

Base Ball Notes.
Speaking of the match between the Independents and Restless Club on the 26th, the Guelph Herald says: "No one was astonished at the result, for the 'Restless' have had no practice this year."
The Base Ball Tournament Committee of Watertown, N. Y., have concluded to offer $1,000 in prizes, to be divided into two classes, $700 to the first class and $300 to the second class. The prizes will be awarded to amateurs only, and the tournament will commence on the last Monday in June.

BLACKWOOD.—We have received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, the May number of Blackwood's Magazine, which opens with the continuation of "Valentine and his Brother." The interest of the story increases, as the boys and their mother, who have been so strangely separated, are drawing very near to each other. The article on "Hercules" was suggested by a recent picture—the Aleosis of Mr. Leighton—which the writer characterizes as one of the most beautiful of modern pictures. "Convivium Templare" is a festive scene, somewhat in the style of the famous "Noctes Ambrosianae," and like them, requiring minute local knowledge, for full appreciation. In "Alice Lorraine, Part III," we are carried to the lovely valley of Medway, and are treated to a graphic medley of fruit-picking, and love-making in an old fashioned Kentish farm. The present series, No. V., of "International Vanities," treats of Estimables. A brief description is given of these various symbols, followed by a very entertaining history of the French and other flags. "Dates and Dates," by Lord Lytton, a clever-off hand plea for fable, by way of good humored response to some recent criticisms on "Fables in Song." In the "Budget and the Income Tax" we are told that "there is hardly any subject within the range of English politics about which so much has been written and spoken as the Income Tax, and there is hardly any subject about which the public mind is so little matured." A history of the tax in question follows this remark.

MYSTERIOUS.—A recent Parliamentary report informs us that on the resolution of the House the Hon. Mr. Tupper was added to the Committee on the shortest route to Europe. Now what does this mean? What dark nefarious scheme lies hidden under the apparently harmless resolution that Mr. Tupper is to be added—we had nearly written added—to the Committee on the shortest route to Europe? Mr. Tupper's proverbial long-windedness—which by this time is as famous as his namesake's proverbial philosophy—would hardly, we should think, tend to shorten the proceedings of — stop! Happy thought! Mr. Tupper is a Doctor of Medicine. What more natural than that he should be placed on the Committee on the shortest route to the other world?—Montreal Star.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening last an accident occurred to Rinear Vansickle, a teamster in the employ of Mr. Wm. Nisbett, of Beverly, which resulted in his death. He had been to Dundas with a mast, and in going home the hind axle of the heavy truck having broken down near one of the wheels, was supported on a long stick which dragged on the ground, when from some cause or other unexplained, Vansickle fell off the truck, and the stick which supported the weight of the truck and dragged on the ground, passed over his body, and inflicted injuries of such a serious character that he died in about twenty-four hours. He was about thirty years of age and a married man. Dundas Banner.
The Czar is about forty-eight years old; he is six feet high; he has light whiskers and moustache, with a clean shaven chin; his hair is cut short; his complexion is fair, and he has a good color. He is strongly built, without being fat. He is the very picture of a fine soldier. He wore the dress of a Russian general—a high blue tunic, with gold braid and epaulettes, blue trousers with gold stripes. On his head a gilt helmet, with a double eagle for a crest. In his manners he is very courteous and easy. He speaks English with perfect fluency and ease.

Dr. Guthrie, in his inimitable autobiography, referring to the affected address of certain modern young ministers, speaks of one particularly, who, instead of calling children by the wholesome old Scotch term "bairns," spoke of them as "those sweet and interesting bipeds that call man father."

DR. WHEELER'S ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES and Calaisa. After having used your Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calaisa for over two years, I can truly say, I must give it my unqualified approbation. During a practice of over twenty years, I have used many scientific preparations, but none have so fully and so completely prepared compounds, made to fulfill the same therapeutic indications as your Elixir, but none of them have proved so valuable as yours. To the medical profession and the public, I would especially recommend it as the best remedy for the treatment of the lungs and constantly increasing class of cases of over-worked and nerve-exhausted women. Your truly,
J. W. WATKINS, M.D.
