Our Houses as Mirrors.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

Have you ever
happened to observe how largely a house absorbs an atmosphere from those who dwell in it?
This is thought
came strongly to me the other day when I went to visit an old friend and found a little note saying that she had been unexpectedly
called away for a few hours and inviting me to get the
key from a neighbour, enter and make
myself comfortable.
My friend is one of those beautifully
hospitable people
who have the pleasant art of making every guest feel
thoroughly at home,
and her house
must have absorbed
some of that
"spirit." For the moment I entered I felt at home. The empty house greeted me. I missed my friend, of course,
but I felt no sense
of constraint or formality, as I would have in
so many houses.
The house was full of that spirit
of hospitality which its mistress possesses.

Perhaps you will reminde me that the character of the furnishings may have had something to do with my impression. I grant
it. The congenial
magazines and pictures, the comfortable chairs, the harmonious hangings did give me
part of my welcome. But not all.
I insist that the spirit of hospitality
was in that house.

Surely you know
some home which has an atmosphere
of cold formality.
No matter how tasteful and pleasant the surroundings, you never feel wholly at ease. Nor is it simply your hostess' lack of cordiality. Even before she appears,

you sit in chill
constraint on the edge of your chair.
You are oppressed
and repelled by
the atmosphere
of the house.

Again, there are homes which seem to be haunted by the spirit of unrest,
and others where peace abides. Someone has beautifully
said, "An old house
harbours peace better than a new one."
That is partially true, and yet I know many new homes which, being inhabited by tranquil, restful people, seem to breathe
the spirit of peace
on all who enter
there.

Along these same lines I have another theory, and that is that household pets also take on the character
of those with whom they live. The most disagreeable dog I ever knew lived
with some unamiable people. The dog
finally became so snappy that they had to get him out of the neighbourhood. He was given to the family carpenter. The other day I called there
and a pleasant
little dog trotted
into the room and welcomed me. I could hardly be convinced that it
was actually our neighbourhood be-nevoire. But it was.
Living with pleasant people he had become pleasant
himself.

Again I know a wonderful black Persian puss with queer uncatlike
habits who is the close friend of a distinctly eccentric
and wonderful
woman; and I have been particularly impressed with the case of an awkward,
impetuous, well-
meaning doggie who certainly mirrors
the characteristics of the actual appearance of his master.

Truly, it is an interesting theory,
this idea that people with strong characteristics affect their surroundings.
Try it out some day with your friends.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an extract of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. Dorst of New Brunswick, N. C. to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation, and I was told to go for six months and was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken one bottle of the Discovery I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and take care of the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 167 pounds."

Mrs. Dorst.

A Fine Policeman

OTTAWA, June 10.—The story of the Ottawa Constable Frank W. Davies near Southesk, Alta., by three Indians whom he tried to arrest is another illustration of how well young Englishmen can serve the Empire even when engaged on such an ordinary vocation as that of a constable of the mounted police.

He came from London, England, some five years ago started farming at or near Wadena, Sask., but evidently soon tired of that task, because in April, 1909, he applied for admission into the Mounted Police and was sworn in on the 9th of that month. Then he gave his age as 25, and stated that his next of kin was his father, Walter Davis, of 25 Roma road, Hampstead, London. There is not a mark against his record, and he is reported by the controller as having been a most efficient member of the force.

Davies was one of those young Britishers who play the game like men. They know their duty and do it even if death be the reward. Prior to starting out on what has proved to be his last case he had been around the town joking and talking to the boys with whom he was a universal favorite. Just at dusk a terrified Indian hurried into the town. He located the constable, and in broken language told him that two Indians and a "breed" had shot several times at him, at the same time pointing to bullet holes in his hat, coat sleeve, and in a bundle of blankets he carried. The officer immediately started after them and that was the last seen of him alive.

His murderers took his gun, cartridge belt, and horse, and continued on their way south-east. Mounted Police Corporal Johnston, of Bassano alone arrested the three men, who are now being held for the murder.

Eight Years in Prison

AND $3,000 FINE.
Binghamton, N. Y., June 13.—Delivering less than three minutes, the jury attending the United States Court to-day rendered a verdict of guilt in the case of Mattie Blige, who was charged with importing Blanche Lalumiere from Canada into New York for "white slave purposes." Judge Ray sentenced her to eight years in the Federal Prison at Atlanta and imposed a fine of $3,000. Much mystery surrounds the personality of Blige, he being examined while under arrest by six witnesses who knew the facts in the case, but could not agree whether he was the notorious Edward Denno who figured in the Morner murder case near Albany. The connection with the white slave case did not come until he had been arrested on suspicion of being Denno.

Be Warned
by Headache

It tells of Serious Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys—Try Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
You can stop a headache with powerful drugs. But it is not generally wise to do so.
A headache almost always warns you of derangements of the digestive system, the liver, kidneys or bowels.
Awaken the liver to healthful action by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you not only free yourself of headache, but remove the cause which will soon lead to more dangerous results than headache.
Pains are the result of poison in the system and whether you have headache, backache or aching limbs, you can be almost sure of relief and cure by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
They are wonderfully prompt, as well as definite and thorough in action. You can depend upon them, no matter how long-standing or complicated your case. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box; all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

SUPER & MOORE

Volcano
Destroys Two Villages.

Kodiak, Alaska, June 11.—Kodiak and Woody Island villages are buried under a foot of ashes as a result of the eruption of Katmai Volcano beginning Thursday afternoon and lasting forty eight hours. No lives have been lost here, but many other settlements near the volcano must have suffered indescribably. The revenue cutter Manning was in port here when the eruption began, and furnished refuge for all the inhabitants of the town, 500 men, women and children, doubtless saving many lives.
The Manning is now serving distilled water and Government rations to the destitute people, the water supply having been polluted and the spring filled with ashes.

Communication Cut Off.
The naval wireless station was destroyed by fire, and the Manning's wireless equipment is too weak to work with Godovia. Despatches are being sent by tug to Seward with an appeal for all available craft to come to the assistance of the people in the vicinity. The property loss will be enormous.

As soon as the hall of ashes, sand and hot pumice stone began, the officers of the Manning ordered everyone in Kodiak and nearby villages to board the ship.

For more than forty hours the people were huddled together in the darkness of midnight. Saturday night it grew lighter, the Manning worked out of the narrow channel and headed for the open sea. She had not proceeded far when the pall lifted, and she returned to Kodiak.

The First News.
The first direct news of conditions on Kodiak Island, which was almost devastated by the eruption of Katmai Volcano, was received yesterday when the tug Printer arrived, bringing Lieut. Searles, of the revenue cutter Manning, and with J. E. Erskin, a merchant of Kodiak, who appealed for assistance for the stricken people on the island. Lieut. Searles said that the food supply at Kodiak was sufficient to last only fifteen days.
All the crops on the island were destroyed and millions of fish were killed by the sand and ashes that fell into the water.

How to Grow Hair.

It has been proved that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.
This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. McMurdo & Co., your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into St. John's and a large generous bottle, can be procured for 50c.
