Costs Money

Every line of printed matter in a newspaper costs its publisher something. If it is to benefit some individual should pay something for it. One would not go into a grocery store to ask the proprietor to hand out ten pounds of sugar for nothing 1 40 even though the grocer may be a personal friend and even though the gift may not be a large one. If the beneficiary of advertising does not pay for it the proprietor must shoulder the cost. People do not seem 4 00 to understand that a newspaper pays its expenses by renting space and that is as much entitled to collect rent for every day that space is occupied, as a landlord is for the 3 00 house he rents to a tenant.-Stratford Herald. Entertaining Sister's Beau

Her Eyes Upon Him.

A well-known writer was present recently at a dress rehearal of a comedy played by amateurs. The rehear-sal went well, but the hero, B., seem-d rather hard and cold. The novelist sat in a box next to a charming woman of middle age. She said at the end of the third act, "It goes beautifully, doesn't it?"

"Beautifully," said the gentleman.
"But B. doesn't make love to that pretty girl in as ardent a manner as I could wish. His lovemaking, in fact, strikes me as tame and spirit-less."

The woman frowned. "He won't put any more spirit in it while I've got my eye on him, let me tell you," she said. "I'm Mrs. B."

A Sculptor's First Job.

The story of Naoum Aronson's first commission reads like a romance, says a writer in World's Work concerning the Russian sculpwork concerning the Russian sculp-tor. He had gone short of food and worked incessantly in his scanty leis-ure so that he might send a bust to the salon, and it had been accepted. One morning, faint from want of proper nourishment, he turned giddy on the stairs, fell down the flight on the stairs, fell down the night and knocked himself senseless, and there he was found unconscious by his first patron, a gentleman who had noticed his work in the salon and called to commission a bust. From that moment Aronson never looked back.

Some Siege.

Crete endured the longest siege on Crete endured the longest siege on record, beside which Troy's ten years seem but a skirmish. In 1648 the Turks, attempting to conquer the island, laid siege to the capital city of Candia, which, however, did not surrender until September, 1669, after 21 years. Again in 1821, when the Cretans revolted, the defeated Turks were able to hold the fortified cities against all attacks, and many of them were still uncaptured when the powers intervened nine years later.

Persistency in Advertising

One stroke of a bell in a thick fog does not give any lasting impression of its location, but when followed by repeated strokes at regular intervals the usest fog or the darkest night long conceal its whereabouts, Likewise a single insertion of an advertisement as compared with regular and systematic advertising—is in effect not unlike a sound which, heard but faintly once, is lost in space and soon forgotten.

SUMMER SKIN TROUBLES

Sunburn, blistering, and irritation are the commonest form of summer skin troubles, and Zam-Buk ends these very troubles, and Zam-Buk ends these very quickly. It works in two ways. As soon as applied, its antiseptic powers get to work and kill all the poison in a wound, a sting or a sore. This generally ends the smarting and the pain. Then Zam-Buk begins the healing process, and fresh healthy tissue is built up. For sore, blistered feet, sore hands, heat rashes, haby's heat snots sore places due to person the process. baby's heat spots, sore places due to per-spiration, etc., you can't equal Zanı-Buk. Some men make fun of the man who ries his hand at gardening, assuring him hat his cucumbers will cost him 25 cents spice and everything else in proportion; apiece and everything else in proportion; that it is cheaper to buy vegetables in the market and flowers at the stores. In some cases this might be true but even then there is profit in gardening. It is a worthy achievement to convert barren infertility into rich productiveness. The labor of the doing will take the place of a gymnasium or daily trips to the golf links and it is within the reach of those who can afford neither of these luxuries. who can afford neither of these luxuries,

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How the moving-picture show business is increasing is revealed in the figures of American exports. In March the export of films amounted to 23,000,000 lineal feet, as against 3,000,000 in March of last year. At the same rate of increase for the year the total will be 195,000,000 lineal feet, or enough to encircle the globe and reach to the North and South Poles.

Hog Cholera Has Broken Out in Kent County

Chatham, May 28.—Hog cholera has broken out in the township of Chatham. A few days ago, Dr. Clapp, of Dresden, was driving past the farm of J. W. Barker, when he noticed the hogs coughing in the field. He immediately recognized the symptom and notified Dr. Rowe, the district government inspector. Dr. Rowe visited the farm, with the result that Mr. Baker's whole herd, 49 in number, were slaughtered.

It means a great loss to Mr. Baker, as he is reimbursed for only one third of their value.

their value.

The disease was evidently noticed just in time, as there have been no further developments, and the authorities believe that the disease is stamped out.
