HOLY WEEK IN ROME.

Scandalous Behavior of Roman Swells and American Girls in St. Peter's.

ROME, April 13.—The French railways having sold excursion tickets at reduced rates we have had a large influx of strangers this week. The Tenebrae services have been attended by an immense crowd at St. Peter's, where almost all fashionable Rome attended in the afternoon. St. John Latteran and St. Mark Maggiore had a more quiet lot of attendants. The bulk of the curious were in the Vatican Basilica. The behavior of the crowd was scandalous. The most scandalous was the behavior of the young Roman swells. As the pope is no longer the ruler of Rome they seem to think that they are privileged to insult even the Almighty in the churches of the vatican. These young bloods deserted the Corso and the Pincio to follow young ladies to the Basilica. There they talked as loud as if they were in the street. They walked up and down the aisles and kept up the most scandalous conversation, making jocular remarks about the services and the statues in the church. Some of these impudent young men indulged in pranks for which the Piazza Navona is celebrated at carnival or on Epiphany night. St. Peter's sextons are unable to restrain the unruly boys. The temple is profaned by their presence. English and American girls flirted and carried on outrageously. They were seated on the floors and on the prie dieus and on the confessional with the same ease as though they were seated on the grass for a picnic or on a coach on race days. The noise and confusion were as great as at the fair in New York cathedral years ago, when the ladies tried to raise money for its completion. The ceremonies of the morning were attended by a more reserved audience. The consecration of the holy oils took place at St. John of Lateran on Thursday, and the baptism of the Jews and the ordination of eighty clergymen on Saturday evening. Cardinal Parochi, the new vicar, officiated. The different churches had the usual three hours' devotion with plenty of music on Good Friday, and the Desolata devotion at night. The sanctuary of Scalo Santo has been attended by lots of visitors, and the relics of Sta. Croce in Jerusalem have been visited by thousands. The pope officiated on Holy Thursday in his own chapel, giving communion to the prelates of his own household.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Walk.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Fitzgerald was very lame this morning. Day shows signs of fatigue. Rowell and Panchot are in good condition. Herty shows good staying qualities, and is considered a dangerous antagonist by the other leaders. The attendance at the garden is fair.

Score at 1 p.m.: Rowell, 189 miles; Day, 144; Vint, 163; Panchot, 163; Fitzgerald, 181; Noremac, 174; Herty 171.

The Brantford race course is in first-class condition.

The formation of a western quoiting association is mooted. Wingham and London favor the proposition.

The Montreal bicycle club has a membership of 105, including a young lady who is often out on her sociable.

The Atlantic baseball club of London has reorganized and will enter the Canadian league. James O'Hagan is manager.

The St. Catharines Athletics play the Six Nation Indian lacrosse team which holds the Indian championship medal, on May 24.

A Racine jeweler is making handsome scarfpins out of the horseshoe nails that were in the hoofs of Jay-Eye-See when he made his mile in 2.10¾.

There will be a general practice of the Ontario lacrosse club to-day on Toronto lacrosse grounds. Meeting later. All interested in the club are requested to be present.

The Winnipeg bicycle club has $15 in the treasury, and at its last meeting on Tuesday resolved to join the Canadian wheel association. The following officers were elected: President, R. J. Whitla; vice-president, A. C. Mathews; captain, W. H. Nourse; first lieutenant, W. H. Arnold; second lieutenant and bugler, W. W. Mathews; secretary-treasurer, W. E. Slater; wheel sergeant-major, W. A. Capon.

Catarrh—A New Treatment.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern science has been attained by the Dixon treatment for catarrh. Out of 2000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent of the patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefitted, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination; this accomplished, the catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has ever attempted to cure catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favorable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatise on catarrh.—Montreal Star.

Good Enough to Give Away.

From the Detroit Free Press.

A boy who had been sent to carry a silver card basket to a young lady as a bridal present was asked upon his return to the office if he had found the right place.

"Oh, yes."

"See the girl herself?"

"Yes."

"Did she seem much surprised?"

"Very much so."

"Say anything?"

"Why, yes; she told her mother she presumed it was plated, but would be good enough for her aunt in the country."

—Quantity in medicine is no indication of value. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is concentrated and powerful; requires a smaller dose, and is more effective, dose for dose, than any other Sarsaparilla. It is the best of all blood medicines.

Successful in One Sense.

From the Yonkers Statesman.

"How about that book of poems you were going to publish?" asked a gentleman of a publisher.

"Oh, it was published two months ago," was the reply.

"Did it take?" questioned the gentleman, somewhat interested.

"Take!" ejaculated the publisher with a grunt; "take! did you say? Well I should think it did take. It took every cent I had and I haven't got a cent back yet!"

Notes From the Freemason.

The Freemason for May is out.

There are rumors that the two city preceptories will amalgamate.

A templar demonstration to be held in this city during the summer is mooted.

Hamilton now has the grand secretary and grand treasurer, but craves for more and wants the grand master! We do not want the craft to be ruled by a bureaucy in Hamilton, as other cities have also claimants for office. Toronto must have the permanent grand master, and let Hamilton keep what she has.

A Welcome to the World.

From the Peterboro Review.

We are glad to welcome The Toronto World to our table once more, for during its temporary cessation we missed it. We always find it bright, readable, full of news, and generally fairly impartial.

As Bright as Ever.

From the Brockville Times.

The Toronto World is as bright and newsy as ever.

Those Girls.

We venture to assert that the cynical versifier who wrote these lines has been "cut out" by a more accepted wooer:

Those girls are all a wicked show,
For a man's delusion given.
Their smiles of joy and tears of woe
Deceitful shine, deceitful flow.
Not one is true in seven.

They love you for a little while,
And tell you naught shall sunder
Two loving hearts; then full of guile
Bait others with their witching smile,
And you may go to thunder.

—Mother Shipton prophesied the world would come to an end, but this time she is mistaken. The World is still on deck, the boys are selling lots of copies, so does A. Bowk sell lots of cigars at 102 King street west. Why? because he sells the best 5c cigar in town.

A Moving Spectacle.

From the New York Journal.

Dash! crash!
Smash! smash!
Thunder and lightning what a smash!
Moving day,
Deuce to pay,
Heavens and earth! got out the way!

Rain, strain,
Pain, insane!
Thunder and lightning! at it again!
Driver drunk,
Burst a trunk!
Heavens and earth! a fortune sunk!

Boys, noise,
Toys, bang!
Thunder and lightning! go and hang!
Baggage smasher,
Infernal dasher,
Goods and chattel,
How they rattle,
On moving day.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Woman will be pure if man will be true.

Beware of dried apples. They love not wisely but too swell.

This country is not aristocratic in her toggery. The most conspicuous article she wears is a "cotton belt."

A Maine woman 77 years old has sued a man 79 years old for breach of promise. Maine girls are true grit to the last.

"It's a long lain that has no turning," sighed the sick man, as he rolled over in his bed for the first time in two months.

A man in Cincinnati claims to have a wife so hot-tempered that when she is angry he can light his cigar from the fire that flashes from her eyes.

There is in Kansas City, Mo., a fashionable married ladies' club. They dine once every two weeks at the house of one of their members.

Belmoht, N. H., boasts of a woman who "goes out and chops wood with her husband." It is customary to use an axe, but he may be an unusually sharp man.

Women foot-pads are now said to prevail in Chicago. Great Scott! What do Chicago women want to pad their feet for? That city has wide streets, 'tis true, but then—

A Massachusetts man by the name of Darling, who has been married for ten years, says he can't for the life of him tell whether his wife means "ducky" or "you there" when she addresses him.

"I want a Chaucer," said a customer to a New York clerk in a book store, after looking over the list of English poets. "Fine cut or plug?" inquired the young man, putting his hand in his pocket.

The bird let loose in eastern skies,
When hastening fondly home.
Ne'er stoops to earth her wing, nor flies
Where idle warblers roam;
But high she shoots thro' air and light,
Above all low delay,
Where nothing earthly bounds her flight,
Nor shadow dims her way.

So grant me, Lord, from every snare
And stain of passion free,
Aloft through Faith's serener air
To hold my course to Thee!
No sin to cloud, no lure to stay
My soul as home she springs,
Thy sunshine on her joyful way,
Thy freedom in her wings!

From the New York Journal.

Canada is in the blues over a prospective Irish-American raid. It would be a pleasant summer excursion.

—By the use of Buckingham's Dye, the whiskers may be easily made a permanent, natural brown or black, as desired.

—Within the past ten years not a dollar has been lost in purchasing lots in Toronto or its suburbs. On the contrary every dollar so invested has doubled itself in five years, some in three. West Toronto Junction is the rising suburb of the city and a few dollars invested in a lot there will soon double itself. Geo. Clarke of the Li-Quor Tea Co is offering a few on terms that are acceptable to all: An entrance fee of $10, and $2 a week for 182 weeks will purchase a fine lot 50x150 at the Junction, including interest and taxes.

"MAY DEW,"

The Great French Lotion for Beautifying the Face.

It conceals the evidence of age. One application will make the most stubbornly red and rough hands beautifully soft and white. Remember that "MAY DEW" is not a paint or powder that will fill up the pores of the skin, and that is injurious to the skin, but a new and great discovery, a vegetable liquid that causes the cheek to glow with health, the neck, arms and hands to rival the Lily in whiteness. Impossible to detect in the beauty it confers any artificial character. It cures Greasy Skin, Freckles, Wrinkles, Pimples, Black Heads, Crow's Feet, Blotches, Face Grubs, Sun Burn, Tan, Ringworm, Chapped Hands, Sore or Chapped Lips, Barbers' Itch, Tetter, etc. It frees the pores, oil glands, and tubes from the injurious effects of powders and cosmetic washes. By its use all redness and roughness is prevented; it beautifies the skin, and will make it soft, smooth and white; imparting a delicate softness; producing a perfectly healthy, natural and youthful appearance. The best face lotion that the world ever produced. We will send "A LARGE BOTTLE" to any address on receipt of price, $1. When ordering mention this paper.
