Walker's Band!

Walker Bros. & Co., proprietors of Walker's Weekly Payment Stores, Toronto, Hamilton and Ottawa, will have their celebrated Hamilton Band in the Grand Jubilee Procession on Dominion Day, the Committee of Management having accepted their services for the occasion. They will appear in their splendid new $1000 Uniforms, and will play selections at the Exhibition Grounds during the afternoon, and at the store, Queen-street, between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening.

The firm are free to admit that one of their principal objects in maintaining this magnificent musical organization is as a feature in advertising their extensive Instalment Business, which already has a Dominion reputation, and has made their name a household word in connection with the supplying of everything in the line of House Furnishings on easy Weekly or Monthly Payments.

Any person can open an account with them for Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Bedding, and other articles that go to make up the comforts of a home, and it can be settled gradually, in such amounts and at such times as are alike convenient. You are kindly invited to call, and any information in regard to goods and prices that is possible to give will be cheerfully afforded you.
