E. Fairbairn conducted the If hour, the theme of his diseing that we can have no orship unless we are in harwith one another, and this spirit cannot be achieved exough the bonds of love. We nded our way to the lunchwhere we partook of a deunch prepared by the ladies

Church. Immediately af-Lindsay was presented with ful growing fern, and a bousweet peas by Mrs. John Madand Mrs. S. Bennett on behalf outport delegates, as a token apprecation and regard for oved President from Miss ncerning her work in Westnada, and another from a Jaworker telling of the educat-Eastern children. Mrs. Cross, the devotional exercise, spoke pervailing influence of Jesus lives, if only we will admit our hearts. The Supt. of Stewardship in giving us stressed the importance partment, and not only take up systematic givso to use our talents in the ervice. The message from Branch of Nova Scotia n session at this time, canin Deut. I-N. For a few our thoughts were directed riends who had been called to Service, while Mrs. Peters "beyond the veil." Some of nate friends spoke a word ing remembrance, showing that their lives may be ended th their lives may be ended the influence still lives. The

For Outdoor Wear on Long June Days Your Needs are Anticipated at the Royal Stores

One of the many reasons why this Store has established itself in the popular mind as a leading house, is that it's enterprise has always been in the direction of providing things of beauty and utility or both—at prices well within the reach of slender purses. This is a very different policy from that of merely offering Cheap goods at Cheap prices.

Study these few examples of Good values offered for Friday and Saturday.

New Harbor Notes.

Salmon and codfish are not yet very plentiful around here. The best waters for the salmon appear to be on the other side of the bay, par-ticularly at Bellevue and Chance Cove. Several small shipments have arrived from those latter places to Mr. Fred Woodman. A steamer is due to arrive to-morrow to take a shipment of fresh salmon from this part of the bay direct to England. The cargo steamer Lubin arrived at Chappel Arm on Sunday,, 13th inst., to load pit props for Cardiff, Wales. he will take all the pit props that were cut between Norman's Cove and Dildo during the last couple of years. The steamer will finish loading within another week or ten days. To see the piles of this lumber that were around the bottom of the bay, one would hardly believe it possible for one such steamer to take it all in one ment to many men around these The influenza epidemic has been very prevalent here during the last month or two. There were several deaths and others have been seriously ill. The veteran Dr. Chisholm was unavailable (being some where on proessional work in Placentia Bay), at a time when a doctor was urgently needed, and we were glad to have Dr. Anderson with us for a day to do the needful. The doctor had a very busy load. This event has given employ-time of it for a while. Mrs. Hutchings, of St. John's, accompanied by her sister-in-law Mrs. r. Moore, of Dildo, went to St. John's by Monday morning's train. Mrs. Hutchings was here, we presume, putting her house in order, preparatory to her usual summer sojourn with her family a little later. Mr. Edwin J. Burnell, accountant with the firm of Read, Son & Watson, was the guest of the Rev. E. and Mrs. Hunt at the Parsonage for a month. He returned to town last Thursday. Mr. Burnell enjoyed himself immensely and intends to come again. So do. sir. New Harbour has unheard of attractions to sportsmen.

Mrs. S. J. Pretty of Dildo, who was very sick, is now, we are glad to say,

Mr. Robert Newhook of Grand Falls was here for a few days last week settling up the estate of his brother.

the late Charles Newhook. Mr. James Hellier of the Reid Nfid. Co St John's and son of Mr Robert Hellier, here, spent the week-end in his native home. Mr. Hellier's mother has been very sick but is now recovering.
