Obituary.

MRS. HODDER, of Heart's Delight.

Mrs. Hodder, the wife of Mr. Hodder, the principal of the Higa School at Heart's Content, passed away this morning. The deceased lady had not long since recovered from a serious illness, but she was suffering from a heart ailment, until three weeks ago, when she came to the city to seek medical advice. On her return she took to her bed and the end came to-day. Mrs. Hodder was married twice. Her first husband was Mr. W. J. Eaton, who was agent for Waterman & Co. of England, at Nipper's Harbor, until his death. She had one son by him and he is an agent of the Confederation Life, with Mr. Dougald Munn. She married Mr. Hodder some fifteen years ago and leaves two other children, a son and a daughter. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. S. J. Blackler, of Nipper's Harbor, Mrs. Earle, of Talmouth, England, and Mrs. Gardiner, of North Sydney, and one brother, Mr. J. W. Penny, of the Royal Stores. The deceased lady was the daughter of the late R. A. Penny, of Heart's Content. To her husband and relatives, the Evening Telegram extends sympathy in their sorrow.

MISS HUBERT.

Mr. Bernard, of Field College, received word yesterday of the death on Sunday night of Miss Mabel S. Hubert, of Raton, New Mexico. Miss Hubert was a daughter of Mr. Hubert, the Magistrate at Harbor Breton, who preceded Mr. Way. She was a sister of the late Dr. Hubert who was stricken down in the city by diphtheria at the time it was raging some twenty-three years ago. Miss Hubert left Newfoundland some six years ago. To her relatives and friends the Evening Telegram extends sympathy in their sorrow.

McMurdo's Store News.

TUESDAY, Dec. 2nd, 1913.
The Excelsior Shaving Stick is as its name implies, highest in quality of all shaving sticks. A little use makes such a free, rich, creamy, softening lather that it is admitted by all who have used it to make an easier, more pleasant shave than anything else of the kind—so they continue to use it and to recommend it to others. And we recommend it in the most emphatic way. Price 35 cents.
Just opened a new lot of nail files, tweezers, etc. This helps to make our list of manicure goods more complete, and we are now pretty well supplied with goods and utensils for this purpose. Come and see for your self.

Supreme Court.

(Before Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Emerson.)

Mary C. Hocken, Plaintiff, and A. Goodridge & Sons, Ltd., Plaintiff.
This is an appeal from a judgment given by Mr. Justice Johnson, on July 3rd, 1913, of $1,850, for detention of the Ada Pearl. The Attorney General appeared for appellant, and Mr. Higgins for defendant. The appeal was dismissed.

Heavy Sentence for Men Who Stole Necklace.

London, Nov. 24.—Sentence was pronounced at the London sessions at the Old Bailey, to-day, on four prisoners, charged with stealing and receiving a pearl necklace valued at $650,000 which disappeared during transit by registered post from Paris to London on July 16, but was later found lying on a sidewalk in London, with only one or two pearls missing. The accused were arrested on September 2, while negotiating the sale of the pearls. Two of the men, Lockett and Grizard, were condemned to seven years' penal servitude each. Siberian to five years, and Gutworth to eighteen months hard labor.

Negros Lynched Colored Man.

Wilmington, N. C., November 24.—A "death-dance," about the body of James Davis, a negro fugitive, was executed early yesterday morning by one hundred infuriated negro men and women after the man had been killed for attempting to assault Alice Hilton, also colored.
The lynching occurred near Price's Corner, where George White, a negro, was burned at the stake on June 22, 1903, for killing Helen Bishop.
Davis was shot by Isaiah Hilton, the husband of the victim. The "death-dance" was led by Mrs. Mary Elliott, a negro woman, who had been attacked by Davis two months ago. As the negroes danced they shouted: "Burn the devil's body."

Here and There.

All huckleberries that are made either into cake or pudding should be lightly dusted with flour before being mixed in the batter.

WEATHER.—Up the country to-day it is dull, with a light northeast wind. The temperature is from 20 to 45 above.

Will the person who took an overcoat from Mr. J. Duff's Bowling Alley on Thursday night please return same and save further trouble, as he is known.—dec2,11

HOLY CROSS BUILDING.—The work on the Holy Cross extension is going ahead very favorably, and it is expected that, with good weather, the building will be completed and ready for occupancy in February next. Quite recently a letter was received from the Rev. Superior of the Mother House saying that he will be prepared to send extra teachers as soon as required.

Montreal Pastor Scores the Corporations.

Says Those Who Demand Enormous Profits on Foodstuffs Should be Jailed.

Montreal, Nov. 24.—"It is said a corporation has no body to be chastised nor a soul to be damned. But there should be a law to put their bodies in jail, as there is a God who will damn their souls if they treat unjustly their fellowman."

Rev. Dr. Brophy, pastor of the Agnes' Church, St. Denis Street, in the course of a powerful sermon on Sunday attributed the cost of living to usurious profits demanded by people who supply foodstuffs and materials to the people.

"The laborer of to-day is worse off than oppressed of the days of the Barons, for he has not the joy of the fight that the oppressed of those days had. There were risings before and people will not be ground down, they will not be bled to death by modern tyrants."

"Are we to sit by and see the workman starve?"
These were some of the statements made by Dr. Brophy in his sermon. It is said a corporation has no body to be chastised nor a soul to be damned. But there should be a law to put their bodies in jail as there is a God who will damn their souls if they treat unjustly their fellowman, he said.

T. A. BAND PRACTISING.—Mr. N. J. Murphy has resumed charge of the T. A. Band and last night quite a number of the lads attended the first practice. Great enthusiasm is being displayed and we have no doubt but the boys under Mr. Murphy's capable management will be heard from in the near future.

LOCAL ARRIVES.—The local from Carbonear, Conductor P. Lee, arrived in the city at noon to-day. Upwards of 60 passengers came by her.

How a Cyclone Strikes.

It Bursts Doors Outwards, Not Inwards, and it Will Draw Corks from Bottles.

Cyclones of the sort that recently devastated the colliery valleys of South Wales are very rare in this country. This particular storm, the fiercest ever known in Britain, carried a man nearly a quarter of a mile through the air before dashing him down to death. It threw tombstones about, hurled shop goods into the street, and took the roofs off hundreds of houses.

Cyclones as a rule occur only in hot countries. Their fierceness is due to a sort of hole in the atmosphere. The air all round rushes in with tremendous force to fill up this hole. So a cyclone is really a sort of cartwheel of winds, fierce gales blowing along each spoke towards the hub, which is called the "eye" of the cyclone.

In a cyclone the "cartwheel" is much smaller than in an ordinary storm, and the winds are correspondingly fiercer. There are quite authentic instances of cyclones driving flying nails into trees or planks right up to the head. Straws, too, have been driven half through stout doors.

A very curious thing about cyclones is that a house caught in the eye of one has its doors and windows burst outwards, not in. This was noticed in Wales, and accounts for the contents of shops being hurled into the street.

Dust is Driven Into Clothes.

The reason is that the eye of a tornado being empty of air, the pressure of the air within a closed house against the empty space outside makes the house burst outwards as if it contained a charge of dynamite. Air everywhere has a pressure of fourteen pounds to the square inch.

It is this suction that makes a cyclone draw corks from any empty bottles it finds in its path.

Anyone caught in a cyclone often finds that dust or mud is driven into his clothes under such pressure that repeated washings refuse to remove it. The tremendous lifting power at the eye of a cyclone is shown not only by its hurling men and even sheds into the air, but by the curious fact that it usually leaves every well in its path quite dry. It is this upward suction that accounts for waterspouts at sea.

In countries where cyclones are common every house has a "cyclone cellar" close at hand for use when a cyclone is on the way.

The only good point about a cyclone as compared with an ordinary storm is that the track along which it travels is always a very narrow one. Its path is seldom more than a very narrow one. On each side of the track where a cyclone is spreading death and destruction the weather is often quite average.

GLENGOE'S PASSENGERS.—The S.S. Glengoe reached Fincantia at 4 a.m. to-day with the following passengers:—W. J. Lerner, Capt. T. Kearley, G. Kearley, Dr. B. Burke, A. J. Burke, R. Rose, Rev. Fr. Whelan, V. Turpin, Richard Taylor, E. Inkpen, Thomas Lookyer, T. J. O'Neill, J. O'Neill, J. Keats, Mrs. J. Bellin, Mrs. A. Ansty and 8 second class.

Grand Trunk Flier Was Wrecked.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 24.—The Grand Trunk Eastern Flier Detroit to Toronto was wrecked at 4:40 this afternoon between Bruce and Belle River, about fifteen miles out of Windsor. Number sixteen was behind time at Windsor is quite unusual, and is reported to have been making between sixty and seventy miles an hour. Most of the cars remained upright and to this can be ascribed the fact that none of the passengers or crew are reported seriously injured. All suffered a good shaking up, and many were severely bruised.

A broken or spread rail is blamed for the derailment, though the cause is not yet officially stated. This train carries two or three day coaches, a diner and Pullmans, with baggage and express car and all were thrown from the track. The locomotive remained on the rails, with the tender, but the first passenger car broke away from the others and rolled 150 feet. The remainder of the coaches remained in their tracks.

Trains are torn up for a considerable distance and both East and West-bound trains were blocked. Wrecking crews were sent out from London and Windsor to clear the right of way.

Conductor Higgins was passing through the chair car when the crash came, and was thrown against a seat. His forehead, cheek and knuckles were badly cut.
