**Balmy Beach Notes.**

Among the campers at the Beach there are many who are musicians, and they have formed an orchestra, which will conduct the singing at the Church of England havifisher tent next Sunday evening, when the Rev. H. C Dixon will preach. The building is now complete, and all the debt has been paid off. The Rev. J. R. S. Boyd preached there last night to a good congregation. Every day fresh tents are being put up in the bush and put he lake shore, and at night it is easily known that there are many young men in the neighborhood, away from the restraints of town, but as long as their pranks are not objectionable the cottagers are willing to bear with them, The cottages in Balsam-avenpa are about completed, and two of them are already rented, they are very handsome and convenient. Mr. J. L. Hughes is renting a very large portion of the ground which he owns in the vicinity to campers. The Presbyterian congregation are doing a good work in their neat little church.

just one out of hundreds that are coming in every day. We publish it for the benefit of the women who read about Pearline, but who still keep on washing without it, in that needlessly hard and wearing way. We omit name and address, as requested:

"Now I will tell you how I came to use your PEARLINE. We have taken the 'Ladies' Home Journal' for several years. Three and a half years ago, every time I picked up my 'Journal' to read, the first thing I would see was your advertisement and picture of PEARLINE. I got so tired of looking at it, that I said I would get a package and try it. The result was, when the package was gone I bought another package, and so I have done ever since. I never think of going to wash clothes since, without my PEARLINE. I have recommended it to quite a number of people, who are now using it, just from my recommendation. I have just written this to you to let you know how highly I prize it. I don't want my name and address to go before the public."
