Latest Financial News by Mail and Telegraph.

The Financial Situation.

(Toronto Globe of Saturday.)
There is an easier feeling in money circles, although no changes are reported in rates.
The available resources of the banks are increasing, and the bank of England not having advanced its minimum discount rate this week borrowers are beginning to show more confidence.
Commercial paper is not quoted any easier, the lowest rates for prime being 6 to 6 1/2 per cent. Quite a number of transactions on call on gilt-edged collateral have been made at 3 1/2 per cent. Offerings are more liberal at this rate, but there is an unwillingness to accept anything lower. There is a feeling which is increased by the favorable crop outlook, that trade will be good the coming autumn.
