baby with its skull crushed.

Despite the efforts of the surgeons to save the life of the little girl whose cries aroused the neighbourhood, she succumbed to her injuries.

The Rovolinos returned from the United States a short time ago, and since then it is said two attempts were made to poison them. Rovolino spoke of the possibility of vengeance being directed against him.

None of the townspeople saw or heard the murderers, who escaped from the village without leaving a clue as to their identity.

Following the assassination of Lieutenant Petrosino in Palermo, in March of last year, Lieutenants Vachris and Crowley, of the New York police force, were sent to Italy to assist the Italian police in tracing his murderers. They returned about a year ago. While there they received the aid of policemen in several cities, and it was suggested in police circles that Rovolino may have incurred the enmity of the Black Hand for assistance rendered to the New York detectives.
