FANCY DRESS CARNIVAL

PRINCE OF WALES' RINK. OPENING NUMBER AT 8 O'CLOCK SHARP.

The Rink has been extensively decorated for this big event. which promises to surpass any yet held. Four prizes will be given—two for ladies and two for gentlemen,—kindly donated by staunch supporters of the Bands. The costumes of the large umber of masqueraders that will attend, combined with the Rink decorations, will no doubt present a pretty spectacle. Another feature of this event will be the rendition by the joint Bands of the one-step "Striking Fire"; the Waltz, "I Wonder What's Become of Sally"; the One-Step, "Washington Post" and Fox-Trot, "In The Garden of To-Morrow."

DON'T MISS THIS UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES This will positively be the last night of those enjoyable Promenade Concerts at the Rink until after the Fair, when the Bands will re-open with something extraordinary.

The Band boys will greet you with their usual winning smiles. Even if you don't dance—COME. (OUR MOTTO:-NOTHING BUT THE BEST).
