Dier Kiss (Dear Kiss)

This new and remarkably fine odor from France has in the land of its origin already acquired an extraordinary vogue among women of refinement.

No one floral odor can be distinguished in the wonderful melange of the essence of dozens of flowers, and for a fragrance so illustriously delicate, it is exceedingly dainty, yet enduring to a remarkable degree. Dier Kiss is the latest and most exquisite product of Kerckoff, Paris, France.

—Rev. B. D. Thomas, D.D., of Toronto, will occupy the pulpit of Adelaide Street Baptist Church again tomorrow.

—Miss Ethelwyn Johnston, of 371 Princess avenue, has returned from Chicago, where she was visiting Mrs.
W. R. Lackie.

—Mrs. Albert MacGarvey and Mrs.
Joseph Scandrett will receive the first and second Mondays in December and following months.

—Mr. R. Macfie and his daughter, Miss Christina, of Briscoe street, South London, left on Thursday night by C. P. R. for an extended trip to the Pacific coast.

—The Protestant Orphans' Home board has been called to meet for special business on Monday afternoon next at the home. The meeting promises to be very important.

—Elder B. P. Coulter, of Philadelphia, Pa., will preach at Poplar Hill, in the Covenant Baptist meetinghouse, on Wednesday, Nov. 6, at 2 p. m., also Elder D. M. Vail, of Pennsylvania, will preach on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 2 p.m.

—A quiet wedding was solemnized on Oct. 30th, '07, at the Manse Tempo, by Rev. Robt. McIntyre, when Miss Lottie Trevaline, eldest daughter of Mr. Root, Trevaline, of London Junction, became the bride of Mr. Joseph J. Denley, of London Junction.

—Hon. J. E. Bland, of Detroit, spent a few days with relatives and friends here this week. Mr. Bland "used to set type" on The Advertiser, and is now a prominent attorney-at-law in Detroit and member of the Michigan State Senate.

—The anniversary services in the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow will be of special interest, and the choir, with the assistance of Mr. A.
Dunn, will give a programme of special and appropriate music at both morning and evening services.

Thanksgiving Party.
A jolly Thanksgiving party was held at the home of Mrs. Tagg, 144 Colborne street, when all the members of her family gathered to spend the day with their mother. After a dainty dinner, all were photographed. The afternoon and evening were pleasantly spent in games, etc.

Honored Former Teacher.
At a concert given by the pupils of Grand avenue school, Miss Munroe, of the Aberdeen school, was invited to be present, and was presented with a very pretty silver fern pot as a slight token of the esteem in which she was held. Miss Munroe very much appreciated the gift, and graciously thanked her former pupils for their kind thoughts of her. Miss Munroe has proved a most successful teacher, and all very much regret her removal from Grand avenue school.

Hawkins—Taylor.
The wedding was solemnized recently at the parsonage of St. George's Church, West London, of Mr. Frank Hawkins and Miss Sarah E. Taylor, Rev. G. B. Sago officiating. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Beatrice Taylor, while Mr. Chester Cushion supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs.
Hawkins will reside on Talbot street.

A Really Great Singer.
Mr. Theo. Van York, who will appear for the second time with the choir of Dundas Center Church, Tuesday evening next, is one of the very few great singers before the public. The "Hymn of Praise," which is the principal work to be sung, gives a splendid opportunity for the use of the dramatic powers of a singer and is a work where Mr. Van York will be heard at his best.

Hawkins—Taylor.
A pretty wedding took place at the parsonage of the Rev. G. B. Sago, on Monday, Oct. 28, 1907, when Miss Sarah E. Taylor became the bride of Mr. Frank Hawkins. Miss Beatrice, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Chester Cushion supported the groom, after which they proceeded to the residence of the bride's parents, Argyle street, where a dainty repast was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will reside on Talbot street.

Thunder and Lightning.
The weather forecast for November by Rev. I. R. Hicks, summed up in a few words, promises rather a pleasant autumn season. Upon the whole we are promised an average month for all exposed and outdoor interests.
Much fair and open weather will alternate with brief storm periods.

The rainfall will be light, but November will go out with rain, and possibly lightning and thunder in many places southward, with rising barometer and rapid change to much colder heading down from the northwest with the incoming December.

Sheep for Oregon.
Reverend Mercury, A. D. McGugan has sold his entire flock of Lincoln sheep to John B. Stumpf, the millionsaire sheepman of Oregon. This is probably the largest sale of purebred sheep ever made in Western Ontario. The flock numbers 151 head, and the price paid was $3,450. Many expressions of regret are heard among stockmen that such a fine flock of the popular Lincoln should go out of the country. Such sales as these start a flock of our young farmers to start a flock of the breed of sheep that are now so much in demand and are proving so profitable to their owners.

Seeks to Quash Bylaw.
Messrs. Meredith, Fisher & Macdonald, barristers, of London, have written the city of Stratford on behalf of Miss Walker, of that city, residing on Nelson street, proposing if nothing is done within ten days from the date of the letter, Oct. 26, to institute proceedings to quash the bylaw closing the crossing over the Goderich track of the G. T. R. This closing was done by bylaw of the city council in view of the new shops building now undergoing erection, which being built right up to the street line and also close up to the track, would, it was believed, render the crossing a very dangerous one.

Abuse of the Flag.
Hamilton Municipal Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, met Friday morning, Mrs. P. D. Cramer, the regent, presiding. A letter was read from Mr. Acton, editor of the Canadian Homestead Journal, in which he spoke of the abuse of the flag in Canada. He complained that it was being put to such common use, such as advertising, that people of Canada would not respect it. He asked the ladies take the matter in hand and see what could be done. Mrs. Cramer, who will attend the meeting of the D. O. E. in Toronto next Wednesday, will bring the matter up at that time.

Abuse of the Flag.
Hamilton Times: Today Mr. George R. Robinson, the veteran bandmaster of the Thirteenth, is celebrating his 38th anniversary as conductor and head of the renowned band of this city. Mr. Robinson has seen many changes in the personnel of the band, of which he holds the honorable position as the oldest bandmaster in Canada, and perhaps on the continent, but he still directs its proud course with a firm and steady hand as he has done during the 35 years of his career. There are few men, freed, who can point to such a record as the venerable and popular bandmaster.

EMPLOYEES TO THE RESCUE

Hand Financially Embarrassed Employer $6,000 for Pay Day.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Pay roll worries are not among the cares today of Henry G. Dawson, manufacturer of mantels. A score of his own employees, all workmen, yesterday surprised him by offering him enough currency, about $6,000, to carry him through two pay days. If Mr. Dawson shall need more money before the fury in the market is a thing of history, the men on the other side of his desk will bring more. Last week Mr.
Dawson made several deposits which would have carried him through if he had kept the money in his own safe.

HARVEY LEWIS WINS.
Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Harvey Lewis, of this city, had a decided advantage over Mike Donovan, of Rochester, N.
Y., in a six-round bout before the Industrial Athletic Club last night.
Lewis landed almost at will, and in the fifth round had Donovan holding on to avoid punishment.

END OF A ROMANCE

Clarkson and Miss Maloney Have Parted, Says London Dispatch.

New York, Nov. 2.—Special dispatches from London state that Samuel Clarkson, whose reported elopement with Miss Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney, of Philadelphia, caused a stir a month ago, has appeared in London and has settled down to his former life in lodgings near his club in Piccadilly.

Miss Maloney, it is stated, is not with him, and he refuses to talk regarding her whereabouts. It is reported in London, according to the dispatch, that the young woman has returned to her father, who, with her sister, is in Paris.

In the course of a recent case before Mr. Justice Darling the judge declined to make a requested ruling, saying that if he did so the Court of Appeals would say he was wrong. Counsel having expressed disagreement with this view the judge said: "Well, you know the Court of Appeals as well as I do, perhaps better, for you see them at work, while I only see them at luncheon." To which the barrister dryly replied:
"Your lordship sees them at their best."
