OFFICER ADMITS MARKING BALLOTS

Deputy Returning Officer Sought To Insure Passing of Bylaw.

CLAIMS CASE PROVEN

Canadian Press Despatch. St. Catharines, Ont., March 15 .- J. G. Schiller, counsel for the petitioners whose demand resulted in the opening of the inquiry into the last municipal election, yesterday afternoon withdrew from the inquiry, remarking that sufficient had already developed to show that the call for the investigation was justified; hence e did not consider his further attendance necessary. The inquiry was djourned until next Tuesday.

Clarence Shaw, deputy returning fficer, who at the morning session admitted having marked 23 or 24 ballots for non-voters and having the poll clerk enter them in the poll book as having voted, was complimented by Judge Campbell on not having MU11 AND JEFF added perjury to his other actions. Shaw is the first official to have admitted having committed such irregularities.

He assumed the entire responsibily, declaring that he did not believe he clerk had any idea that he illegally marked the ballots.

The marking, he maintained, was lone in each case after an actual voter had signed the franchise, he marking the fictitious ballot while the clerk was working on his book. Witness called the name from the voters' list. He took this plan in order to keep the fact from the pollclerk, and was confident he had suc-Witness maintained everything was regular from the time the ballot box was opened and through the tally of the vote. He was positive that neither of the two men who had assisted in the tally had tampered with the ballots during the count

As a reason for his having committed the irregularities, Shaw said that it must have been his over-zealousness for the Grouts Limited bylaw. He was always interested in ndustrial bylaws. He merely marked the mayoralty and aldermanic ballots to cover up his illegal act in favor of he industrial bylaw.

Arthur Slingerland, Shaw's poll clerk, declared that he knew nothing of the irregularities which Shaw had admitted. He maintained that Mrs. Jones one of those denying having voted, actually did vote, as he remembered her being in the booth. Mrs. A. Gutollia, foreign voter, testified that she told John O'Brien, election worker, to mark her bal
