ENROLL ALL MALES,

ELIGIBLE FOR WAR

President of Manitoba Patriotic Fund Urges Conscription at Once.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.—A. M. Nanton, president of the patriotic war fund for Manitoba, a director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and distinguished citizen of Winnipeg, in an interview yesterday, expressed his views on the question of conscription. Mr. Nanton believes that an immediate enrollment should be made of all male Canadians between the ages of 18 and 40. The method he suggests is that the same system and agency be employed as in general election.

Classify Locally. A special feature of his plan is that the classification in all cases should be done locally, and not in Ottawa. He believes that a million cards thrown into offices in Ottawa would produce a confusion from which order would never be evolved. He further suggests that after the classification is completed, every Canadian should be in possession of a badge which would indicate his standing.

Five Classes. Mr. Nanton's plan would divide all Canadians into five classes. The first would consist of those too old or too young; the second of those who have already been turned down by the military authorities; the third of those who cannot be spared from the civil life of the country; and the fifth of aliens. The fourth class would consist of the available men who can be spared. Mr. Nanton would provide in the first place similar badges for all to show that they were enrolled. At a later date they would provide special badges for classes one, two, three and four. The fifth class would be the first class. All citizens would be required to wear their distinguishing badge or pay the penalty. Mr. Nanton believes strongly in conscription, and suggests this method of universal enrollment as a first step.

QUEBEC ABOLISHES
THE BAR ON MAY 1

Liberal Caucus Decides to Inaugurate Change Within Six Months.

QUEBEC, Dec. 5.—Quebec will abolish the bar after May 1 next. On that date the Gothenburg or cafe system will be inaugurated. This decision was arrived at today by the Liberal caucus after a somewhat stormy and contentious session. The matter was regarded from every angle and the various arguments pro and con as regards prohibition received full consideration. While it was pointed out that prohibition in certain instances was also added to the fact that it was made out to be, and that it had not only resulted in a decrease of necessary revenue, but had also proved costly in operation and, besides creating a number of evils and acting as an inducement to hypocrisy, had also been ineffective in certain instances, it was also added that there was a very general demand for drastic restrictions, and this especially during the period of the war.

The decision of the Liberal Government is largely along the lines advocated by the license commission in its report on the liquor situation in Quebec.

REGINA, Sask., Dec. 5.—In the Moosejaw county by-election for the Legislature, 50 polls out of 77 give Sheppard (Liberal) 345 majority.

ITALIAN CHAMBER MEETS

Rome, Dec. 5.—1.30 p.m.—(Delayed).—The Chamber of Deputies reconvened today. The people are waiting with considerable interest the Government's financial statement and also a report on the war by the premier, who also probably will take an opportunity to deal with a motion presented by the Intransigent Socialists urging the Government to take advantage of the disposition to mediate shown in the United States, and to see if it is possible to find a way to end the war.

ALISA CRAIG NOTES

ALISA CRAIG, Dec. 4.—The W. M. S. of the Methodist Church held the annual meeting at Mrs. McKay's on Monday. Mrs. Wilson, president of the district W. M. S., addressed the meeting. The anniversary services, which were held on Sunday in the Baptist Church, were well attended. Rev. D. Spencer, D.D., late California state evangelist, preached at both services. Special music was rendered by the choir. Mr. Spencer is conducting two weeks' special services with Rev. A. Penney, pastor of the church.

TO ADVERTISE INGERSOLL. INGERSOLL, Dec. 5.—An important matter that is engaging the attention of civic authorities is the placing of a large electric sign bearing the word "Ingersoll" near the G. T. R. It is believed that this would prove effective advertising, as it would be read by the thousands of railway passengers during the year.

GREEKS CALLING
RIOT AT ATHENS
WORK OF ROWDIES

Washington Legation Gives This Explanation.

INSURRECTION CHECKED

Excesses Laid to Door of Madness and Seditious Plots.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—A foreign office dispatch received tonight from Athens by the Greek legation here, says normal conditions have been restored in the capital. It describes the fighting between the Venizelists and royalists incident to the clash between Greek and Allied troops Saturday as an attempted insurrection by rowdies who were quickly suppressed.

A paraphrase of the dispatch given out by the legation follows: "As you have already been informed, rowdies attempted Saturday to take advantage of the deplorable encounters which occurred between the detachments of the Allies and the Greek troops to create a sudden insurrection. They killed and injured several civilians and military men. The Government immediately took the necessary steps and order was re-established. The capital has now its normal aspect. I am informed, however, that several press cablegrams have described the repression of the riots in the most whimsical manner.

"No rebellion has been checked with more rapidity. If any excesses have been committed, they must be imputed to the madness of the moment and to the exasperation due to the momentary firing which cost blood of the army, and to a seditious which had been promoted against civilians and military men, and which had been prepared long ago and kept quiet.

Nevertheless the Royal Government will not fail to make an effort to show their severity against any person accused of having committed criminal acts."

A report from Minister Droppers at Athens, reaching the state department today, said there was much excitement in the Greek capital, but gave few particulars about the situation. It was the first time the minister had heard from in weeks.

NO RELAXING OF BRITISH STAND.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—A certain degree of order has been re-established at Athens, said the Marquis of Creve, lord of privy seals, in a speech in the House of Lords today, quoting a cablegram from the British minister. Bands of reservists which are believed to have been conspired with the attacks of Allied troops and adherents of former Premier Venizelos have been dismissed, he said, and the city is guarded by regular troops.

British Subjects Have Advised to Proceed to Piræus, where they can be placed in a position of safety, without danger to British life or property, is apprehended. The marquis said that did not imply the Government regarded the situation as a serious one, but in any degree less determined to its responsibility for the fighting of Friday, and to see that such an incident was not repeated.

German Consul
Plotted to Blow Up
Munition Ships

United States Officers Prepared to Prove It in Bopp Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Dec. 5.—United States District Attorney Preston opened the Government's prosecution against Francis Bopp, German consul-general, and attaches of his office, charged with dynamite conspiracies in violation of neutrality laws by asserting that the Government would prove that the defendants successfully conspired to blow up a loaded barge with thirty tons of dynamite in Seattle harbor May 29, 1915.

POPE PROMULGATES
CANON CODIFICATION

Completed Great Work Commenced By His Predecessor.

Rome, Dec. 5.—7.35 p.m.—(Delayed).—A semi-official statement from the Vatican gives the following summary of the allocation delivered by Pope Benedict at the close of his consistory, at which he created ten new cardinals. "The allocation began with the announcement of the promulgation of the codification of the canon law compiled by Cardinal Gaetano under the orders of Pope Pius X. The pope thanked all cardinals, archbishops, bishops, clergy and laymen who contributed to the great work, and added: "We are confident with reason that this important and opportune work will greatly help to bind and strengthen ecclesiastical discipline, because in making the laws of the church better known it promotes their better observance."

Tribute to Pius. The pope pointed out that the abrogation or modification of laws during the long history of church legislation had caused a complication which was now a work of codification of a work of necessity. He said that the clergy of thought belongs to his predecessor, Pius X., who as soon as he found himself responsible for the government of the church, not only thought out a design of codifying these laws, but strenuously labored as to be within sight of the completion of the work.

God called him to his reward. Hence, although he did not live to see the work quite completed the glory of it is all his. Thus his name in the history of the church must be as a saint, with those of Innocent III, Honorius III, and Gregory IX."

GOEDERICH DISTRICT METHODISTS. CLINTON, Dec. 5.—The November district meeting of the Methodist Church was held at Walton Friday, and a profitable time was spent in social and business sessions. The district representatives for both dinner and supper in the basement of the church.

Meat Restriction For Britain

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The board of trade, under the defence of the realm act, has issued an order to the effect that after December 18, no meat exceeding three courses between 6 p.m. and 9.30 p.m., or two courses at any other time, may be served in any hotel, restaurant, or public place.

The announcement adds that it is proposed to issue another order at an early date forbidding, both in public places and private houses, the consumption on certain days of meat, poultry and game.

SITUATION SIMILAR TO THAT PRECEDING
COALITION CABINET

British Political Crisis, Evolution of Which Resulted in Premier's Resignation, Akin to One Caused by Attacks Which Brought All Parties Into Government in May, 1915.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Premier Henry Herbert Asquith, whose resignation is officially announced, became premier of Great Britain in 1908, succeeding Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. Mr. Asquith at once began a policy of reform—parliamentary, social and constitutional—of a radical nature, aided by David Lloyd George, with whom today he apparently is at odds.

Shortly after the outbreak of the war the Liberal Cabinet of Asquith began to be assailed by its political enemies, mainly on the conduct of the war, and to the detriment of the safety of the branch of the forces. So bitter was this campaign that on May 26, 1915, a coalition cabinet was formed, with Asquith, however, retaining the portfolio of prime minister. The present political crisis in Great Britain apparently had its origin in a similar situation, especially on account of the Government's postponement of consideration of the British Air Board's demand for fuller powers to meet the situation created by German air raids on England, the recent change in the command of the British fleet, by which Lord Jellicoe was replaced by Sir John Jellicoe, and the fact that the head of the grand fleet and especially Lloyd George's demand for a smaller war council, which should have powers to act independently of the cabinet.

Mr. Asquith, in Parliament Monday, admitted that there was trouble in his cabinet, and that he had asked King George to permit a reconstruction of the cabinet, and to the detriment of the safety of the branch of the forces. So bitter was this campaign that on May 26, 1915, a coalition cabinet was formed, with Asquith, however, retaining the portfolio of prime minister. The present political crisis in Great Britain apparently had its origin in a similar situation, especially on account of the Government's postponement of consideration of the British Air Board's demand for fuller powers to meet the situation created by German air raids on England, the recent change in the command of the British fleet, by which Lord Jellicoe was replaced by Sir John Jellicoe, and the fact that the head of the grand fleet and especially Lloyd George's demand for a smaller war council, which should have powers to act independently of the cabinet.

DUMA PROGRESSIVES
CONTINUE ATTACKS
ON GOVERNMENT

Insist That Program of Russian House Be Carried Out.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Progressive party in the Duma is continuing attacks on the Government, according to a Reuters dispatch from Petrograd. The dispatch says that after a lively debate a statement issued by the Administration regarding cabinet changes, the Progressives moved a resolution to the effect that as the reconstruction of the cabinet is incomplete and consists rather of a change in individuals than in a change of Administration, the Duma declares that all irresponsible influences must be removed. The resolution adds that the Duma will aim at the formation of a cabinet united on a thorough apprehension of existing problems, and which is prepared to base its activity on the support of the Duma and carry out the program of the majority of that body.

FUNERAL OF JOHN CRAVEN.

ALISA CRAIG, Dec. 4.—John Craven, who died at his home at Brimley on Sunday, had only been ill a week, and death was quite unexpected. He leaves a family of one daughter, Mrs. Witherspoon, and three sons, Linwood, Thomas and Andrew, who left here with a company, 135th Battalion, for overseas, and is at present in France. The funeral was held today at Mrs. H. H. Craven's residence, 1033 Bloor street. Services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Snowden of the Methodist Church.

AUSTRIAN AIR RAID. VIENNA TO BERLIN, Dec. 4, via Saville, Dec. 5.—The Austro-Hungarian admiralty today issued the following communication: "On December 3 one of our naval air squadrons very successfully bombed hostile positions near Dobruja (Italian theatre). The squadron, despite a most heavy shelling, returned unharmed."

IS SECOND SEA LORD. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Admiral Sir Cecil Harcourt, who was Admiral Jellicoe's second in command of the grand fleet, has been appointed second sea lord of the admiralty.

DETROIT TO DEPORT
ALL CANADIANS WHO ARE NOT REGISTERED

Hundreds Affected by Rule Against Aliens.

ONE ALREADY SENT BACK

Those Who Report and Are Acceptable May Yet Remain.

[Special to The Advertiser.] DETROIT, Dec. 5.—A campaign to deport all persons entering the Detroit area claiming they were only passing through the city, who have failed to register, has been started by the Detroit immigration authorities. This includes those who deceived the inspectors by claiming they were only on a business trip, thereby gaining admittance. Upon their reaching Detroit, it is said, many of them stayed here for weeks at the hotels, and only reported to the officials in charge.

According to Oliver G. Frick, inspector in charge, hundreds of Canadians within the past few months have entered Detroit without registering. "Many told the inspectors," added Inspector Frick, "they were coming only on a business trip, and only reported to the officials in charge."

The gist of Mr. Frick's statement is as follows: "We will permit them to stay if examination proves advisable. If they fail to report we will find them sooner or later and will deport them anyway."

"The first alien deported as a result of the campaign was sent back to Canada this afternoon. His name is Basil McManis. He told the inspectors when he entered that he intended remaining only a few hours to visit friends. He was here several weeks before we found him."
